GEARHART LOTS TO BE AUCTIONED
Big Sale Authorized Simultaneously With Opening of New Hotel
The most interesting development of the past week in Real Estate circles is the announcement of an unreserved Auction Sale of Beach Resort Home Sites at Gearheart By the Sea. The Sale is scheduled to take place at Gearheart on Saturday, August 11th and the officials of the Gearheart Park company, owners and developers of Gearheart, announce that each lot offered will be sold to the highest bidder without reservations.

The Sale of Gearheart lots is of particular interest because of the character of the property involved and again on account of the rapid development now going on and contemplated at Gearheart. The magnificent $300,000 hotel which is undeniably the finest Beach Resort hotel on the Pacific has just been completed at Gearheart, thereby providing a much needed rendezvous for the people of the Northwest. The hotel is equipped with every conceivable convenience and most elaborately furnished and surpasses anything of its kind in this part of the country. This enterprise, prompted by some of Portland's most prominent citizens, is an assurance that it is on the threshold of unprecedented activity and now that the Gearheart Park company has authorized an unreserved sale of part of its holding, it is to be expected that considerable building activity will be witnessed at Gearheart in the immediate future.

The purpose of the sale, as stated by an official of the selling company, is to distribute as many lots as possible among individual home builders who will build and live at Gearheart and for this reason, in spite of the fact that it is to be a sacrifice sale, the selling company is offering easy terms to encourage rapid development at this beautiful Beach Resort. "Prices will be no consideration at the auction and terms as as $10 a month are being offered thereby making it possible all to participate in the joy of summer cottage by the sea." Deal and title policies will be issued by the Title & Trust company Portland and arrangements have also been made with the Title & Trust company to execute in for intending purchasers who might not be able to attend sale in person. An attractive illustrated bookmap giving full description of the property and terms of sale has been prepared and can be obtained upon application at the office of Barry & Martin in the Chamber of Commerce building, Portland.
