The Oregon Statesman

Issued Daily Except Monday by THE STATESMAN PUBLISHING COMPANY 215 S. Commercial St., Salem, Oregon (Portland Office, 723 Board of Trade Building, Phone Beacon 1193

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for publication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein.

R. J.	Hendricks	 		 		. Manager
	en A. Ston
Frank	z Jaskoski	 		 	Manager	Jeb Dept
1			EPHON	 27.6		3

Business Office ...... 23 Circulation Department ...... 583 Job Department ..... 583

Entered at the Postoffice in Salem, Oregon, as second class matter.

LOGANBERRY GROWERS SIGNING

The loganberry growers are signing up the agreement for the organization of the Loganberry Growers' Exchange-And the prospect looks much brighter.

It is certain now that the organization will go over with sufficient acreage to make the association effective and a of the soil, and improving it. The going concern-

And it is morally certain that it will go over big.

That will mean the stabilizing of the loganbeary industry would be impossible to give too here in its birthplace; here where it is the greatest; here at the loganberry center-

That it will be kept going and growing.

Copyright, 1928, Associated Editors

It is a great thing to be able to write these words—and it will be a greater thing if every unorganized grower will sign up in this mutual association or some other.

The writer does not wish to violate any confidence; but he is sure that the best and wisest leaders in the cannery and packing concerns will be glad to see this thing happen. It will help them.

It will wipe out the cutthroat methods that have made ing great good in placing Italy pared to defend any elected offi- it back into the trough. Pursuing terror that the first impulse of the marketing of canned and dried and barrelled loganberries among the progressive nationsa spotted and unsafe and unsatisfactory undertaking.

It will be best for all to demand a living price, all down the line-

And for all hands to join in advertising for a consumer demand; and to keep it up till there is no question concerning though employing varying meththe selling of the canned and otherwise manufactured logan- ods. berries at such prices as will allow every one concerned to Enter the Cotusa, of the Unitlive and prosper.

Star Gazing-A New Party

o'clock.

For refreshments serve with the ice cream cookies cut with a and silver. Stars cut from card- star-shaped cutter.

board and covered with silver

aung about the room.

starboard.

dry, starch.

other, startle.

dog, starvation.

per or paint are effective when

For the guessing game give lips of paper with the following list of words to find. Each an-

The right hand side of a ship,

mething found in the laun-

In a stiff rigid manner, starkly.

That without which nothing

To cause sudden alarm to an-

The fate of Mother Hubbard's

Cut out about 20 pictures of movie stars and pin them to a sheet and hang over a window

like a curtain, pulling the shade over it to conceal until ready. Announce that Professor Gazen

Squint will not take the guests star-gazing. Lead them into the Danny was proud as could be nough only a pup, e boldly walked up,

For a regular "student" was he.

rules than all the other students

Danny had gone to every dance.

reception, and picnic held by the students for years. " He went to classes. He found so many other

Danny didn't care for put together.

A theatrical celebrity, star.

A marine animal, starfish.

swer must contain the word

To gaze fixedly, stare.

A smail bud, starling.

A small bird, starling.

can be accomplished, start.

promises his best brand of weath- be allowed to gaze through the of that disc?

a "star" party.

gas is leaking."

sidewalk."

and come to bed."

THE BOYS AND GIRLS NEWSPAPER

The Biggest Little Paper in the World

The next tie the weather man room and explain that they will wonder how the music comes out er, plan to invite your friends to window at the stars for three It's waves that do it. Sounds a Star-Gazing party. The invita- minutes and then they will be are nothing more than waves in tions can be written on star- given paper and pencil to write the air caused by vibrations.

shaped cards in this manner: down the names of all the stars When you hit a tin pan it vi-

"Professor Gazen Squine, the not- they were able to see. Pull the brates and sends out waves in the ed astronomer, invites you to at- shade up and lower it in exactly air like the waves in a pond caustend a special performance which three minutes. A prize is given ed by a pebble. We have differhe has arranged with the stars to the one who can remember the ent tones because the waves are at the home of ..... at eight pictures appeared on the curtain. are more or less waves per sec-

Everybody's sure to vote this

Good Night, Sweet Dreams

Mary: "John, John, get up; the John: "Ah, put a pan under it

Knew How it Felt

that the world was against you?"

morning, when I slipped on Pessimist: "Did you ever feel Senior: "Sure! I felt it this

For refreshments serve with ond.

Looks like Germany France are edging closer to an public conscience to the fact that Then the war would be over.

not adequately defended. The Oregon Shrine delegates Washington will be glad to get quarter of a century for back home, where they have a chance to cool off. has been found that the freedom

There is a lot building in Sa- they sought was only another lem. But there will be a lot name for license. They seek not more, in case prices get down a to improve the government, but to destroy it. At the end of that bit. Likely they will. trail lie Communism and anar-

There is no doubt concerning the preeminence of western Oregon as a dairying section, where the highest record cows in the in the preeminence of this section as a poultry breeding district. We have many strings to ducting in the open a campaign graveyard of the world. our bow here. This is a land of diversity, a country of opportunity. But dairying and poultry breeding are foundation industries; they are more; they are sub-basement industries, necessary for keeping up the fertility fruit industries depend upon this. So do all the other agricultural and horticultural lines. much emphasis to the importance of dairying and, poultry breeding to the Salem district. They will

AN AMERICAN FASCISTI

justify more than can possibly be given them.

The Fascisti movement, orignating in Italy, and successful ment-and apparently performis spreading in some form to all the countries of the world, under different names and with different programs, but in some respects along the same lines,

Violent attacks upon constitu-

Edited by John M. Miller.

How Phonographs Talk

When you try the new re

Produce Waves

produce certain waves- and,

the vibrators. All sounds are the result of something that vibrates.

We hear them because they cause it to vibrate with them.

Use Steel Needle

the drum to which it is attached,

dents.

attached.

Musical instruments are simp-

on the phonograph, do you ever

LOADS

These radicals are to be fuond back of every recall movement. As soon as an official has been elected who will not join in their radical propaganda they set to work maliciously and methodically to discredit him in the eyes spread the report that all public officials are dishonest, that they are concerned only in their pri-tice of duping and robbing the

of education, to encouraging the

One of the latest of these is the word "Cotusa."

unjustly assailed.

thus render the government un- the bank. worthy the public confidence.

the night of ..... to take place greatest number of stars whose of different length-becase there y devices that can be made to vi- whenever they are assailed. The for the balance, $537.51, was obbrate at certain speeds, so as to official who is doing his duty will tained in a suit brought by the plano and violin the strings are ing begins he will not be left to is said. defend himself alone.

strike a tiny drum in the ear and unverified charges or scandalons it knowing it was an effort to derumors and to ask for proof from fraud the plaintiff. No other anyone making charges, in my property against which a levy can To make a record some one this organization." Each mem-complaint states. sings or plays into the horn of a ber pledges himself further to phonograph whose steel needle "help materially to justify and is running on a soft wax record. preserve this form of government The sound waves, beating upon by vigorously condemning all un-the drum to which it is attached. just criticism designed to undercause the needle to vibrate in mine confidence in honorable men taxi one rainy day at the capital unison. It, in turn, makes little and women engaged in public to proceed to his home in the subdents and nicks in the wax. Then work." the wax is hardened to keep the In the first unit on this coast than men. It is a legitimate en- plied that it was $4. Now, you see, when you play the record you run a needle over deavor on the part of high-mindit, and the hardened dents and ed men and women to purify Ambumps set the needle to vibrat, erican politics by condemning and four miles." penalizing the mudslinging.

ing and producing the original sounds. The vibrations are in-All such movements are in the creased by the drum of the sound quicken the public confidence and miles.' ing box to which the needle is bring the people closer to the government. American politics will be purged of corruption just as soon as the electorate becomes After Danny had been going to platform, but he was very serious. ficiently moral to elect only honcided it was high time he gradu- ident kept giving diplomas to the and to defend them against unjust attacks while they are in the public service.

Barcelona Syndicates Show Bitter Animosity

BARCELONA, June 7. - Terrorism has broken out afresh in Barcelona after a period of comparative calm. Both the Unified and Free Syndicates are par ticipating in frequent assassinations, the victims being generally showed the esteem in which he ing societies. Hitherto the assassins have succeeded in escaping for 25 years. The services were free.

difficult situation. For many in a touching and appropriate years the system of suppressing manner. Two beautiful solos the workers' unions was tried, were sung, "Lead Thou Me," and but during all this period the "Nearer My God to Thee." His murderings continued. Then extreme honesty, his steadfast-Premier Sanchez-Guerra announ- ness, his patience through lang ced the restoration of the consti- months of suffering, endeared tutional guarantees, thus giving him to those who knew him best.

The earwig bug may get you, tional government in the United slackening of the flood of crime, If you do not get him, with bran, States have produced a reaction but now it has assumed its old arsenantne of lead and molasses. that the radicals, with their de- volume and nearly every day or fective vision, failed to foresee, night a terrorist outrage, usual-They have served to awaken the ly fatal, is recorded.

The two workers' syndicates, agreement. That would be fine, the most highly cherished ideals since civil law again has been reand traditions of the nation are stored, show just as much hos tility to one another, and the Various organizations have third element—that of the emwho have been sweltering in been formed during the last ployer-which also is accused of using terrorist methods, displays the may avowed purpose of giving to the equally little evidence of coming people greater freedom. But it to terms.

Devoted Guards Keep Channel Lights Burning

Loyal Americans who saw the very foundations of their govern- lands, welcomes eastbound liners Either he had not thought of her cramped position. ment thus attacked began to unite to the English channel, and at the or else he meant to make a test for the purpose of defending same time gives grim warning of world may be produced. There American institutions from the the nearby labyrinth of dangers. the unpleasant incidents which is coming to be no doubt, either, despoilers. There are now a It stands guard over waters where come so frequently to a busy phynumber of such organizations, all rest the skeletons of more ship- sician. devoting their energies to con- wrecks than in any other marine

The light is 160 feet above the people to read the constitution sea level, yet the waves that break and to thus gain a better under- forever at the base of the rock standing of what representative constantly dash over its topmost government is intended to be and masonry. So trying is the service at Bishop's Light that the three tenders are given frequent vaca-The Loyal Legion of Citizens of tions ashore. Two months of duty the United States." The mem- with one month ashore is the rule bers have taken the initials of During a recent spring storm the title and formed with them the beams from Bishop's Rock Its head- came near to failing. The light quarters for this coast are in Los weighs several tons, and revolves Angeles, where the first unit has on supports resting in a circular been formed of an association trough of mercury, balanced so Graham's driving." which the members hope to see delicately a child may turn it by cover this section of the country. a touch of the finger. On this Helping Hands. They are defenders of govern- night the tower was so shaken ment under the constitution and by the heavy seas that much of of the public officials elected to the mercury was spilled out over form that government, so long as the concrete floor of the light ingly at her first appearance. The those officials are not false to chamber. The three guards fell there in taking over the govern- their oath of office. The Cotusa on their knees, scooped up the cial who is maligned or otherwise active puddles of quicksilver around a rough cement floor was not easy nor rapid work, and they One of the most approved forms of attacks of the radicals finished finally with torn and Foster, however, was the only one and constitution wreckers is to bleeding hands.

If the tower of Bishop's Light ever crumbles the keepers there will not have the faintest chance vate interest and make a praction their lives. There is not even putting stockings and shoes on the pital orderly appeared—Dr. Pettit a foothold on the rough, slimy rock below them.

Skiff Made Defendant

Fraud is charged in an action filed by the Willamette Grocery of his constituents. They have company against Mark S. Skiff Ticer, and her sullen husband bidso often succeeded in this form and Ada Skiff, who, the grocery den to take his place beside her, of guerrilla warfare that honest company declares, made a deed the western girl appeared at the close if furitive scrutiny of Miss ings had inured her to decill men and women who value their to property to a son, Mark S. car door with the child transform- Foster. At my first sight of the Skiff, Jr., without consideration ed. Her face, hands and feet bore young and unusually attractive and for the purpose of preventing evidence of a hasty but thorough girl with Dr. Pettit I had guessed And that is just the condition the plaintiff from obtaining judg- application of soap and water, and a budding romance, and the little of affairs that the government ment against the property to sat- a hair ribbon which I recognized tribute he had just given her conwreckers seek to create. They isfy a claim for unpaid groceries. as Marion's was confining the tanrealize that the government will The action also includes the gled tresses. That Lillian's small as the young physician's own feelbe no better than those who en- First State & Savings bank as it daughter had been helping Miss act and administer the laws. If claims title to the property be- Foster I guessed immediately, and they can keep honest men and cause of a previous attachment I knew for a certainty when I A Feeling of Resentment, women out of office they can against such property secured by heard Marion's voice in a low-ton-

The complaint states that be The Cotusa members are pledg- tween July and September, 1921. ed to take an interest in the se- the defendants purchased grocerlection of honest and capable pub- les amounting to $1614.07, to be lic officials and to defend them shipped to Kings Valley, and paid against unjust and vicious attacks $1080.36 on account. Judgment find in them a force to resist rad- grocery company, including costs the best Marion ha dupon the less therefore, certain tones. In the ical attack. When the mudsling- of $77.40. This was not paid, it fortunate child if the exigency of

> The property was deeded to the Each member pledges himself son, the complaint alleges, on "not to propagate or repeat any June 20, last year, who accepted

SIDE TOURS

A member of congress took

When he arrived and asked the there are at present more women chauffeur the charge the latter re-"But," protested the congress

> "Yes, sir." "Well, I understand that the right direction. They serve to distance is only two and one-half

"It is as a general thing, sir," assented the driver, "but you see we skidded a lot."

EDITORIALS OF THE PEOPLE

Felix Musy Felix Musy, whose funeral occurred Wednesday, June 6, was a native of Switzerland, and was 76 years of age. Hewasfrugaland 76 years of age. He was frugal and industrious. The flowers were many and beautiful and was held by his Quinaby neighbors, among whom he had lived conducted by Rev. G. L. Lowell In face of this fresh outbreak of the Evangelical church, who the authorities are placed in a spoke on "The Better Country,"

idele Garrison's New Phase of REVELATIONS OF A WIFE

CHAPTER NO. 321

THE WAY MISS FOSTER "WON HER DIPLOMA"

When Dr. Pettit had enumerat-Light, rising from a foundation of ton hospital he had not counted jagged rock near the Sicilly is- the child of the wounded woman, of Miss Foster's eagerness to see

> At any rate, when the child ap- of relief: peared, a poor, scrawny mite of 6 years, with so dirty a face that one could not judge whether her features were attractive or not, tangled hair that looked as if it and a comb had been strangers for many days, and clothing indescribably ragged and soiled, Dr. Pettit looked up from his task of wrapping the injured woman in a sheet and blanket, said briefly:

"She'll have to sit on your lap Miss Foster, and you must keep her quiet so she won't disturb Mrs.

But the warm-hearted western girl had rushed to the child pitylittle thing's big black eyes, the only features attractive about her, any tender woman would have been to comfort her, in spite of her repellent appearance. Miss who had the opportunity. I was occupied with getting the car in the exact spot Dr. Pettit wished. while Lillian and Mrs. Ticer were woman's bare feet.

How Miss Foster marraged it I do not know. I fancy the child was so terrorized that she submit-In Grocery Firm's Suit ted docilely to any one approaching her. But when the moaning woman had been lifted into the car by Dr. Pettit, Sam and Jerry ed appeal to her mother.

"Mother, may I please give my sweater to the little girl?" "Of course," Lillian returned promptly, and my prudent soul was thankful that the sweater Marion had on was a comparative- sence of jolting in the transportaly inexpensive one. Both she and tion of his patient would have lower and lower until she was fast her mother would have bestowed the moment had demanded it.

"Dem For Me?"

Miss Foster put the little girl's arms into the sweater, and Lillian . I have always cherished the Pettit. Isn't he a darling old with a glance at the child's bare thought that I was fairly free presence, against any member of be made is owned by Skiff, the feet, skimmed toward the house, flinging a hasty command over her shoulder. "Wait two minute, please.

won't be longer." Dr. Pettit frowned, spoke to "Turn your car toward the road while you wait. We mustn't los any time." I obeyed him, keeping the car in first until Lillian appeared in less than the time she had specified. She ran to the side of the man, "you are charging me for car and handed shoes and stockings of Marion's to Miss Foster. "Marion's older, but her feet are small. I think they'll fit." she said, stepping back again as the car began to move. In Miss Foster's lap the child wriggled softly.

the eternal feminine triumphing over her terror.

"Dem for me?" she whispered,

"Yes dear." The western girl' deep musical voice was filled with tenderness. "Hold up your right foot, no your right foot-this one, dear-and we'll put them on. Careful. You mustn't get against Mrs. Graham's arm."

The moans in the back seat ceased for a minute. I heard Dr. Pettit's voice say gruffly but tenderly: "Lie still," and I knew that

FUTURE DATES

June 8, Friday - Daily Bible Scho June 19, Sunday-Company F leaves national guard encampment. June 11. Monday-Western Walnut Growers to meet in Portland June 16, Saturday-County graduatio

June 13, Wednesday - Willamette Uni

exercises. Auditorium of Salem high

June 14, Thursday-Flag day. June 18, Monday-Opening, Daily Va

day school picnic.
June 18 to 24—Chautauqua at Dallas June 21, Thursday Regional Red Cros. conference in Salem. June 21, Thursday - Fifty-first reunion ing she would receive no care at barrassing interest in me.

tention unusually strained upon conscious of a great weariness at the attempt to avoid the slight- sight of his solemn face and tense est bumping. In the seat beside manner. But if there is a woman me, Miss Foster talked cooingly in the world who, though she be ed the occupants my car was to to the frightened child, and strug- honestly glad that an admirer had LONDON, June 7. - Bishop's have on the trip to the Southamp- gled with the task of getting the found solace elsewhere, yet has no shoes and stockings on the child's tiny secret feeling of pique confeet, hampered as she was by her cerning his defection, I should like

> We turned into the smooth state road and rushed with increased speed to the hospital entrance. As we drew up I heard Miss Foster say with a little sigh ed! Aren't they pretty shoes?" wered, but Dr. Pettit's deep voice: "You have earned your diploma, Miss Foster."

CHAPTER NO. 322

THE WAY MISS FOSTER CHAR ACTERIZED DR. PETTIT

My task was ended when I had driven my car safely to the hospital door with the wounded alien left alone together. woman who lived across the road from the Ticer farm. I realized it with a little sigh of relief, for I had feared more than I knew that I would jolt her.

Dr. Pettit's warning had been constantly in my ears, and when I reached the entrance I was nervously anxious for a word of reassurance from the physician that I had performed my work well. But his only comment was the deep, lowtoned tribute to the young western girl who had been soothing the frightened child of the injured woman. Then a hoshad ordered the car stopped once as we passed a small store, and had given the owner, whom he evidently knew, instructions to telephone the hospital that he was on his way with a surgical case— and have to leave mother and come to the physician began giving terse, you. Then there would be norapid-fire directions to the attentive orderly.

. I had leisure for observation, ings were concerned.

I knew him to be a man of unusually wrapped up in his profession, that when on a critical case he had neither eyes nor ears for anything else. A hasty word of commendation to me for the ab- ent with Junior, was not surpris been only natural. But he evidently had been watching the beautiful girl in her tender care tion on the seat, covered her with of the foriorn little child until his commendatory thoughts had overflowed in spontaneous tribute to her to the exclusion of every other thought, save that of his patient. to have you tell me about Dr. from the vice of vanity, and yet I could not deny to my own soul!

curiosity was momentarily gett- that a distinct little feeling of ng the better of the pain the mo- pique was creeping over me. 3fr her was enduring. I mentally my earliest acquaintance with Dr. confirmed my first impression Pettit I had never known him to that she was not dangerously adopt any other attitude than that hurt, but that Dr. Pettit, know- of an absorbing, sometimes emhome, meant to punish her sul- wishes, my comfort, my welfare, ien, avaricious old husband in his he had always put them first, not one tender spot, his pocketbook, obstrusively, but unmistakably, by taking her to the hospital and | I had not cared for the attenseeing he was charged for ser- tion, indeed, at times it had distinctly annoyed me, and the last The car sped along, I with at- time I had seen him I had been to meet her and ticket her as the ninth wonder.

"I'll Be Good."

as I scrutinized her face, bent over the child which she had claspe "There, every button is fasten- closely to her with the little face against her shoulder that the little . It was not the child who ans- girl might not see her mother being lifted to the stretcher which the orderlies had brought. She was murmuring tender cooing words to the child, and gave no indication that she had heard Dr. Pettit's commendatory little sentences at all. And then, with only a brief, terse instruction to park the car and wait, the physician hurried into the hospital, holding the recreant husband of his patient firmly by the sleeve, and Miss Foster, the child and I were

I appraised Miss Foster closely

I had never been to the hospi tal before, having been guided only by Dr. Pettit's directions, and for a minute I did not know where to park the car. Then I saw the other cars drawn up on a strip of green across the roadway, and I turned mine around and backed it in beside them. As I turned off the engine the child's voice rose in a plaintive wail.

"Mudder, mudder, vere my mudder! She die?" Miss Foster's voice held just the right note of reassuring childing. "No, no, I told you that Dr Pettit is going to make her well. But he has to have her in a nice clean bed, where there are lots of nice nurses to help her get well. Now you must be a good girl and keep quiet or else Dr. Pettit will body to help her, and she might

The child choked down her and I used my opportunity in a sobs-I suspected that many beatand whispered pitifully:

"I'll be good." I saw the warm-hearted girl's eyes fill with tears. "I know you will, dear," sh said softly. "Nov, don't you want to hear a story?" "Yes." The reply was lacon ic, but all the little thing's heart was in her eyes.

Miss Foster began a long and fascinating fairy tale, easing the child's position and watching he carefully. She purposely her voice droning, monoto and I, who had tried the ex asleep. The western girl eased her carefully to a reclining post-and swung her cramped arms. "Come on down and let's strol around, Mrs. Graham. I'm dying frump?"

a rug, then jumped to the ground

(To be continued.)

White-of-Egg in Calumet a Vital Element Most Baking Powders Lack

Don't use a leavener that does not contain white-of-egg. When you do you take chances—you run the risk of spoiling your bakings.

GALUMET The Economy BAKING POWDER

contains a small amount of white-of-egg. This makes it possible for representatives of the company to test it frequently for leavening strength—right on the dealer's counter. Nothing but absolutely fresh stock is permitted to remain on the dealers' shelves. ( It must always be up to the high Calumet standard.

Remember the white-ofegg in Calumet protects the success of your bakings. It is the economical positive bakeday aid and its sale is 2½ times as much as that of any other brand.

A pound can of Calumet Some baking powders come in 12 ounce instead of 16 ounce cans. Be when you get a pour when you want it.

the workers the roght of associa- Peace be to his memory.

tion. For a time there was a .—A NEIGHBOR.

THE WORLD'S GREATEST BAKING POWD

interesting things to do on THE SHORT STORY, JR. DANNY PUP GRADUATES

As he marched in to get his dehe washed his face the best he and went up to the chapel with Danny Pup went to college. He was the most popular student on talk about it, so he knew what it the campus. Even the president-liked Danny and it, was certainly was like. a wonder, for Danny broke more wanting to go. Gordon Phelps, the student to whom he was most devoted, had broken his leg sliding home in the last college baseall the college functions except commencement in a wheel chair. and Danny intended to stick close to him to see that no one jostled against that chair in the crowd. Inside the auditorium were rows of seniors. Danny felt that he should have a cap, but he hadn't had time to look for one. When the seniors started to march across the platform Danny joined them, his eyes on the pile of dip-

A wave of giggles went over the room as Danny stepped on the college for about six years he de- He waited patiently, but the presated. So on commencement day others and ignored him. Danny's could without any soap or water, down and began to cry piteously. the crowd. Danny had never be- at a diploma and said, "Gordon fore gone to commercement, for Phelps." Another senior reached it was too much like school to at for it. Then he drew his hand tract him very much, but he had back. "I was to take it, but-

The president smiled and stoop-heart was nearly broken. He sat Just then the president looked heard the fellows in his house give it to Danny Pup," he grinned.

ed to thrust the sheepskin in He had another reason for Danny's open mouth. Danny couldn't smile as he marched off proudly and made his way to the side of Gordon Phelps, for his jaws were clamped grimly over prominent members of the opposball game. Now he had to go to his precious diploma, while the auditorium rocked with applause. And that is how Danny Pup at last came to graduate.