

Junior Tennis Tourney Will Be Played Today

Salem juniors are to hold their annual tennis tournament today, beginning promptly at 9 o'clock and continuing until the full series is played off. The singles are to be played at the Salem Tennis club courts on the state hospital grounds. The mixed doubles are to be put on at the Bush courts on the Bush estate on South High street.

The singles pairing are: Minton vs. Clinger; Strausbaugh vs. Meyers; Stolz vs. Siegmund; Creech vs. White; Bishop, bye.

There is one girls' match between the Misses Findley and Tibbets.

The boys' doubles bring together White and Devers vs. Olinger and Creech; Minton and Hansen vs. Bishop and Meyers.

In the mixed doubles, Helen Roberts and John Varley meet Miss Tibbets and John Creech, and the winners will then meet Mildred Roberts and Robert Bishop.

The whole series is expected to be played off during the one day.

Grand Jury Postpones Action Until Monday

The Marion county grand jury that is investigating intimations against Dr. R. E. Lee Steiner, superintendent of the state hospital for the insane, contained in letters written by Dr. A. Slaughter of Salem, yesterday adjourned until Monday, and is not expected to make a report before that time. The jury was expected to report yesterday.

Slaughter wrote letters to Steiner making insinuations that he (Steiner) had used men on state time and pay to do personal labor for him, and also asking about the contents of certain packing cases said to have been removed at night recently by Steiner from his residences. Steiner did not reply to the letters, but instead asked for an investigation by the grand jury.

PORTLAND MARKETS

PORTLAND, Ore., June 8.—Grain futures: wheat, soft white, western white June 1.11; July 1.10 hard winter, northern spring, western red June 1.05, Corn—No. 2 eastern yellow shipment, June 79.00.

MAIN GRAIN CROP LESS THIS YEAR

Winter Wheat Totals 581 Millions of Bushels; Fruit Over Average

WASHINGTON, June 8.—The principal grain crops of the country will be smaller this year than last, with the exception of oats and barley, both of which have been planted on larger acreages than a year ago, according to the department of agriculture's monthly report, issued today. No reports have been made yet on corn.

Winter wheat shows slightly improved prospects resulting from May conditions and a crop of 581,000,000 bushels is forecast. This total is a little more than was indicated a month ago and about five million bushels less than last year's crop. In Kansas, there was a reduction of more than ten million bushels in the forecast compared with a month ago and in some other states there were slight decreases.

The season's first forecast of spring wheat production reported the prospective yield at 236,000,000 bushels or 40,000,000 bushels less than last year's crop, which was placed at 276,000,000 bushels in revised statistics today. The spring wheat acreage is 5.1 per cent less than last year's. North Dakota promises about one-third less than a year ago, while Minnesota and South Dakota will have slightly smaller crops. Montana and Washington show increases over last year.

Smaller crops of apples and peaches than last year are indicated, although they will be larger than the average crops of the five years, 1917-21, inclusive.

CANTELOUPE ON MARKET

The latest arrival on the local market is the canteloupe, direct from the Imperial valley, in California. These are wholesaling for $6 a crate. The demand is said to be good.

ADVANTAGE GOES TO BEAR MARKET

Wheat Closing Prices Remain Unsettled; Harvest Weakens Values

CHICAGO, June 8.—With prospects apparently less promising for a settlement between Germany and France and with harvest weather favorable in Oklahoma, bears had an advantage in the wheat market today. Crop estimates from Washington proved moderately bullish as to wheat, but were issued after the trading here had ended. Closing prices for wheat were unsettled at the same as yesterday's finish to 1 1/2c lower. July, $1.10 1/2 to $1.13 1/2, and September, $1.09 3/4 to $1.09 3/8.

FOREIGN WHEAT

LIVERPOOL, June 8.—Close: Wheat, 1 to 1 1/4d lower; July, 9s, 6 1/4d; October, 9s, 4 1/4d.

BUENOS AIRES, June 8.—Opening wheat, 1/2 cent lower; July, $1.10 1/2; September, $1.11 1/2.

FRUIT

NEW YORK, June 8.—Evaporated apples dull; peaches, dull and weak; apricots, easy; peaches, dull.

BULK OF BUSINESS BY PROFESSIONALS

Low Priced Railroad Issues Are in Demand, With Price Advancing

NEW YORK, June 8.—Intermittent profit taking and short selling imparted a reactionary trend to industrial shares in today's more active stock market, but the railroad issues, particularly the low priced carriers, were in good demand at advancing prices. The large bulk of the business was again in the hands of professional traders. Strength of the railroad issues was based on reports of good earnings, the April figures showing a return of 6 1/2 per cent on the tentative property valuation; unusually heavy car loadings for this season of the year, and speculative resumption of dividend by some roads and a higher rate for others.

Call money held at 4 1/2 per cent throughout the day. There was no change in the time money and commercial paper rates. The feature of the foreign exchange market was the creation of a new low record by the German mark below .0012 cents, cable reports indicating France's rejection of the latest German reparations offer resulted in a slight lowering of the other continental rates. Demand sterling dropped nearly a cent to 4.61 1/2.
