

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Reckless Driving, $40.—James H. Snyder was arrested for reckless driving yesterday. He was fined $40 and costs.

Month-End Sale.—Of exclusive designs in millinery and ready-to-wear. Sale will continue until June 1st. The French Shop.—Adv.

License Lack Costly.—Frank Bates, charged with operating a car with improper license plates, pleaded guilty when arraigned in justice court yesterday. He was fined $25 and his operators' license suspended for 60 days.

Bay Furniture.—This week and save money. H. L. Stiff Furniture Co.—Adv.

Speeder Fined.—E. P. Richardson was arrested for speeding at the rate of 50 miles an hour yesterday. He pleaded guilty when arraigned in justice court and was fined $40.

Great Stock Reducing Sale.—All this week. A chance to save money on furniture. H. L. Stiff Furniture Co.—Adv.

Dr. Semones Dead.—The sudden recent death of Dr. Millard Semones of Forest Grove has caused great regret among his many acquaintances in and about Salem, where Dr. and Mrs. Semones have resided at intervals. Dr. Semones was a prominent member of the Christian church at Forest Grove and always a consistent factor and indefatigable worker for the best interests of the community in which he lived.

Stock Must be Reduced.—One half. Sale all this week. H. L. Stiff Furniture Co.—Adv.

Order Issued.—The public service commission yesterday issued an order granting to W. Lund and N. R. Neville authority to construct a wire track between Kaudon and Mehler in Tillamook county.

Open House Today.—This morning at 9:30 the week-day school of religious instruction that is being tried out in connection with the Garfield school in North Salem, is to hold "open house" to all who wish to attend. The school is held at the Cottage Street Evangelical church, just across the street from the Garfield school, and the record of attendance...

for the month that the school has already been carried on, is gratifying. Governor Walter M. Pierce is expected to visit the school this morning to see how it seems to fit into the general scheme of public education. Others will also attend, and a considerable number of visitors is expected.

Recall One-Cent Sale.—Thursday, Friday, Saturday—May 24, 25, 26. Perry's Drug Store.—Adv.

Wiggins Writes Article.—Don Wiggins of South Salem, in the last issue of Outdoor Life, Denver, has an interesting article on "Varmint Weepins," a story of small-bore rifles as he has rebuilt or re-sighted them for his own use. Mr. Wiggins is nationally known as a gun authority, and the years of experimentation that he has carried on has brought a lot of important gun-lore to within the reach of other enthusiasts. He is gun editor of Adventure, and has correspondents all over the world through his magazine. The article mentioned is a discussion of small or sub-caliber rifles, .22 and .32 caliber. Much of the mechanical part of the Wiggins' remodeled arsenal is done by Ralph White of Salem, in the Hauser Brothers' store.

Refers, No—Moth.—Special 39c at Millers. Make a cedar chest out of an ordinary clothes closet.—Adv.

Congestion Alleged.—The public service commission has written Franklin T. Griffith president of the Portland Railway, Light & Power company, calling his attention to an alleged condition of congestion of cars at East Broadway and Larabee streets. F. A. Rasch of the Portland office of the commission will investigate, and the company is asked to co-operate with him.

Tut-Ark-Ahmen.—Frocks of latest Egyptian crepe at special prices during our month end sale, which continues until June 1st. The French Shop.—Adv.

Will Intervene.—The public service commission will be permitted by the interstate commerce commission to intervene in the grain rate case of the railroad commission of Montana against the Butte, Anaconda & Pacific Railroad company, according to a communication received yesterday from the interstate commission. The Oregon commission recently requested this privilege.

Well Furnished Flat.—Modern; large five rooms. For rent. Immediate possession. $40 a month. At 664 1-2 Perry street. Call at Statesman business office, or phone 22.

Canned Fruits Included.—Canned fruits as well as fresh and dried fruits will be included in the public service commission's investigation into interstate freight rates on those commodities to be held in Portland June 14. The commission has amended its statement and notice of the hearing accordingly.

Legal Blanks.—Get them at The Statesman office. Catalog on application.—Adv.

Inspectors Report.—Inspectors of the state traffic department during the month of April were responsible for the payment of fines in Oregon courts for Furniture Sale.—All this week. H. L. Stiff Furniture Co.—Adv.

Son Announced.—A son was born at Berkeley, Calif., May 21 to Mr. and Mrs. Ray W. Metcalf, to be named Robert Cooley. Mrs. Metcalf (Lola Cooley) was born in Salem, and both she and Mr. Metcalf are well known here, where both attended Willamette University.

Phone Companies Checked.—Eleven small telephone companies in Oregon have operating revenues of from $10,000 to $50,000 a year, according to information received by the interstate commerce commission. The list has been submitted to the state public service commission with a request that it be checked over to ascertain if there are others of this class not included in the list. The list submitted by the interstate commission follows: Hillsboro Telephone company, Independent Telephone company, Interurban Telephone company, Klamath Telephone & Telegraph company, Lebanon Mutual Telephone company, Melheur Home Telephone company, McMinnville Local and Long Distance Telephone company, Multnomah & Clackamas County Mutual Telephone company, Newberg Telephone company, Western Oregon Telephone & Telegraph company and Willamette Telephone company.

Attends Funeral.—Mrs. F. B. Southwick, one of the three remaining of the seven founders of the Neighbors of Woodcraft, went to Portland yesterday to attend the funeral services which were held there yesterday for the late Mrs. C. C. Van Orsdal, who was grand guardian of the order. Mrs. Annie Hawkins, of Toledo, Or., and J. M. Wright of Portland are also charter members.

Of Special Interest.—Are the ratine and linen tub frocks at Millers. See ad on page 1, 2nd section.—Adv.

FUNERALS
Funeral services of Thomas Jefferson Browning will be held at the Terwilliger home today at 2:30 p. m., Rev. J. J. Evans officiating, concluding services at the mausoleum.

DIED
WALTY.—A. Walty, an old time resident of Salem, died on Monday, May 21, aged 81 years. The body is at the Rigdon parlors. Funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon, May 23, at 2:30 o'clock from the Rigdon mortuary chapel. Interment will be in City View cemetery.

KNOWLAND.—In this city Tuesday, May 22, 1923, Jasper Knowland, 71 years of age, husband of Letha Knowland, father of Charles and Myrtle Knowland, all of Salem, and Robert and Pauline Knowland, grandchildren. Funeral Thursday, May 24, 2 p. m., services at St. Paul's Episcopal church.

Wants Divorce.—Because her husband is said to be possessed of an ungovernable temper, and among other misdeeds at one time threw a bucket of boiling water on her, Lena E. Langfois filed suit for divorce against Harry T. Langfois in the circuit court yesterday. In addition, the complaint asserts, the defendant used vile and vulgar language toward the plaintiff. The defendant is also said to have lived off the earnings of the plaintiff on several occasions and is asserted to have informed the plaintiff that he was interested in other women.

Millinery.—Of individual distinction is now being offered at our month-end sale at $5 up, until June 1st. Exceptionally modish gowns, attractively reasonable at $16.50 up. The French Shop.—Adv.

Berry Outlets Found.—H. H. Mumford of the loganberry growers' exchange, reports that the executive committee has found two outlets for the loganberries which will relieve the entire situation if the growers will decide not to take less than five cents a pound for their crop. A meeting of the growers will probably be called either Friday or Saturday, he states.

Creighton Fined.—George Creighton of 1970 Center street was arrested yesterday for speeding at the rate of 30 miles an hour along Court between Church and Capitol. He was fined $5.

Trains Not Delayed.—No delay in Southern Pacific trains passing through Salem is occasioned by a fire in the tunnel at Coram, Cal., 274 miles north of San Francisco, which cut off traffic on the Southern Pacific main line yesterday. The Salem office of the road reports that transfer around the point of interruption is being made by walking a distance of 1000 feet, and that all trains here yesterday came through on time, and it is presumed they will do so today.

Cliffon Hoaxery.—In the new graphite gray with ribbon back seams, $3.50, at Millers.—Adv.

Trindle Receiver.—A move to the court for the appointment of a receivership was filed by the board of Foreign Missions of the Methodist Episcopal church against the Oregon Realty Exchange Investment company and John L. and Mrs. J. L. White in the circuit court yesterday. According to the filing, all of the defendants have abandoned and have refused to claim an interest in certain property now partially occupied by tenants who pay no rent. It is also asserted that the property being near the Southern Pacific tracks it is frequented by tramps, vagabonds and wayfarers who will break the glass and steal whatever fixtures may be obtained. As a result Judge Kelly appointed William Trindle as receiver for the property.

Distinctive Apparel.—At remarkably moderate prices is being shown at our present month-end sale which will continue until June 1. The French Shop.—Adv.

Car in Mishap.—A patch of wet pavement and a car going at top speed came together in the natural course of events just this side of Woodburn about noon yesterday. The remains of the car were hauled into Salem about 5 o'clock last night. A Mr. Howard from Salem and Mr. Arent from Portland were in the car when it hit the wet spot on the pavement. It was not stated just where they were when the car, on reaching the wet spot accomplished a circle on the highway and then

J. N. KNOWLAND CALLED BY DEATH

Veteran of Indian Wars, Well Known Resident of Salem, Passes

Jasper Newton Knowland, for the past 19 years a respected citizen of Salem, died Tuesday at a local hospital. The funeral is to be held Thursday at 2 o'clock, from St. Paul's Episcopal church. Mr. Knowland was born in DeKalb, Illinois, in 1852. He was too young for the Civil war, but in 1873, he enlisted in Company K, 14th United States Infantry, at Fort Laramie, Wyoming, and served for three years in the frontier Indian war. In 1876, he returned to Illinois, and on July 4 of that year he married Aletha Seates, whom he now leaves. Two children also survive: Charles E. and Myrtle Knowland, both well known in musical and business circles of turned completely over. The men were said, however, to have suffered only minor bruises and scratches.

Father Doran Will Speak Again at Armory Tonight

A former Protestant Episcopal minister, Rev. Alvah W. Doran, now missionary apostolic of the Catholic archdiocese of Philadelphia, will deliver a lecture in the Salem armory tonight, under the auspices of the Catholic Truth society of Oregon. The lecture will be free and is for the purpose of defending the Catholic church against the false statements which have been circulated against the tenets, policies and practices of the Catholic church in the United States.

Father Doran is said to be a speaker of unusual force and brings a message tending to promote "harmony and good will among men of all creeds and denominations." He addressed large audiences five successive evenings recently at the public auditorium in Portland.
