

CANTATA IS HEARD BY PACKED HOUSE

Pupils of Sacred Heart Academy Present Story of Three Bears

A packed house greeted the Sacred Heart academy's cantata, "Golden Hair and the Three Bears," Tuesday night at Grand theater. The affair was a benefit for the academy and the money realized will be used to defray the expenses of a new floor and re-decoration of the chapel. The improvements are being made at this time especially in observance of the 60th anniversary of the founding of the academy in Salem.

The old fairy tale was presented in the form of a cantata by the pupils of the academy with special choruses. May Lebold took the part of Golden Hair, and Raymond Suing won the hearts of the youngsters in the part of "Tiny Cub." Francis Ally was Mammy Muff and Bernard Nash, Bruin. The three bears were costumed in true bruin style, and fairies, dwarfs, witches and sprites in numbers danced and sang. The scenes were under the direction of Mrs. Ralph White.

Other leading parts were taken as follows: Woodland Queen, Esther Burch; Sylvie, Kathryn Savage; Faithful, Eva Albrich; Light-foot, Grace Hottinger; Frailty, Vivian Nason; Alry, Helen Coyne; and the fairy, Mary Albrich. Mary Ann Porter, harpist, played a group of two numbers.

The grand finale chorus was participated in by all of the various choruses which had taken part in the play, together with the principals.

Seniors Yield in Interclass Event on Question of Gasoline Tax

The sophomore debating team of the Salem high school won the interclass debate Tuesday with the seniors by a unanimous decision of the three judges, who were Elmo S. White, Robert Little and A. N. Moores. The question debated was "Resolved That Oregon should repeal the one-cent additional gasoline tax."

The seniors had the affirmative of the question. Their leading speaker was Hem Sun, and the other two were Russell Pratt and Lee Crawford. The sophomore negative team members were Avery Thompson, leader, Homer Richards and Eugene Young.

Each speaker was allowed seven minutes for constructive argument and each leader was allowed three minutes for rebuttal. Orlando Horning and Hazel Browne, faculty members of the high school were the coaches for the sophomores and seniors respectively.

The debate was one of the interclass rivalry series of events. The rivalry points now stand: Seniors 47, Juniors, sophomores 35. Three events are yet to take place.

ALL SALEM WILL BE DRESSED UP

Most Business Houses to Display Shriner Emblems for Ceremonial

All the Chamber of Commerce flags, bunting, insignia and whatever will look good to a Shriner or plain visitor are to be put out on exhibition this week. They will make a long, brave display, for they are to fly Friday, Saturday, Sunday, and they won't be taken in again until Monday.

Practically every business house in town has agreed to some form of decoration for the Shriner ceremonial reception. Some may smoke up on a modest scale; but almost all will show that their hearts are in the right place.

The Traglo warehouse on South Liberty street is being fitted up for an emergency kitchen. They will need the two floors of the big structure; for kitchen, dining room, rest rooms, cloak room and dining rooms.

The women are to be entertained about town. They are to be given the very best there is in Salem, and there will be no strings on the local hospitality while the ceremonial is on. Coupon tickets good for cabs, meals, theatres, for a hundred things that a visitor might want while in the city, will bring their needs right to their door, without charge. It promises to be a more delightful visit for the women than for the men, for they don't have a single thing to do except as they want to do it, while their liege lords and masters have to show up at the Ceremonial in all their regalia, and listen to possible long-drawn-out exercises.

Without atonement repentance is hypocrisy.

She Wears Satin This Season

White satin and white lace are the materials of this season's wedding gowns. Some are quaint adaptations of old modes—full skirts, basque bodices, button necklines in 1880 style. Others are in the latest modes with front drapes in the Egyptian fashion; sleeveless models covered with pearl bead embroidery and silver lace over white silk.

A Painted Neighborhood

YOU are proud of your neighborhood. You delight in having your friends see your home and those that surround it. Every time you come up the street, you thrill with pride that you are able to bring up your family in such pleasant surroundings. The homes may not be costly, but they are well kept. In other words, they're painted.

Just stop and picture those same houses run down for lack of paint—drab, shabby, weather-beaten—and you'll realize what it means to you to live in a well-painted neighborhood. You not only enjoy it, but your children, because of this daily association, are being taught the beauty of harmonious colors.

BASS-HUETER Paints and Varnishes

give to your home that well-kept appearance every one admires. You can't buy better paint or varnish than that which bears the Bass-Hueter label, representing over sixty years of progress in paint making. These products are made on the Pacific Coast and successfully meet the climatic conditions peculiar to the West.

What you pay for the paint is but a small part of the finished work. It costs just as much to have cheap paint put on, and Bass-Hueter Paint, because it is made of the best materials, will wear twice as long as the average paint. Therefore we suggest that when you repaint your house, or have the interior redecorated, you specify Bass-Hueter products. On the small jobs that you do yourself, you will also find it economy to use a Bass-Hueter product, choosing the one made especially for the work you have to do.

You will be delighted with your results if you follow carefully the directions given on each can.
