

IF BACK HURTS BEGIN ON SALTS

Flush Your Kidneys Occasionally By Drinking Quarts of Good Water.

No man or woman can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well known authority. Too much rich food creates acids which clog the kidney pores so that they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood.

This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity; also to help neutralize the acids in the system so they no longer cause irritation, thus often relieving bladder disorders.

$5000 IS GIVEN FOR Y. M. C. A. BUILDING

The Salem Y needs to decide what the new building and association should have to offer the public, and they will tabulate these demands for submission to the international building committee for incorporation into the building plans.

Some money on hand There is a little money already in the building fund; concealed money that ought to produce a bountiful harvest of subscriptions, for it starts from two interesting sources. The very first is the subscription from the Whitney Boys' chorus.

United Army Stores for TENTS

Our tents (all new) are cut on a 29-inch basis (instead of 24 inches). Therefore our 3 and 10 ounce are as heavy as some 10 and 12 ounce tents. They are one-third pitch and have ten reinforcements at corners and gables. The rope gables are a special feature of our tents and prove especially useful in preventing severe winds from tearing the tent.

last nickle to the Y that is to be. And the next subscription was from a Civil War widow, of her pension money that a grateful government gives in token of the men who offered their lives for the nation's preservation in the days of 1861-65.

Start Looks Good The boys and the widows and the hard-headed man of wealth—they all agree that a new Y will be a fine thing for Salem, worth sacrificing for, because it brings priceless returns of better citizenship, better health, better brotherhood of men. It looks like an auspicious opening of the project.

CLASSY AUTO RACES WILL BE HELD SATURDAY

divide 20 per cent of the total race purse, and the two-mile professional and the eight-mile stock car race take 10 per cent of the race money.

A great airplane act is promised, when "Tex" Rankin comes with his plane, on which Danny Greco performs aerial stunts. Greco rides out on the wing beam while the machine is spinning a tail-spin in front of the grandstand, and he does other thrilling things also.

A stock car race for eight miles open to all stock cars in the dealers' hands, is to be held open for Salem entries until noon today. The lack of local advertising and information to the dealers as to the event has led to this extension of entrance time.

Rapid Action Promised The races start at 3 o'clock and it is announced by the management that they will be pushed along so rapidly through prompt official management, that they can't drag into the night. The airplane stunt will be the only thing allowed to delay the actual race program. There is a total of 52 miles of racing, 52 minutes at a mile-a-minute. It makes a well diversified program, and the high class of the entries and the official guarantee of the high standing of the management make it look like a real race meet.

Another and even bigger meet July 4 is to be held if this one goes over big. A dinner is promised the officials and press representatives and competent critics are to pass judgment on the quality of the offerings, and say "thumbs down" if it isn't right. Track Manager Lott, in charge, is staking his three expensive racing cars on a verdict of thanks and an invitation to come again.

NOTABLE WOMEN TO BE SPEAKERS

Judge Florence Allen and Carrie Jacobs-Bond to Be Heard in Portland

Among the speakers at the Business and Professional Women's national convention to be held in Portland July 9 to 14, will be Senator William E. Borah of Idaho, Judge Florence Allen of Cleveland, Ohio; Carrie Jacobs-Bond and Cornelia Marvin of Salem.

More than 300 reservations have been received to date, according to Miss Adella Frichard, president of the Oregon State Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs, who is in charge of the convention and who addressed the Salem club Wednesday. Since the convention will not be held until the middle of July it is considered that at least 1500 women will be in attendance.

The Portland convention is being financed by the women of Oregon with the cooperation of the Idaho and Washington women and no requests for aid have been made on Portland business men. Miss Frichard says. She told, however, of the spirit of cooperation which the business men have shown.

Real, long stemmed Oregon roses will be presented to all of the delegates and guests partly through the generosity of a Portland grower who has acres of roses and has promised the business women all of the roses which are ready to pick at the time of the convention. Myrtlewood candle sticks will be given as souvenirs of the convention and these come from the Marshfield club. A gift from the Marshfield club will be in the form of a myrtlewood gavel and base, to be presented to the national president on Oregon day, Friday.

Ben W. Olcott to Attend Oregon Bankers' Session

Former Governor Ben W. Olcott, who has accepted a position in the Bank of Italy in San Francisco, the largest banking institution west of Chicago, is home for a few days, coming to represent the bank at the Oregon State Bankers' convention at Albany June 8 and 9 and also to transact business for the bank in the state of Washington.

Mr. Olcott is connected with the bank's extension work, in the department of banks and bankers. The Bank of Italy has over 400,000 depositors and its deposits aggregate $230,000,000, and its resources are over $250,000,000. It owns and operates 71 branch banks in California in 49 cities of the state. Its stockholders number 16,000. Not only is the bank the largest west of Chicago, but it is 14th in the list in regard to size in the United States, and the building it occupies, at Market, Powell and Eddy streets, is the largest bank building in the United States. This is a seven-story building, of which six floors are devoted to the bank's business. Mr. Olcott's headquarters are in this building. The bank was organized 20 years ago by an Italian capitalist, hence the name. Its resources at the time of organization were $250,000.

One of the vice presidents of the bank is Lloyd Mullt, formerly of Salem, having attended school here. He also was formerly located at Ashland and at one time was bank examiner and later vice president of the Northwestern National bank of Portland.

Vegetable Freight Rates Hearing Date Now Un-Set

PORTLAND, Ore., June 7.—A hearing set for June 14 at Portland by the state public service commission on freight rates on fresh and dried fruits and vegetables has been postponed, according to announcement today at the commission's office here.

A California packing corporation of San Francisco applied for postponement, saying its interests in Oregon are extensive and that it would not have time to assemble the necessary exhibits by June 14. The commission has not yet decided on a new date.

Religious Education Program Will Be Tonight

What promises to be a very interesting program is to be given tonight at 7:30 at the First Methodist church. It is the first showing put on by the week-day religious education school from the Garfield school in Salem that was authorized by the school board to start May 1. The attendance has been voluntary, and no sectarian or objectionable partisan material has been put into the course, which deals only with fundamental Christian doctrines as they affect human social life.

The program tonight is put on entirely by the children, 130 taking part, and they will demonstrate just what their class works has been for the past six weeks. Prof. T. S. Roberts will preside at the pipe organ. He will be about the only adult to appear. Publicity notices have been sent to all the city schools and churches, and it is expected that the church will be crowded. An interested party or critics will be from the Eugene schools. They have been so deeply impressed that they are expecting to inaugurate a like department in the Eugene schools next year. The invitation is extended to all who will do so to attend and get a fair idea of the work done by the children in this voluntary school department.

League Baseball War Shifts to Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES, June 7.—Hostilities in the Pacific league baseball war, which grew out of the recent sale of the Seattle club of the league, shifted to the Los Angeles sector today when Judge William P. James of the United States district court issued an order directing persons said to be interested in the deal to appear before a court reporter at 10 a. m., on June 14 to have dispositions taken.

At six o'clock tonight summons had been served on Charles Lockard, one of the new owners of the Seattle club who recently brought a suit against William H. McCarthy, league president when the latter refused to recognize him as a director; and on the Western Union and Postal Telegraph companies, which are said to have on file, telegrams bearing on the alleged "syndicate sale" of the northern club.

This information was received here today from K. M. Landis, baseball commissioner by John W. Norton, president of the Saints.

Senior Class Play at Silverton Is Success

SILVERTON, Or., June 7.—(Special to The Statesman)—The senior class play, "A Full House," given at the Eugene Field auditorium Tuesday night, drew a large crowd. All members of the cast did remarkably well. A great deal of the amusement centered around "Susie," a maid, played by Miss Olive Morley. Miss Morley did some exceptionally clever acting. Other seniors taking part in the play were Edgar Wrightman, Bernice Strand, Ethel Ives, Marjorie Miller, Edwin Taylor, Max Hubbs, Donald Hutton, Ray McKee, John Fronk, Lowell Hoblitt, Hazel Hartman, Ruth Fluhrer and Grace Linn.

Pomeroy and Slusher Probing Astoria Fire

SEATTLE, Wash., June 7.—Sheriff Harley J. Slusher of Astoria and Deputy Fire Marshal Pomeroy of Salem, Ore., who hurried to Seattle today to arrest a man suspected of connection with the fire which partially destroyed that city last year, left for Astoria this afternoon empty handed. The Oregon officials and local authorities declined to comment on the matter except to say that they had interviewed a prisoner held at the King county stockade, whose name was not given.

Cummins Creek-Coles Bridge Contract Let

The highway commission announces the award of a contract to Bauers & Bauers for the grading and surfacing of the Cummins Creek-Coles bridge section of the John Day highway in Grant county. The bid price is $157,000, and the length 14 miles.

Grant county is cooperating to the extent of $40,000 from county bond funds. This is the last gap in the John Day highway to be placed under contract between Condon and Prairie City, a distance of 14 miles, Condon being at the south end of the Condon branch railroad and Prairie City being the west end of the Sumpster Valley railroad. The completion of this highway will effect a material saving in the cost of transporting farm products to the railroads and returning supplies.

Bids on this project were received March 1, but the award of the contract has been held pending the outcome of litigation instituted by certain citizens of Grant county seeking to require the commission to construct the highway on the north side of the John Day river instead of the south side, which was the location chosen by the highway commission.

The case was heard before Judge Biggs at Canyon City recently and decided in favor of the highway commission.

Return Freight Cars West, Is Teal's Plea

A return to the west of freight cars that have been delivered to the eastern lines from this part of the nation is the first step urged by J. N. Teal of Portland, prevent what he declares will be a serious car shortage in Oregon this year. Mr. Teal has written a letter to the public service commission declaring that he looks for a serious situation. He has written to Clyde B. Aitchison of the interstate commerce commission, urging a return of the cars from the east, and urges the service commission to send a similar commission to Mr. Aitchison.

Mr. Teal says he thinks the American Railway association is doing all it can to relieve the situation, but that he hasn't much faith in its ability since such eastern roads as the Pennsylvania are not inclined to comply with the rules of the association.

Peoples Cash Store Assets About $65,000

William MacBeth, who has been detailed to make an inventory of the stock of the Peoples' Cash store that was closed Wednesday, estimates visible assets at $65,000. An estimate of the liabilities has not yet been made. Employees of the store met yesterday to prepare their claims for presentation, each claiming 10 days' pay. These will be preferred claims when settlement is made. About two weeks will be required to make the inventory.

BITS FOR BREAKFAST

The Salem Y. M. C. A.—What about it? Why, the Y is to have a new home.

It is to front on the civic center, next to the Court apartments. Tom Livesley puts up $5000 for the binding payment on the site, and the biggest and best men in Salem are behind a project for a $200,000 Y. M. C. A. home.

That is quite a sum of money, and it will have to be widely gathered, and some of it will come in driplets and widows' mites. But it will all finally be forth coming, and the splendid new home rightfully earned by the Y will be a thing of reality and of pride to all this part of Oregon. Hurrah!

The Salem Y is to have a boys' camp of cherry pickers. They will get the training camp at the same time will earn their way and have something besides. Some style about that kind of a boys' camp. Following out the idea of self support that is taking root in Oregon, and all over the country.

In about a week the cherries will begin to come in; right on the heels of the gooseberries, and overlapping the strawberries—and lasting into loganberry harvest. This pick of the world is full and growing fuller of pickers.

She was paying in to a Salem bank the first installment of her salary earned at the state house. On the deposit slip were the words "check," "currency" and "specie." Opposite the first and second which presented no difficulty, she wrote in the amount. And opposite the third, after a little hesitancy, she wrote the word "female."
