

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

There will be a special meeting of Salem lodge No. 4, AF & AM, today, Friday, at 1:30 o'clock, to attend the funeral of our late brother, Charles Hagemann, at the Webb Funeral parlors, at 2 o'clock. By order of the W. M. Adv.

Peony Show Today—
Salem peony fanciers will display their blossoms at the floral shop of Mrs. Sarah Schwab on State street. It is being sponsored by the Salem Floral society of which Mrs. Lawrence T. Harris is president.

Funeral at Salem—
Funeral services for the late Mrs. E. L. Barrick, 1677 High street, are being held at the birth of a daughter, June 9.

Police Sisters Beauty Parlor—
Will be opened to public Saturday, New and up-to-date methods of beauty work, marcelling, hair dressing, shampooing, facial treatment, scalp treatment, etc. Thoroughly experienced operators. Callers' balcony in ready-to-wear condition. Adv.

Reception Monday—
The annual reception given by President and Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney will be given Monday evening in Lausanne hall. This is an annual affair and no invitations are issued. The public is invited to attend and the hours are from 8 until 10 o'clock.

Dr. R. F. Pound Announces—
His return to general dental practice after study east. 408 U. S. Bank Bldg. Phone 2040. Adv.

Will be Probated—
The will of Felix Musy was admitted to probate Thursday by Judge W. M. Bushey. The estate is valued at $4500, with a sister, Marie Coleough, Ferrey Pice Rotte, Canton de Vaud, Switzerland, as sole heir. T. K. Ford, of Salem, was named executor of the will by the deceased.

Returned to Asylum—
Thomas Pfanz, a Bohemian of Gervais, was returned to the insane hospital yesterday. He is reported to be sane.

Dr. C. L. Marshall—
Osteopathic Physician and Surgeon
222 Oregon Building
Phone 235

For Gifts That Last—
HARTMAN BROS.
Diamonds, Watches, Jewelry and Silverware
Phone 1255, Salem, Oregon

Salem Ambulance Service—
Day and Night
Phone 666
178 S. Liberty St.
Salem, Oregon

Capital Junk Co.
WANTS
All kinds of junk and second-hand goods. We pay full value.
215 Center Street
Phone 398

LADD & BUSH
Bankers
Established 1868
General Banking Business
Office Hours from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m.

Doughton & Marcus
Hardware, Paints, Oils, Glass
We handle nothing but the best lines of garden implements and garden hose and sell at the same price you pay for inferior products.
286 N. Commercial St.

Webb & Clough
Leading Funeral Directors
Expert Embalmers
Rigdon & Son's
MORTUARY
Unequaled Service

SOME FOLKS DON'T KNOW
That We Have Areal
SHEET MUSIC BARGAIN COUNTER
15c
Moore's Music House
415 Court
Representatives of
SHERMAN-CLAY & CO., PIANOS
Phone 983

Insane Man Quiet—
Tom York, who terrorized his wife's family Thursday evening, was quiet, though still highly excitable, according to information furnished by the state hospital officials yesterday. York resided near Kalama, Wash., but had been in the Coos bay section for several weeks. He came to this vicinity a short time ago.

Pay Your Irrigation Bill—
Flat rate irrigation bills due and discounted 10 per cent if paid on or before June 10th. Adv.

Licenses Are Issued—
Two more marriage licenses were issued by the county clerk's office Thursday to George L. Mansom, 432 Marion street and Belle Viola Blackburn, 700 North High street and to Roy W. Drury, of Marshfield, and Geneva Laura Skells, Silverton. The total number of licenses issued to date is twenty.

Women Wanted—
To work in strawberries at Starr Fruit Products Co. Cor. Church & Mill Sts. Report 7 A. M. Adv.

Referee Makes Report—
The report of O. D. Bower, referee for Peter Casey, vs. Owen Casey, William Casey, Mary Doolley, George Casey, Maria Bradley, Rose Beldshaw and Anna Nolan was filed yesterday. A lot in Woodburn, valued at $250, was sold to Roy Shields, according to the statement.

Legal Blanks—
Get them at The Statesman office. Catalog on application. Adv.

Kirk's Estate Appraised—
Inventory and appraisement of the estate of John Kirk, filed by B. B. Herrick, S. G. Robinson and J. D. Dunlap, appraisers, places a valuation of $23,234.89, including real estate, cash and promissory notes due the estate.

Women Wanted—
To work in strawberries at Starr Fruit Products Co. Cor. Church & Mill Sts. Report 7 A. M. Adv.

Drunk Man in Jail—
J. J. Kelly, arrested Wednesday evening for being drunk and disorderly, was fined $50 yesterday by Judge Paulsen. He is expected to serve out his sentence.

Accident Reported—
Coleman Rogers, route 5, reported to the police that while his car was in an alley back of the Stiff furniture store it was struck by another machine, the number of which he obtained. Some damage was done to his car, he declared.

Willamette Valley Transfer Co.
Fast Through Freight to All Valley Points Daily.
Speed-Efficiency-Service
Salem, Portland, Woodburn, Corvallis, Eugene, Jefferson, Dallas, Albany, Monmouth, Independence, Monroe, Springfield.
SHIP BY TRUCK

FIVE BUTTERNUT BREAD
wrappers, if one loaf is bought from us, entitles any child to a "Bang Gun" absolutely FREE.
LITTLE LADY STORE
Center at Twelfth. Phone 1352

Dr. B. H. White
Osteopathic Physician and Surgeon
Electronic Diagnosis and Treatment
(Dr. Abrams' Method.)
SALEM, OREGON

DR. C. H. SCHENK
Has Moved to His New Location
249 So. Cottage Street
Phone 1158

Funerals
Funeral services for Charles F. Hagemann will be held in the chapel of the Webb funeral parlors June 8, at 2 p. m. Rev. Mr. Acheson will conduct the services.

Willamette Valley Transfer Co.
Fast Through Freight to All Valley Points Daily.
Speed-Efficiency-Service
Salem, Portland, Woodburn, Corvallis, Eugene, Jefferson, Dallas, Albany, Monmouth, Independence, Monroe, Springfield.
SHIP BY TRUCK

Will Attend Reunion—
For several years Officer Troy Branson, of the city police force, has been unable to attend the family reunion at McMinnville. As there are nine brothers and their families who gather for the occasion, he is planning to take his family over for the event Sunday. Branson boasts that his is truly a Roosevelt family.

Pay Your Irrigation Bill—
Flat rate irrigation bills due and discounted 10 per cent if paid on or before June 10th. Adv.

Administrator Appointed—
Frank A. Taylor, a son, has been appointed administrator of the estate of Andrew J. Taylor by Judge W. M. Bushey. Petitions for his appointment were signed by Sarah J. Taylor, widow, and Irvin E. Taylor, a brother.

Wanted, Experienced Waitress—
At the Electric cafe. Adv.

Guardianship Dated—
Time for hearing a petition for the guardianship of Sherman W. Thompson has been set for 10 o'clock June 20. The petition is made by Ana B. Thompson, wife, who asks she be the one named. Personal property is valued at $10,000.

Attention WOW—
Meeting of importance tonight. Come, see and hear? Adv.

Sale Is Confirmed—
Sale of property of J. H. Albert, deceased, was confirmed by Judge W. M. Bushey yesterday, the city of Salem being the highest bidder for the property with an offer of $3048.13.

Women Wanted—
To work in strawberries at Starr Fruit Products Co. Cor. Church & Mill Sts. Report 7 A. M. Adv.

Final Account Filed—
Final account in the matter of the estate of W. R. Jones was filed yesterday. After debts had been paid the sum of $941.41 will be divided between a wife and two sons. Hearing of objections to the final account was ordered at 10 o'clock, July 9.

Women Wanted—
To work in strawberries at Starr Fruit Products Co. Cor. Church & Mill Sts. Report 7 A. M. Adv.

Raspberries on Market—
Local red raspberries are now in the market selling at retail for 15 cents a box. They look well developed and wonderfully attractive.

Stationery, Tablets, Ink, Etc.—
At The Song Shop. Adv.

Exams Near End—
A good share of the Willamette university examinations will be finished today, though there are a few that will hold over until Saturday or even into the first of next week. Some of the students who are of the lower classes, and so not deeply interested in the commencement exercises, will be leaving for their homes and their summer jobs by Saturday.

Attention Elks—
The regular Thursday lodge meeting has been postponed to Saturday evening, at which time the Portland lodge will put on the initiatory work.

Gahlsdorf Endorsed—
At a meeting of the Highland Parent-Teacher association Friday the body gave its endorsement to William Gahlsdorf as a candidate for one of the vacant places on the Salem school board. He was one of the local committee to help in getting the Grant junior high school patrons' wishes in regard to the new building before the school board for action, and they liked his work.

Pay Your Irrigation Bill—
Flat rate irrigation bills due and discounted 10 per cent if paid on or before June 10th. Adv.

Perry Wins Honor—
Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Perry received word yesterday that their son Kenneth, a graduate of the Salem high school, was awarded the freshman honor cup in his fraternity, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, at OAC. The cup is given each year to the freshman in the organization making the best record within the fraternity and in campus activities. Kenneth Perry was editor of the Clarion Annual last year and was a member of the Salem high school debate squad each of the three years, and won other honors. He is taking pharmacy at the college and was a member of the freshman debate team there this year.

Church Property for Sale—
located on Cottage St. near Center. Sealed bids will be received, not later than June 19th, and opened the 20th. For information apply to C. C. Poling, 435 Center Street. Reserve the right to reject any or all bids.
By order of the Board of Trustees.

Motorcyclist Arrested—
For cutting corners on his motorcycle, Clarence Stephens of Falls City yesterday afternoon gave $5 bail to insure his appearance in police court at 2:30 o'clock Saturday.

Will Bring you a buyer—Adv.
A Classified Ad—
Will bring you a buyer—Adv.

Plea Is Withdrawn—
Paul Melton, 170 Court street, arrested Wednesday evening and lodged in the city jail on a charge of molesting young girls on the street, appeared in court yesterday and decided to take 24 hours in which to enter his plea.

Well Furnished Flat—
Modern; large five rooms. For rent. Immediate possession. $40 a month. At 664 1-2 Ferry street. Call at Statesman business office, or phone 23.

Several Pay Fines—
Speeders who appeared before City Judge Paulsen yesterday and paid fines were F. H. Ayer, $5; Ward Southworth, $5, and Royal Christoffersen $10.

Grand Jury Finishing Work—
With an inspection of the state prison Thursday afternoon it is believed the grand jury is nearing the completion of the session. A report on the charges against Dr. Steiner is expected to be made some time during the day. The grand jury began its work a week ago yesterday, which is said to be an exceptionally long session.

Returns to Salem—
Rev. W. T. Milliken, formerly pastor of the First Baptist church in Salem and who is now located in Portland, was in Salem yesterday arranging for the moving of his household goods to Portland.

Twelve Thousand Agents—
Twelve thousand persons in Oregon hold licenses as local insurance agents, according to Will H. Moore, state insurance commissioner. C. V. Johnson, superintendent of the real estate division of the state insurance department, reports that 1991 realtors have registered with the department this year, about 80 less than last year at this time.

Attention WOW—
Meeting of importance tonight. Come, see and hear? Adv.

Fire Loss Light—
Fire losses in Oregon for the month of May, according to the monthly report of Will H. Moore, state fire marshal, aggregated, outside of Portland, $67,055. Bend had a laundry fire in which the loss was $10,000, and dwellings and business houses at Sisters aggregated a loss of $25,000. Other losses were small.

T. J. Gibbons—
Until recently with the Bligh Barber shop is now with the O. K. Barber shop and will be glad to see all of his friends at this new location.

Chester Pugh Appointed—
Chester J. Pugh of Shreveport, La., formerly of Salem, has been appointed assistant there to M. J. Cousins, division chief field deputy of the department of internal revenue, according to announcement received by The Statesman. He is a cousin of Senator McNary, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Pugh of Clear Lake, and a member of Salem lodge No. 336, BPO Elks. Mr. Pugh was formerly with the United States government as chief clerk of the power clock station at Jacksonville, Tenn., in the Du Pont powder plant during the war.

Automobile Is Recovered—
Floyd Wilson, 1825 North Commercial street, reported to the police yesterday that he had recovered his "bug," stolen a day or so before. It was located on the Independence road.

Funerals
Funeral services for Charles F. Hagemann will be held in the chapel of the Webb funeral parlors June 8, at 2 p. m. Rev. Mr. Acheson will conduct the services.

Webb & Clough
Leading Funeral Directors
Expert Embalmers
Rigdon & Son's
MORTUARY
Unequaled Service

Employers Meet—
The H. L. Stiff Furniture company's employees from Silverton and Salem met last night for dinner at The Spa. The meeting is a monthly affair. It is sometimes held in Silverton. Forty-one attended the dinner last night.

Speeder Is Arrested—
Sherman M. Miles, St. Helena, was picked up yesterday by Officer Edwards while making 30 miles an hour on South Commercial between Miller and Lincoln streets. He was cited to appear June 9, at 2 o'clock.

A Classified Ad—
Will bring you a buyer—Adv.

Plea Is Withdrawn—
Paul Melton, 170 Court street, arrested Wednesday evening and lodged in the city jail on a charge of molesting young girls on the street, appeared in court yesterday and decided to take 24 hours in which to enter his plea.

Well Furnished Flat—
Modern; large five rooms. For rent. Immediate possession. $40 a month. At 664 1-2 Ferry street. Call at Statesman business office, or phone 23.

Several Pay Fines—
Speeders who appeared before City Judge Paulsen yesterday and paid fines were F. H. Ayer, $5; Ward Southworth, $5, and Royal Christoffersen $10.

Grand Jury Finishing Work—
With an inspection of the state prison Thursday afternoon it is believed the grand jury is nearing the completion of the session. A report on the charges against Dr. Steiner is expected to be made some time during the day. The grand jury began its work a week ago yesterday, which is said to be an exceptionally long session.

Returns to Salem—
Rev. W. T. Milliken, formerly pastor of the First Baptist church in Salem and who is now located in Portland, was in Salem yesterday arranging for the moving of his household goods to Portland.

Twelve Thousand Agents—
Twelve thousand persons in Oregon hold licenses as local insurance agents, according to Will H. Moore, state insurance commissioner. C. V. Johnson, superintendent of the real estate division of the state insurance department, reports that 1991 realtors have registered with the department this year, about 80 less than last year at this time.

Attention WOW—
Meeting of importance tonight. Come, see and hear? Adv.

Fire Loss Light—
Fire losses in Oregon for the month of May, according to the monthly report of Will H. Moore, state fire marshal, aggregated, outside of Portland, $67,055. Bend had a laundry fire in which the loss was $10,000, and dwellings and business houses at Sisters aggregated a loss of $25,000. Other losses were small.

T. J. Gibbons—
Until recently with the Bligh Barber shop is now with the O. K. Barber shop and will be glad to see all of his friends at this new location.

Chester Pugh Appointed—
Chester J. Pugh of Shreveport, La., formerly of Salem, has been appointed assistant there to M. J. Cousins, division chief field deputy of the department of internal revenue, according to announcement received by The Statesman. He is a cousin of Senator McNary, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Pugh of Clear Lake, and a member of Salem lodge No. 336, BPO Elks. Mr. Pugh was formerly with the United States government as chief clerk of the power clock station at Jacksonville, Tenn., in the Du Pont powder plant during the war.

Automobile Is Recovered—
Floyd Wilson, 1825 North Commercial street, reported to the police yesterday that he had recovered his "bug," stolen a day or so before. It was located on the Independence road.

Funerals
Funeral services for Charles F. Hagemann will be held in the chapel of the Webb funeral parlors June 8, at 2 p. m. Rev. Mr. Acheson will conduct the services.

Webb & Clough
Leading Funeral Directors
Expert Embalmers
Rigdon & Son's
MORTUARY
Unequaled Service

He accepted a position as director of education for the Baptist church in Oregon, and is located in the Tilford building in Portland.

Social Tonight—
The missionary department of the First Congregational church will meet tonight with Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Staley, 271 North Summer street. A short program will be followed by a social hour. All members of the church and their friends are invited to attend.

Program Tonight—
The high school chorus will present a complimentary concert tonight at the high school auditorium. The public is invited to attend.

Prisoner Taken to Portland—
In company with federal officers, Roy Nelson, arrested by the sheriff's office Wednesday evening, was taken to Portland early yesterday morning. He is charged with pending a loaded revolver through the mails.

Woodburn-Mt. Angel Road Now Under Construction
Work of laying headers for the Woodburn-Mt. Angel road was begun yesterday, according to F. O. Johnson, deputy road master. Johnson also announced that the macadam between Pine Tree, Four Corners and Scotts Mill had been completed.

Beginning next Monday, the paving plant at Mt. Angel will start operation, there remaining about one-half mile to connect up. Delegations, both advocates and protestants, concerning the question of a new road to intersect

Grand Jury Finishing Work—
With an inspection of the state prison Thursday afternoon it is believed the grand jury is nearing the completion of the session. A report on the charges against Dr. Steiner is expected to be made some time during the day. The grand jury began its work a week ago yesterday, which is said to be an exceptionally long session.

Returns to Salem—
Rev. W. T. Milliken, formerly pastor of the First Baptist church in Salem and who is now located in Portland, was in Salem yesterday arranging for the moving of his household goods to Portland.

Twelve Thousand Agents—
Twelve thousand persons in Oregon hold licenses as local insurance agents, according to Will H. Moore, state insurance commissioner. C. V. Johnson, superintendent of the real estate division of the state insurance department, reports that 1991 realtors have registered with the department this year, about 80 less than last year at this time.

Attention WOW—
Meeting of importance tonight. Come, see and hear? Adv.

Fire Loss Light—
Fire losses in Oregon for the month of May, according to the monthly report of Will H. Moore, state fire marshal, aggregated, outside of Portland, $67,055. Bend had a laundry fire in which the loss was $10,000, and dwellings and business houses at Sisters aggregated a loss of $25,000. Other losses were small.

T. J. Gibbons—
Until recently with the Bligh Barber shop is now with the O. K. Barber shop and will be glad to see all of his friends at this new location.

Chester Pugh Appointed—
Chester J. Pugh of Shreveport, La., formerly of Salem, has been appointed assistant there to M. J. Cousins, division chief field deputy of the department of internal revenue, according to announcement received by The Statesman. He is a cousin of Senator McNary, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Pugh of Clear Lake, and a member of Salem lodge No. 336, BPO Elks. Mr. Pugh was formerly with the United States government as chief clerk of the power clock station at Jacksonville, Tenn., in the Du Pont powder plant during the war.

Automobile Is Recovered—
Floyd Wilson, 1825 North Commercial street, reported to the police yesterday that he had recovered his "bug," stolen a day or so before. It was located on the Independence road.

Funerals
Funeral services for Charles F. Hagemann will be held in the chapel of the Webb funeral parlors June 8, at 2 p. m. Rev. Mr. Acheson will conduct the services.

Webb & Clough
Leading Funeral Directors
Expert Embalmers
Rigdon & Son's
MORTUARY
Unequaled Service

He accepted a position as director of education for the Baptist church in Oregon, and is located in the Tilford building in Portland.

Social Tonight—
The missionary department of the First Congregational church will meet tonight with Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Staley, 271 North Summer street. A short program will be followed by a social hour. All members of the church and their friends are invited to attend.

Program Tonight—
The high school chorus will present a complimentary concert tonight at the high school auditorium. The public is invited to attend.

Prisoner Taken to Portland—
In company with federal officers, Roy Nelson, arrested by the sheriff's office Wednesday evening, was taken to Portland early yesterday morning. He is charged with pending a loaded revolver through the mails.

Woodburn-Mt. Angel Road Now Under Construction
Work of laying headers for the Woodburn-Mt. Angel road was begun yesterday, according to F. O. Johnson, deputy road master. Johnson also announced that the macadam between Pine Tree, Four Corners and Scotts Mill had been completed.

Beginning next Monday, the paving plant at Mt. Angel will start operation, there remaining about one-half mile to connect up. Delegations, both advocates and protestants, concerning the question of a new road to intersect

Grand Jury Finishing Work—
With an inspection of the state prison Thursday afternoon it is believed the grand jury is nearing the completion of the session. A report on the charges against Dr. Steiner is expected to be made some time during the day. The grand jury began its work a week ago yesterday, which is said to be an exceptionally long session.

Returns to Salem—
Rev. W. T. Milliken, formerly pastor of the First Baptist church in Salem and who is now located in Portland, was in Salem yesterday arranging for the moving of his household goods to Portland.

Twelve Thousand Agents—
Twelve thousand persons in Oregon hold licenses as local insurance agents, according to Will H. Moore, state insurance commissioner. C. V. Johnson, superintendent of the real estate division of the state insurance department, reports that 1991 realtors have registered with the department this year, about 80 less than last year at this time.

Attention WOW—
Meeting of importance tonight. Come, see and hear? Adv.

Fire Loss Light—
Fire losses in Oregon for the month of May, according to the monthly report of Will H. Moore, state fire marshal, aggregated, outside of Portland, $67,055. Bend had a laundry fire in which the loss was $10,000, and dwellings and business houses at Sisters aggregated a loss of $25,000. Other losses were small.

T. J. Gibbons—
Until recently with the Bligh Barber shop is now with the O. K. Barber shop and will be glad to see all of his friends at this new location.

Chester Pugh Appointed—
Chester J. Pugh of Shreveport, La., formerly of Salem, has been appointed assistant there to M. J. Cousins, division chief field deputy of the department of internal revenue, according to announcement received by The Statesman. He is a cousin of Senator McNary, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Pugh of Clear Lake, and a member of Salem lodge No. 336, BPO Elks. Mr. Pugh was formerly with the United States government as chief clerk of the power clock station at Jacksonville, Tenn., in the Du Pont powder plant during the war.

Automobile Is Recovered—
Floyd Wilson, 1825 North Commercial street, reported to the police yesterday that he had recovered his "bug," stolen a day or so before. It was located on the Independence road.

Funerals
Funeral services for Charles F. Hagemann will be held in the chapel of the Webb funeral parlors June 8, at 2 p. m. Rev. Mr. Acheson will conduct the services.

Webb & Clough
Leading Funeral Directors
Expert Embalmers
Rigdon & Son's
MORTUARY
Unequaled Service

He accepted a position as director of education for the Baptist church in Oregon, and is located in the Tilford building in Portland.

Social Tonight—
The missionary department of the First Congregational church will meet tonight with Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Staley, 271 North Summer street. A short program will be followed by a social hour. All members of the church and their friends are invited to attend.

Program Tonight—
The high school chorus will present a complimentary concert tonight at the high school auditorium. The public is invited to attend.

Prisoner Taken to Portland—
In company with federal officers, Roy Nelson, arrested by the sheriff's office Wednesday evening, was taken to Portland early yesterday morning. He is charged with pending a loaded revolver through the mails.

Woodburn-Mt. Angel Road Now Under Construction
Work of laying headers for the Woodburn-Mt. Angel road was begun yesterday, according to F. O. Johnson, deputy road master. Johnson also announced that the macadam between Pine Tree, Four Corners and Scotts Mill had been completed.

Beginning next Monday, the paving plant at Mt. Angel will start operation, there remaining about one-half mile to connect up. Delegations, both advocates and protestants, concerning the question of a new road to intersect

Grand Jury Finishing Work—
With an inspection of the state prison Thursday afternoon it is believed the grand jury is nearing the completion of the session. A report on the charges against Dr. Steiner is expected to be made some time during the day. The grand jury began its work a week ago yesterday, which is said to be an exceptionally long session.

Returns to Salem—
Rev. W. T. Milliken, formerly pastor of the First Baptist church in Salem and who is now located in Portland, was in Salem yesterday arranging for the moving of his household goods to Portland.

Twelve Thousand Agents—
Twelve thousand persons in Oregon hold licenses as local insurance agents, according to Will H. Moore, state insurance commissioner. C. V. Johnson, superintendent of the real estate division of the state insurance department, reports that 1991 realtors have registered with the department this year, about 80 less than last year at this time.

Attention WOW—
Meeting of importance tonight. Come, see and hear? Adv.

Fire Loss Light—
Fire losses in Oregon for the month of May, according to the monthly report of Will H. Moore, state fire marshal, aggregated, outside of Portland, $67,055. Bend had a laundry fire in which the loss was $10,000, and dwellings and business houses at Sisters aggregated a loss of $25,000. Other losses were small.

T. J. Gibbons—
Until recently with the Bligh Barber shop is now with the O. K. Barber shop and will be glad to see all of his friends at this new location.

Chester Pugh Appointed—
Chester J. Pugh of Shreveport, La., formerly of Salem, has been appointed assistant there to M. J. Cousins, division chief field deputy of the department of internal revenue, according to announcement received by The Statesman. He is a cousin of Senator McNary, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Pugh of Clear Lake, and a member of Salem lodge No. 336, BPO Elks. Mr. Pugh was formerly with the United States government as chief clerk of the power clock station at Jacksonville, Tenn., in the Du Pont powder plant during the war.

Automobile Is Recovered—
Floyd Wilson, 1825 North Commercial street, reported to the police yesterday that he had recovered his "bug," stolen a day or so before. It was located on the Independence road.

Funerals
Funeral services for Charles F. Hagemann will be held in the chapel of the Webb funeral parlors June 8, at 2 p. m. Rev. Mr. Acheson will conduct the services.

Webb & Clough
Leading Funeral Directors
Expert Embalmers
Rigdon & Son's
MORTUARY
Unequaled Service

C. & C. STORE

—254 North Commercial—

Offers some extra special Prices for Friday and Saturday Selling

Groceries	Dry Goods
2 15-oz. Sun-Maid Seeded or Seedless Raisins25c	65c Tissue, Gingham, yard40c
1 No. Tall Medium Red Salmon15c	Heavy Quality Jap Crepes, yard25c
Barton Bacon Squares, per pound15c	Ladies' Summer Knee Length Unions40c
Barton Sugar Cured Bacon (heavy) per pound24c	36-inch Standard Percale, yard10c
Barton's Pure Bulk Lard per pound16c	35c Cretonnes, yard20c
Fancy Lima Beans, per lb. 10c	25c Cretonnes, yard10c
Waldo Hill's Flour, per sack$1.45	15c Curtaining, yard12 1/2c
6 White Wonder or Bleaching Soap25c	25c Curtaining, yard10c
4 Fels Naptha Soap25c	Ladies' Silk Hose, white, Brown, Black, pair90c
1 lb. C. & C. Coffee20c	Ladies' Fibre Silk Hose, pair60c
Fancy Dried Peaches, 2 lbs. 35c	50c Child's 1/2 Hose, pair20c

Tobacco

Star, Horseshoe or Climax, plug75c