By MARGUERITE GLEESON

THE month of July ushers in real summer weather and with the round of holiday affairs attendant upon the first few days of July will be a busy time. The visit of President and Mrs. Harding to Oregon this week brings with it unusual activity for Salem folks, many of whom will be among those welcoming the president and his party to the state border Tuesday.

The reception for President and Mrs. Harding in Portland Wednesday will be of no little interest to Salem folks.

Mrs. Willis C. Hawley, wife of Congressman Hawley of Oregon, who is in Salem for the summer, has been invited to be one of the receiving parties at that reception Wednesday for President and Mrs. Harding. The reception will be held from 11 to 12:30 in the Multnomah hotel.

The last week has been a busy round of informal affairs with delightful entertaining for several guests in the city. The large afternoon affair which Mrs. M. C. Woodard of Silverton gave Friday was attended by a group of Salem matrons and maids.

Mrs. Henry Meyers entertained for Miss Helen Jordan of Seattle during the week. Mrs. W. H. Burghardt, Jr., was hostess for guests from Portland at tea on Thursday and Mrs. John J. Roberts entertained yesterday for a large group in honor of her sister, Miss Katherine Slade, who is home from the University of Oregon.

The informal dance Thursday night at the Illahue club was the inspiration of a number of pretty parties later and a few dinner parties proceeded the dance.

Picnic parties during the coming week will share with the beach and mountain parties which will celebrate the national holiday.

Mrs. John J. Roberts entertained at afternoon tea yesterday for her sister, Miss Katherine Slade. Receiving with Mrs. Roberts and Miss Slade were Mrs. Fritz Slade of Portland and Mrs. Gertrude Cameron of Silverton. College friends of Miss Slade to the number of 40 called between the hours of four and six.

Mrs. Dan Fry, Jr., and Mrs. Allen C. Hopkins poured at the dainty tea table. Assisting in the dining room were Helen Roberts, Doris Nye, Charlotte Zieber and Margaret Stoltz.

Assisting about the rooms were college friends of Miss Slade's, Miss Maxine Buren, Miss Margaret Griffith, Miss Gretchen Brown and Miss Helen Robe.

Miss Slade has been attending the University of Oregon during the last year and has been spending a few days with her sister. She returns to Eugene tonight and will assume a position in the office of the registrar.

Mrs. H. J. Clement has as her house guest Miss June Burgas.

Mrs. W. H. Burghardt, Jr. was hostess at a pretty garden luncheon Thursday at which a number of out of town women were guests. Lavender and blue were the color notes on the two pretty tables spread in the pretty shaded garden.

Van Fleet roses and stately poppies in shades of mauve, decorated the living room of the Burghardt home, where the guests later gathered. Mrs. Frederick D.

Thielson assisted the hostess. Guests from Portland for the day were Mrs. Charles F. Swigert, Mrs. Donald Spencer and Miss Mable Withycombe and Miss E. Ruth Catlin. Salem women bidden were Mrs. William Walton, Mrs. Frederick Thielson, Mrs. R. Sanford and Mrs. John J. Roberts.

Mrs. W. H. Burghardt, Jr. spent yesterday in Albany as the guest of friends.

SILVERTON, Or., June 30.—(Special to The Statesman).—Mrs. M. C. Woodard and daughter, Miss Woodard, hosts of Mrs. Victoria Hanson of Boston. Miss Jean Thomas of San Francisco and Miss Emma Steward of Wausau Wis., at a large tea Friday afternoon.

Delphinium and Margioids were used in the dining room while lilies and pink carnations were used in the living room for decoration. Mrs. R. E. Kleinberge of Silverton and Miss Helen Tuthill of Portland poured. Miss Dorothy Hubbs, Miss Helen Curry, Mrs. W. W. Cooley and Miss Maurine Dinger, assisted with the serving and Mrs. E. Richardson, Mrs. Gertrude Cammeron, and Mrs. T. Ristigan assisted about the rooms.

Out of town guests included a group of Mills College girls whose homes are in Portland and several matrons and maids from Salem.

Among the Salem women bidden were Mrs. Henry Meyers and her house guest, Miss Jordan of Seattle; Mrs. William H. Lytle, Mrs. William H. Burghardt, Jr., Mrs. William Belle, Mrs. W. P. Lord, Miss Elizabeth Lord, Mrs. John J. Roberts, Miss Katherine Slade, Mrs. A. N. Bush, Mrs. John A. Carson, Mrs. T. A. Livesley, Mrs. Harry Hawkins, Mrs. Clifford Irwin, Mrs. Harry H. Olin, Mrs. W. E. Anderson, Mrs. Ben W. Olcott, Miss Bruce Putnam, Miss Margaret Casper, Mrs. Josie Steward.

Miss Dorris Sikes, formerly a reporter and later society editor of The Oregon Statesman, has announced her engagement to George Bjorsed at Cottage Grove. The wedding will be an event of the trip to Norway.

Miss Sikes' family resides in Springfield. She is a former student of the University of Oregon and a member of Alpha Xi Delta. She has been employed for more than a year on the Cottage Grove station and was manager of the paper last year during the absence of the editor, Elbert Bode in the east.

Mr. Bjorsed is an inspector for the Southern Pacific with headquarters in Cottage Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Marshall of Gervais observed the thirtieth anniversary of their wedding Thursday evening at their home near Gervais. An informal reception was held and 75 friends and neighbors called and a musical program was arranged for the evening.

The program presented was as follows:

"A Perfect Day, Mrs. A. M. Sauter; "Silver Threads Among the Gold," Caroline Ghown; Reading, Mrs. Scott James; flute solo, Avis Hicks; reading, Mrs. Frank Chown; solo, Vera Harper; piano "The Waters of Minnetonka," Miss Eleanor Munson; solo, Ernest Chown; violin, Betty Siddal; reading, Mrs. W. C. Inman.

Mrs. Marshall was assisted during the evening by her daughter, Miss Katherine Marshall.

The friends and neighbors who helped Mr. and Mrs. Marshall observe the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Stegumund, Mr. and Mrs. John Cutsforth, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Harper, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Metzgar; Mr. and Mrs. Scott Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Jarr Cutsforth, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cutsforth, Mr. and Mrs. Benn Jelderks, Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Persons, Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Moisan, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chown, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Inman, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Cutsforth, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Harper, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Byrd, Mrs. Iara Shields, Mrs. J. C. Galbraith, Mrs. Herman Boaster, Mrs. Sarah Thornburg, Mrs. B. Steves, Mrs. L. D. Marrs, Mrs. Everett, Mrs. John Clark, Mrs. Eva Dusenbury, Mrs. Clara Ripper, Mrs. Sumner Steves, Miss Verna Kekkinger, Miss Grace Shields, Miss Genevieve Jelderks, Caroline Chrom, Belda Byrd, Ernest Chown N. Jelderks, Ken Ewalt, Glen Ewalt, Cleve Shields, Benjamin Moisan, Vern Jones, Gordon Jones.

Out of town guests included Mrs. A. M. Sauter, Mrs. J. E. Ziegler, Portland; Rev. and Mrs. Ascher, Miss Irene Forsythe, Woodburn; Miss Betty Siddell, Astoria; Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Siefmund, Miss Avis Hicks, Mrs. Katie Reinart, Salem; and Miss Eleanor Munson, Oakland, Cal.

and department and local officers of the Ladies of the GAR and Sons of Veterans and auxiliary.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Reed, from Betsy Ross tent, D. of V., Portland, and Mrs. Maud Hicks. Several members of Jessie Holmes tent, D. of V., of Woodburn were present. Enjoyable musical numbers and interesting impromptu talks were given during the evening.

Mrs. L. Thompson of Marshfield has returned home following a visit in Salem with Mrs. F. H. Thompson.

The women of Chemeketa chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution met for the final session of the year Thursday with a picnic at the home of Mrs. Seymour Jones. The flag day program was presented under the direction of Miss Edith Benedict. Officers for the coming year were installed by Mrs. U. G. Shipley, retiring regent of the local chapter. The fall meeting, which will be held on Constitution day, will be an open meeting, as is the custom of the organization. This will be held in the auditorium of the Chamber of Commerce.

Officers installed were Mrs. Russell Catlin, regent; Mrs. C. C. Clark, vice regent; Mrs. W. H. Byrd, secretary; Mrs. R. J. Vallon, treasurer; Miss Ruth Ruliffson, registrar; Mrs. A. A. Underhill, chaplain; Miss Lillian Applegate, historian; Mrs. F. H. Spears, librarian.

Miss Ola Clark has gone to Oakland, Cal., for the National Educational convention. Others going from Salem to the national meeting include Mrs. Mary Fulkerson, county superintendent, and Mr. and Mrs. George Hug.

Miss Clarabel Smith became the bride of Henry Gortmaker Wednesday at 4 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith. Rev. Ward Willis Long officiated at the wedding service. Bridal attendants were Miss Alice Gortmaker, sister of Mr. Gortmaker, and Paul Sherwood.

The bride wore a frock of white satin back crepe with overskirt of silver lace. Her veil was held with a wreath of orange blossoms. Miss Gortmaker wore silver-gray canton crepe trimmed with pearls. The bride carried a shower of bride's roses and the bridesmaid carried Cecil Brunner roses and sweet peas. Mrs. Julia Weigel played the wedding march from Mendelssohn. The wedding service was read before a screen of greenery, centered with a heart arrangement formed with red roses.

Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Elliott are on a short vacation trip to Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Clifford will leave today for a brief holiday outing. Mr. Clifford will return to Salem for a few days and will later return for a several days' stay.

Dr. and Mrs. B. F. Pound are home following the annual encampment at Camp Lewis, Wash.

The Thursday Kensington club was entertained by Mrs. N. C. Kafoury. The members attending were Mrs. T. L. Davidson, Mrs. L. N. Doughton, Mrs. Henry Morris, Mrs. Frank Power, Mrs. William Thompson, Mrs. Otto J. Willson, Mrs. R. S. Melson, Mrs. Herbert Hauser, Mrs. Fred Anunson, Mrs. Charles Wilson and Mrs. Idleman.

A picnic in July will be the next affair of the club.

Mrs. E. E. Upmeyer returned this week from a short visit in Eugene.

SILVERTON, Or., June 30.—(Special to The Statesman).—Mrs. J. M. Montgomery entertained at a bridge tea at her home on West Main street Wednesday afternoon honoring Miss Emma Steward of Wausau Wis. Assisting Mrs. Montgomery in receiving were Mrs. C. Lawrence Jones of Jamestown, N. Y.; Mrs. John Balantyne of Augusta, Kansas, and Miss Frances Hays of Portland.

An interesting and charming musicale tea was given at Prof. T. S. Roberts music hall Friday afternoon for his junior pupils. The following pupils appeared in the afternoon: Mary Jane Lua, Frederick Wolfe, Lucille Aspinwall, Kenneth Morris, Velma May, Sammie Ramp, Maxine Sun, Kenneth Bevilacqua, Lawrence Engstrom, Grace Elizabeth Holman.

At a pretty evening party Saturday for which Mrs. William E. Knower was hostess, the engagement of Miss Gertrude Ashby and Raymond Archibald, now of Springfield, Mo., was announced.

Mrs. Warren G. Harding is realizing the ambition of several years in making the present trip with the President to Alaska and the Northwest. A reception will be given Wednesday, July 4, in Portland for President and Mrs. Harding.

Mrs. Willis C. Hawley, wife of Congressman Hawley of Salem, has been asked to be a member of the receiving party at the reception which will be held in the Multnomah hotel between 11 and 12:30 o'clock Wednesday.

Miss Laura Harlan, the daughter of the late Chief Justice John M. Harlan, and Mrs. Harding's secretary, is a member of the presidential party.

The wedding will be an event of early August.

Mr. Archibald is a son of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Archibald of Albany. He was for four years with the state highway department and is a graduate of Oregon Agricultural college.

Miss Ashby is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Ashby, at whose home the party was given by her sister, Mrs. Knower, last night.

Entertaining for a group of out of town guests, Mrs. Carrie Chase was hostess at dinner Tuesday evening. Covers were laid for Rev. and Mrs. J. Franklin and their daughter of Sacramento, Cal.; Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Cooper of Carlton, Or.; Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Healey and daughter of Portland.

The dining room where the deft refreshments were served to the performers and their invited guests was decorated with yellow and white marguerites.

Professor Roberts contrived to give the air of a concert to the advanced recital in the evening by attention to stage deportment on the part of his pupils, by an attractively arranged stage and by varying the piano pieces by numbers for voice and violin. Mendelssohn's Capriccio Brillante, played by Louise Findley with sweet pea and ferns, and the second piano was played with splendid command as well as technical ease.

Fantasia Elegante from Faust, played by Dorothy Kezar, showed free technique and a delightful sense of the form and line of the melodies.

Chopin's Polonaise in C sharp minor, played by Maude Engstrom was deserving of special mention. It was exceptionally well presented. The dainty touch and brilliant massive cords of Beethoven's Turkish March from "Ruins of Athens" was well rendered.

Donald Schaupp. Mrs. Ruth Johns Newmeyer, vocal, and Delbert Moore, violinist, assisted with special numbers at both the evening and afternoon programs.
