California Takes Track Meet at Pullman, Washington

NARROW MARGIN OF VICTORY COMES AS SURPRISE TO MANY

Bears, Conceded Easy Victors, Nose Out Washington by Only 3 1/2 points; Oregon Captures Relay Race and Lands in Fourth Place; Events Held in Downpour and No Records Are Broken.

PULLMAN, Wash., June 2.—University of California, regarded as an easy winner in the intercollegiate track and field meet here this afternoon, nosed out a victory over the University of Washington by the narrow margin of 3 1/2 points and won by a score of 43 1/2 points. Not until Washington had lost the relay, the final event on the program, was the issue decided.

The meet was held in a down-pour of rain that had fallen for more than 36 hours and made the field an uncertain footing. The cinder track, however, drained well and was fast as usual. No records were broken or approached. Sparrow of Oregon tried three times to better the conference record of Jenne, Washington State, of 12 feet, one inch in the pole vault, but succeeded in making only 12 feet six inches.

The conference cup was presented to the winning Bears by Governor Louis F. Hart of Washington, one of the 3,000 spectators who braved the rain to watch the contestants.

WINS GOLF TITLE

PORTLAND, Or., June 2.—Jack Westland of Everett, Wash., today won the Pacific coast intercollegiate golf championship by defeating Bryan Winter, also of Everett in a 36-hole match at Waverly country club here. Both Westland and winter represented the University of Washington. Yesterday they eliminated two entries from the University of Oregon, the only other university represented in the tournament.

MEDAL WINNER IS COACH

DENVER, Colo., June 2.—Aubrey Devine, who won the "big Ten" medal at the University of Iowa in 1921 for scholarship and athletics, former all-American quarterback and a nine letter man has been appointed assistant football coach for the University of Denver, it was announced today.

KILBANE EXPLAINS HOW FRENCH BOXER GRABBED OFF TITLE

Over-confidence Blamed by American, Who Lost Featherweight Honors to Criqui by Taking Count in Sixth Round; Victor Praises Veteran's Actions in Ring; Record Crowd Attends International Battle.

POLO GROUNDS, New York, June 2.—(By Associated Press.)—A lithe-limbed panther-like warrior of France, bearing the scars of the fight of fights, boxed and punched his way to dramatic victory and a world championship here today. Eugene Criqui, former poulu, who came back to the ring after his jaw had stopped German bullets at Verdun seven years ago, rose to the greatest heights of his pugilistic career when he knocked out Johnny Kilbane, veteran American holder of the world's featherweight crown, in the sixth round of an international battle before a crowd estimated at 25,000 in the Polo grounds.

It was a battle between veterans of two continents, but in the end Criqui's greater stamina and punching ability carried him to triumph. Kilbane, who had held the world title for 11 years, had a shade the best of the defensive fighting, but at critical moments he was unable to stem the tide of Criqui's cyclonic attack.

The finish came with sensational suddenness in the sixth round when Kilbane's generalship appeared to have baffled the former poulu's fiery onslaught. Time after time he had weathered a storm of rights and lefts to the head and body, but Criqui was not to be denied. Starting from his corner in the sixth round with determination in his features, he feinted, then whipped in a terrific left to the body that staggered the champion. Kilbane drew away, expecting another left, but Criqui struck in a right cross to the jaw and sent the American back on his heels and toppling to the canvas. At the count of six Kilbane tried to rise and succeeded in getting to one knee, but groggy and weak he fell back as Referee Jack Appell tolled off the count of 10.

NEW YORK, June 2.—(By the Associated Press.)—Describing the manner in which he lost his world featherweight title to Eugene Criqui of France, Johnny Kilbane declared:

"The blow came as a surprise to me, as I was just opening up. The body blow struck me off balance and I could not escape the punch to the jaw that clored me.

"I was all confidence and in wonderful shape. Criqui is a marvelous boxer and a terrific puncher. I wish him nothing but success as the new champion."

Criqui, the new title holder, after receiving the congratulations of compatriots who besieged his dressing room, modestly described how he attained the heights of featherweightdom.

"Kilbane," he said, "gave me a hard battle. He is one of the cleanest boxers I ever met. I saw my opportunity in the sixth, and after staggering him off balance with a left to the body, I swung the right. It landed, that was all."

MICHIGAN WINS MEET

FERRY FIELD, Ann Arbor, June 2.—Michigan triumphed over Illinois by half a point in the western conference outdoor track and field championship meet today, the Wolverines winning as a result of taking third in the relay race, by a score of 57 1-2 to 57. Wisconsin was third with 27, Iowa fourth with 26 and Notre Dame fifth with 14 1-3 points.

FIGHT CALLED DRAW

NEW YORK, June 2.—Louis (Kid) Kaplan of Meriden, Conn., and Babe Herman of Los Angeles, Cal., fought a fierce eight round contest which the judges called a draw in the final bout at the Polo grounds today. Both men were bleeding and gasping for breath at the end of their fierce encounter.

Do You Save Enough?

BANKERS say that saving money is largely a matter of habit—of systematically putting away something every pay day—of consistently thinking in terms of thrift.

The bankers are right. But remember that thrift embraces buying as well as saving. It is "penny wise and pound foolish" to save by scrimping and yet spend money needlessly in making your every day purchases.

Has it ever occurred to you that every day you can save something simply by reading the advertisements in this paper? Do you realize that the advertisements tell you just where and when to buy to advantage—that they tell you how to avoid regrettable expenditures?

Thrifty folks realize that advertising has reduced the selling costs of thousands of factories and stores. Many of the things that today count as necessities or simple luxuries could not be sold at anything like their present prices had not advertising created a broad market for them. It has made millions of sales at small profit where otherwise there would be thousands of sales at large profit per sale.

So, you owe a great deal to advertising. And you owe it to yourself to read advertising.
