NATURAL CURIOSITY
Mr. Dunn stood up in court, charged with disorderly conduct, his head swathed in bandages, and demanded a trial by jury.
"It's only a minor offense," advised the judge. "Why not plead guilty, pay a small fine and get it over?"
"No, judge," replied Mr. Dunn, determinedly. "I want a trial by jury. The last thing I remember was when I was standing peaceful like on the corner and that big guy wandered along. The next thing was when two doctors were sewing me up. Unless I have a trial and hear witnesses I never will find out what I called the big stiff."
