PUBLIC NOTICES

Notice of Improvement of Maple Avenue Between Highland Avenue and South Street.

Notice is hereby given that the common council of the City of Salem, Oregon, deems it necessary and expedient and hereby declares its purpose and intention to improve Maple avenue from the south line of Highland avenue to the north line of South street, in the City of Salem, Oregon, at the expense of the abutting and adjacent property, except the street intersections, the expense of which will be assumed by the City of Salem, by bringing said portion of Maple avenue to the established grade, constructing cement concrete curbs and paving said portion of said avenue with a six-inch cement concrete pavement in accordance with the plans and specifications therefor which were adopted by the common council June 18th, 1923, and which are hereby referred to and by reference made a part hereof.

The common council hereby declares its purpose and intention to make the above described improvement by and through the street improvement department of the City of Salem.

By order of the common council the 18th day of June, 1923.

M. POULSEN, City Recorder.

Date of first publication hereof is June 20, 1923.

Emerson Hough, who recently died, was to have written his greatest novel, but his plans were cut off by his sudden death. It was to have concerned the Alamo. How many of our readers know what the Alamo means? Hough had the knowledge, he had the imagination and the enthusiasm for men and deeds that were American. What Fenimore Cooper did for colonial America Hough had fitted himself to do for the west and the southwest.
