Dan Casey Again to Be Sentenced to Gallows

Dan Casey, convicted of the murder of "Buck" Phillips, Southern Pacific police officer of Portland, about two years ago, and who was sentenced to be hanged, but whose execution was stayed by an appeal to the supreme court, will shortly be taken back to Muttnomah county to be sentenced again. Arthur S. Benson, clerk of the supreme court, yesterday sent the mandate to Multnomah county, showing that the supreme court upheld the conviction and sentence of the lower court,. This opinion of the supreme court was handed down several months ago. Under the law it is necessary to return the prisoner to the place of trial to be resentenced. Since the action of the lower court was upheld it will be incumbent upon the trial judge again to give Casey the death penalty.
