greatest magnet of any match in history.

Johnson Beats McAuliffe
 The main bout of the evening was followed by a flash of the dramatic which on another occasion would have attracted greater attention.

Jack McAuliffe of Detroit, who was matched to meet Floyd Johnson, the flashy heavyweight from Des Moines, was knocked out in the first round of their bout after a minute and four seconds of fighting.

Johnson flew from his corner at his opponent. There were a few flashing blows nearly all of them delivered by Johnson. McAuliffe retreated but Johnson caught his quarry and in an instant McAuliffe was flat on his back.

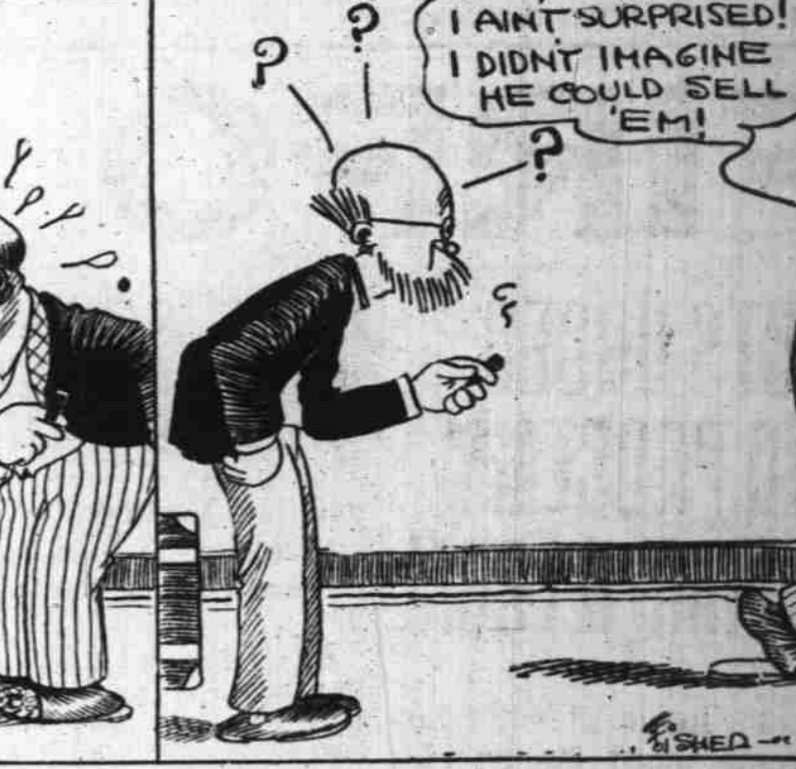

He arose only to be knocked half way through the ropes by a right to the jaw. Crawling back into the ring he crouched by the ropes and was unable to rise until Joe Jeannette, the negro referee, had counted him out. While he was crouching, his handlers showered him with water and when the bout ended hardly before it began, numbers at the ringside thought he was disqualified.

Kramer Earns Verdier
 Cliff Kramer of San Francisco out-boxed and out-slugged Tiny Jim Herman, of Omaha in a slashing eight rounder, the second preliminary. He earned the verdict, critics agreed as the result of a sensational rally in the closing rounds, having Herman close to a knockout in the sixth.

Herman looked like an early winner in the first two rounds, drawing blood from Kramer's right eye and slugging the coast boy about the ring.

Kramer despite his disadvantage of weight, came back with a whirlwind attack to Herman. He floored the Nebraskan twice for short counts in the sixth round, the bell saving Herman as he reeled to the ropes. Kramer also had an edge in the last two rounds, though both appeared somewhat groggy at the final bell.

FIRPO SOLEMN AFTER VICTORY THINKS HE'LL WHIP DEMPSEY WILLARD SAYS ARM SPRAINED

RINGSIDE, Jersey City, July 12.—(By The Associated Press.)—Louis Angel Firpo, conquerer of Jess Willard, took his triumph with the same solemnity that he displayed in the seven and a fraction rounds to put the giant Kansan down.

"Willard is a fine man. I am proud to have defeated him," he said. Told that Willard had declared he would make "a great match" for Champion Dempsey, he said:

"I have never seen Dempsey in the ring, but I am anxious to get in the ring with him. I believe I can beat him."

Firpo said Willard had given him a tough battle. The blows the former champion landed, he said, hurt, backed as they were with the big Kansan's 242 pounds of bulk.

Willard characterized Firpo as a good, tough hitter.

"He gave me a good hard fight," Willard said. "I don't want to alibi as I was fairly beaten, but my left arm was so sprained in the training that I could scarcely use it at all. I had many openings for Firpo's face, but I couldn't jab hard enough to down him."

Willard said the blow that put him down for the final count was a hard right cross to the jaw which had him groggy for several minutes after he had been counted out. Indeed, he appeared a trifle groggy 30 minutes after the fight as his trainers were patching him up in his dressing room.

Willard said he had not yet made his plans for the future but that he probably would return to his home in Los Angeles in a few days.

LOS ANGELES, July 12.—Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion, after reading the Associated Press story of the Firpo-Willard fight in Jersey City, N. J., tonight said he was "very much satisfied with the result." And that he "believed the best man won."

"Of course," he added, "I am anxious to meet Firpo or Harry Willis, and it is up to my manager, Jack Kearns to sign up one of them for a match for me on Labor day."

Herman weighed 218 and Kramer 195 pounds.

Two Englishmen Fight
 A six-round bout, the third preliminary, between George West of London, England, and Charles Nashert of Jersey City, was stopped in the fourth round to save West from further punishment. Both weighed 160 pounds.

Al Bright, English heavyweight, a member of Firpo's training camp, and Tom Roper, of Chicago, struggled to a draw in the opinion of the most critics in an eight round bout, the first preliminary. Bright opened a cut over Roper's eye in the third round but he was wild and an easy target for Roper's jabs.

Bright weighed 206 and Roper 180.

Round 1.—Firpo came from his corner with a characteristic rush. Willard blocked his right and jabbed with a left. Firpo landed a light blow to the body. He drove his right again to Willard's ribs. Firpo forced Jess to the ropes and cuffed the big fellow about the head at close quarters. Blood trickled from a cut on Willard's left ear. Jess drove his right to the side of the head and the bell sounded.

Round 2.—Jess carried the fight to Firpo but missed a right uppercut. Firpo landed one in the ribs but was short with a right. The big Kansan blocked Firpo's attempt to attack his body. Willard's left side showed splashes of red from his opponent's punches. Firpo shot a hard right to the jaw but Willard stepped out of the way of another wallop aimed at the same spot as the gong sounded.

Round 3.—Willard jabbed Firpo about the head in close quarters. The Argentinian forced Willard back into a corner with a body attack. Willard's long right stopped Firpo short as he tried to bore in. Willard seemed content to employ defensive tactics, blocking Firpo's powerful rights. They were sparring as the round ended.

Round 4.—Willard jarred Firpo with a left to the head. Firpo swung both fists as they went into a clinch but inflicted no damage. Willard caught Firpo with an uppercut coming in. Firpo bounced from the ropes, landing a right to the stomach. He pummeled Willard about the arena at close quarters and Jess only smiled. Willard was wild with a right and absorbed further punishment about the head. Firpo rushed in with both fists, landing heavily. Jess rallied and drove Firpo to a corner as the bell rang.

Round 5.—Willard sent Firpo's ship in the men's singles from Van Dyke Johns of Seattle in the finals, 6-4, 7-5, 4-6, 6-1.

The Oregon state tennis championship, being held coincidentally with the sectional tournament, progressed to the semi-finals in all events.

"Oregon's range grass crop is the best this year in two decades. Our good range feed ought to help pull the cattlemen out of some of their difficulties. Light calf crops during the last two years, coupled with a falling market, has caused serious financial losses to all cattlemen."

Hog Cholera Spreads Is Lytle's Report

Oregon experienced last year, along with other states of the union, an increase in the prevalence of hog cholera, says Dr. W. H. Lytle, state veterinarian in the monthly bulletin of the state livestock sanitary board.

"It was erroneously thought by some that cholera did not or would not exist in Oregon," says the bulletin. "This was due to our comparative freedom in the past from the disease. Our limited number of hogs and our cereal feeds probably greatly lessened the susceptibility and spread, but cholera, when introduced, will kill hogs just as quickly in Oregon as elsewhere. The livestock show circuits no doubt contribute to the spread. Most states require immunization to qualify animals for exhibition purposes. With our large shows at Salem and Portland, vaccination will now be necessary in Oregon."

DEMPSEY-FIRPO GO WILL BE ARRANGED

Tex Rickard to Start Negotiations for Title Match Early in Fall

RINGSIDE, JERSEY CITY, N. J., July 12.—(By The Associated Press.)—Tex Rickard tonight said he probably would begin negotiations as soon as possible to match Luis Angel Firpo with Jack Dempsey for a title match, either in September or October.

Rickard has Firpo under contract to meet Dempsey and will confer with Jack Kearns, the title holder's manager in the near future.

General opinion is that Rickard will choose the site of tonight's fight for his next championship venture.

Kearns was at the ringside tonight and declared his readiness to sign for a Firpo match if his terms are met. Just what these are, he did not state.
