BIKE MISSIONARY COMES

Fred St. Onge, representing the Cycle Trades of America, will be in Salem for three days beginning May 24. Mr. St. Onge has been named the bicycle missionary and complete education that he gives the bicycle rider. He goes right into the schools and industrial institutions, telling and showing each bicycle rider how to get the best service and most enjoyment out of his or her wheel.

Another feature that he will put on is an immense bicycle parade with hundreds of decorated bicycles, special prizes to be given for all classes of riders, large and small, old and young.

CHURCH NOTES

A company from the North Pacific Evangelical institute, Portland, is in charge of services at the South Salem Friends church today.

The Whitney Boys' chorus will sing this morning at the First Methodist church.

"Thoburn, Called of God" a book by Bishop William F. Oldham, will be the subject of a talk tonight by Rev. Blaine E. Kirkpatrick of the First Methodist church.

"Do Newspapers Help or Hinder Moral Progress?" will be the sermon topic tonight at the First Presbyterian church.

"Why I Cannot Accept Present Day Spiritualism" will be the sermon topic tonight at the First Congregational church. Rev. W. C. Kantner will preach.

Rev. William T. Milliken will preach his last sermon today as pastor of the First Baptist church. He is to take over the work of the educational director for Oregon for the Baptist church.

The First Evangelical church will hold the first meeting since the Liberty and Cottage street churches were merged, at the Cottage street church. Rev. C. C. Poling is the pastor in charge and with Mrs. Poling will take up his residence in the Liberty street manse during the coming week.

Miriam Lovell is president of the Christian Endeavor. Other officers are: Esther Schmalla, vice president; Lillian Garnjobst, secretary; Anna Miles, recording secretary, and Ida Hilliker treasurer.

The change in time of evening services at the different churches will take effect May 6, according to an announcement made by the Ministerial association. Beginning at that time Sunday evening services begin at 8 o'clock. The next meeting of the association will be in the form of a picnic.

A process has been developed for photographing the brain, but to know some folks who would kick on the experiment personally. There is a reason.—Ex.

Green Pyralin VISORS $6.85

The Green Pyralin Visor is one of the classiest and neatest appearing visors on the market. The pyralin breaks the glare of the sun or approaching headlights and is the most desirable material for a Visor. The substantial brackets give it added strength.

The pyralin used is heavy gauge and very durable. The Visor is much lighter than one made of glass, and for that reason is much more desirable for open cars, where it must be attached to the windshield.

Other Visors including:
All Metal, $4.75 to $5.75.
Durable Rubber Cloth, $2.95.
Green Glass, $11.50 to $20.00.
