I Am

On the Corvallis Independence road, about 5 miles south of Independence. I have a 410 acre farm, 200 of which is the richest kind of black loam and in a high state of cultivation. There is about 50 acres more ready to plow and the balance is in oak timber and pasture and is fine fruit soil. I have plenty of good spring water and have a complete water system throughout my residence. My barns, pig-pens, silos and all out buildings are strictly modern and in fact everything that is required to make an up-to-date, profitable farm. I have a fine one hundred foot grape arbor, which bears tons of grapes; filberts, cherries and large family orchard and all kinds of small fruit. I am physically unable to handle so large a farm. I must sell this summer or fall or will be compelled to rent it and I don't want to do that. I will take as part payment, an up-to-date small place near or in Salem, or give easy terms. I have arranged with Mr. Robinson to handle the sale of my farm. See or write him at 229 Oregon Bldg. Phone 1013.
