Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hartman and Mrs. H. Hartman visited in Portland during the week.

Mrs. Grace Thompson, teacher in the Grant Junior high school, will go to Portland today where she will be joined by her sister, Mrs. Ella Jones, and they will go on to Seattle. They will sail from there Wednesday for Skagway, Alaska.

Mrs. Richard Robertson, Miss Mary Findley, with Edith and Pauline Findley are spending a few days at Tillamook beaches.

Mrs. W. H. Burghardt, Jr., played at a large morning musicale Friday, June 15, in Portland. It was given at the home of Mrs. George Gerlinger, and was followed by a luncheon. More than 100 women were bidden and the affair was charming in all its details.

Mrs. Burghardt played a varied program, including classical, modern and ultra modern numbers, which were delightfully received by the musical women who were included as guests. Mrs. Burghardt specialized in modern numbers and has appeared in a number of musical affairs in Salem during the spring.

Miss Iona M. Cahen and Mrs. Sadie Robinson of Portland are visiting Mrs. Johnson S. Smith and other Salem friends on Sunday. They are employed in the federal prohibition enforcement office for Oregon, over which Mr.

Smith formerly presided as director.

Miss Barbara Stanfield, daughter of Senator and Mrs. Robert N. Stanfield, has been visiting with her aunt, Mrs. W. H. Lytle for several days. She returned to Portland yesterday where she will be the guest of friends. She will go to Rome in the fall to enter a private school.

A group of Salem women attended the monthly meeting of the Oregon Writers' League Friday night in Portland. Mrs. Gertrude Robison Ross of Salem contributed a poem to the evening's program. Dr. H. C. Canby, well known author, was one of the speakers of the evening.

Those going up from Salem were Miss Minna Harding, Mrs. Gertrude Robison Ross, Mrs. F. S. Barton and Miss Edna Garfield.

The last children's clinic of the season will be held Wednesday, June 27. All those who have children to bring should register them if possible with Mrs. John A. Carson or Mrs. E. E. Fisher. The next clinic will be held in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rosebraugh will be guests today at the wedding of Miss Erna Readen and Warren Daigh in Portland. Mrs. Rosebraugh was among those from Salem attending the annual Alpha Chi Omega luncheon in Portland yesterday. She will remain in Portland for a few days' visit before returning to Salem.

Miss Thelma Goodrich of Dayton is a house guest at the C. K. Spaulding home.

Miss Edgar Hartley will entertain the Roundup club at her home tomorrow.

Mrs. Charles K. Spaulding spent Wednesday in Portland.

Miss Dorothy Buckner, who has accepted a position in the Silverton high school for the ensuing school year, has left for Berkeley, Cal., where she will attend the summer session of the U. of C. She plans to take a special teachers' course in English and history, which she will teach this fall. Piano pupils of Mrs. Cora Hen-

Culbertson, will be graduated tomorrow. Mr. Culbertson, after a short visit in Salem, will go east by the Canadian Pacific to New York to join his mother, Mrs. Anna Culbertson, who has recently returned there after a stay of seven months in Boston. They will stay in New York indefinitely.

A wedding of interest to their many friends in this city was solemnized last Sunday afternoon at the home of L. A. Elwell, North

Winter street, when Miss Florence Lacey became the bride of Sidney Howard. The rooms were decorated with quantities of lovely summer blossoms, the ceremony taking place under a wedding bell of marguerites, an effective background being formed of white carnations and syringas combined with ferns. The service was read by Rev. H. Johnson, pastor of the
