Fishing Number Published—
"Fisherman's Number" is the title for the last and current issue of the Oregon magazine, issued this week in Salem. It is filled to the brim with fishing stories, stories of good advice, "Nut" stories written by the men who lived them, picture stories that are calm and smooth, the kind of tackle—what perfectly unnecessary, superfluous advice, for every fisher knows it all without help—fishing laws, and a fishing atmosphere from cover to cover. There are even fish poems. The cover is an ancient dub who is probably King Tut in disguise, with his costly tunic and his no-catch cord, dicker with a fox-feathered little Egyptian lad who with his willow pole and pinhook has caught a whole truckload of splendid Egyptian fishes.

Not Under Act—
Motor vehicles used by factories or dealers to deliver goods to buyers, with a charge made for the service, do not come under the automotive transportation act, according to an opinion of Attorney General Van Winkle written for the public service commission. The question arises from the fact that some concerns deliver their goods from Portland to The Dalles, Salem and other distant points. The opinion holds that they are not under the act if they make the deliveries exclusively for their own business and incident to sales, and therefore they do not have to pay the license and conform to other regulations provided in the act.

NAIDENOFF IS VICTIM OF BOX

Age Old Swindle Perpetrated By Milan Sajatovich, Is Allegation

The age-old "box" swindle, perpetrated upon thousands of unsuspecting persons during past decades, has claimed another victim. Yesterday George Naidenoff filed suit in the circuit court against Milan Sajatovich for recovery of $3900 which he alleged he had been swindled out of by the beguiling Mr. Sajatovich.

Last August the plaintiff claims he was approached by Mr. Sajatovich, who represented himself as a plutocratic oil magnate, desirous of scattering his surplus wealth among the poor of the city of Portland and suburbs. It was suggested by the suave Mr. Sajatovich that the plaintiff assist him on his mission of mercy by digging up from his own coffers the sum of $3900 which was to be inserted in a box. Whereupon having duly ascertained that the $3900 was safely within the box the generous Mr. Sajatovich was to insert an additional $25,000. With the $28,900 they were to meet at a later date and in common go out upon the highways and byways of Portland, dispensing among the poor and needy the contents of the box. In consideration of his worthy deed Mr. Naidenoff was to receive his original $3900 back again, plus the additional tidy sum of $2,900.

Fortwith, the plaintiff alleges he drew from his bank $3900, which he placed within the box. It was condescendingly accepted by Mr. Sajatovich, who asserted that he would be back in "three or four days." Instead, however, the elusive Mr. Sajatovich fled himself to parts unknown, leaving behind him the box, which was later found to contain only newspapers.

A short time ago, however, Mr. Sajatovich was picked up in New York and brought back to Oregon on a charge of perpetrating a similar stunt on the New York public. And so, being quite sure that Mr. Sajatovich is no longer the good Samaritan he represented himself to be, Mr. Naidenoff wants his $3900 back.

BITS FOR BREAKFAST

The Shriners are here—
And it will be a great day and night in Salem.

Every Shriner is a Knight Templar of thirty-second degree Mason, though the Order of the Mystic Shrine is not Masonic.

The American Order of the Mystic Shrine was established in 1872; though the Ancient Arabic Order of Nobles of the Mystic Shrine was established 646 A. D., by Kaiff Ahu, a son-in-law of Mohammed.

All the Shriners and their ladies should see the tulip farm. But it is a pity they could not have seen it in its greater glory a week ago.

Every day in every way the flower beds in the front yards of Salem look handsomer and handsomer.

The presumption is that the balters of the present administration would abandon all outside work at the penitentiary, because a trusty escapes once in a while, or twice in a while; would quit cutting over 1000 cords of wood a month and doing a lot of other things looking to the taking of the expense of the prison from the backs of the taxpayers. Well, let the balters howl. The nearer the institution approaches self-support, under the present program, however, the smaller will be the number of trusties on the outside, and the fewer escapes. But there must be no turning back, and there will be none, because of a yellow streak yell now and then, or often.
