

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Pest Missing—

No traces of earwigs were found in South Salem, according to S. H. Van Trump, county fruit inspector, who thoroughly investigated that district after receiving reports of their presence. South Commercial, Bellevue and Chemeketa street residents reported the pest. Poison has not been sown this week to any great extent, owing to the weather conditions, as rain would destroy the desired effects of the poison. However, no letup on the earwig will be made, and every rumor of an earwig is receiving the greatest attention.

Another Speeder Fined—

Paul Berndt was fined $10 by Police Judge Poulsen yesterday on a charge of speeding.

The two boys residents of Washington, were on their way to California, and they had hoped to cross the state line before taking out a license for the machine, owing to the difference in price.

Blyden Now in Jail—

C. C. (Gar) Blyden is registered at the Hotel Birchett, following his appearance in justice court yesterday charged with lewd cohabitation. He waived hearing and was bound over to the grand jury, unable to raise $250, which would have given him his freedom until his case was disposed of. His companion, Mrs. Spypy, did not appear and the police are seeking to learn the reason why.

Transferred to Hospital—

Joseph Hell, life term in the Oregon state penitentiary, yesterday was transferred to the state hospital for the insane. It was said he tried to kill fellow convicts, attacking one with a shovel and another with a pick handle, and otherwise showing signs of insanity. Hell was convicted in Multnomah county for murder in the first degree, committed in a pool hall, and was received at the state prison in December, 1921. Because the Multnomah county bonds in the sum of $1,050,000 is asked by the district.

Protest Received—

A protest at the joint meeting relative to railway crossings that the public service commission has set for Hillsboro today, affecting the Garden Home vicinity, has been received by the commission from G. G. McCormick. Mr. McCormick wants the hearing deferred until a mass meeting of the citizens can be called relative to proposed changes in the roads. His letter recalls that last year a mass meeting was called at which those attending voted unanimously against any change in location. All realize, he says, that the crossing near Firlock should be changed, but they insist that it be changed by compelling the Oregon Electric to put in an overhead crossing. The letter also declares that there should be a safety bell at the crossing near Garden Home station.
