By MARGUERITE GLEESON

Complimenting Mrs. Claude Gatch and her daughter, Miss Ruth Gatch, who are guests in Salem, Mrs. S. C. Dyer was hostess Friday at a delightful afternoon at the Gray Belle.

Mrs. Gatch and Miss Gatch were brief visitors in town while on their way from Oakland, Cal., to Seattle. They formerly lived in Salem and were prominent in Salem social life.

Those bidden to meet the guests of honor were Mrs. A. N. Bush, Mrs. William Brown, Mrs. George Burnett, Mrs. J. N. Smith, Mrs. W. Carlton Smith, Mrs. R. P. Boise, Mrs. Lenta Westcott, Mrs. Ada Strong, Mrs. W. I. Dancy, Mrs. H. J. Bean, Mrs. Richard Cartwright, Miss Gladys Cartwright, Mrs. Brazier Small, Mrs. Robert Fleming, Mrs. John McNary, Mrs. Lizzie Albert, Mrs. John Scott, Mrs. T. B. Kay, Mrs. George Brown, Mrs. H. H. Olinger, Mrs. M. M. Chapman, Mrs. E. C. Cross, Mrs. Henry Meyers, Mrs. A. N. Moores, Mrs. Robert Kinney, of Astoria, Miss Mabel Robertson, Mrs. Russell Catlin, Mrs. Frank Spears, Mrs. Fred Stewart, Mrs. Ada Fisher, Mrs. Charles Gray, Mrs. H. D. Thiesen, Mrs. Charles Weller, Mrs. George Pearce, Miss Ellen Chamberlain, Mrs. Claude Thayer, Mrs. C. O. Rice, Mrs. Cunningham, Mrs. Milton Meyers, Mrs. N. H. Looney, Mrs. John Sutherland, Miss Marguerite Looney and Mrs. W. Connel Dyer.

Mrs. Claude Tnayer, a sister of Miss Sally Bush and A. N. Bush, has come to Salem from Berkeley, Cal. She will make her home in the Linn house at the corner of North Capitol and Chemeketa streets. Mrs. Thayer moved to California several years ago from Oregon. Her many friends here will welcome her back.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Moore and their two daughters, Lucille and Dorothy, have just returned from several weeks in California.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Apperson and Miss Mildred Apperson of McMinnville were dinner guests of Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Robertson Thursday evening.

Miss Margaret Rodgers has returned from New York where she has been for more than a year. With her parents she will go to Gearhart next week.

Capt. and Mrs. Earl Flegel will leave within a short time for Honolulu where Captain Flegel will be stationed. He has been for more than a year in Portland at Hill Military academy. They will visit in Salem with

"Most Honored" War Mother Sought

Idaho seeks woman who gave greatest numbers of sons in World's War; trip planned.

Boise, Idaho, July 14.—Idaho's most honored "war mother," the one who gave the greatest number of sons to the World War, is being sought by officials of the state. Besides local honors, which according to plans, will be conferred upon the mother designated, she will be the distinguished guest of the state at the national convention of the National War Mothers at Kansas City in September.

Mrs. Flegel's parents Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Steiner, before their departure.

Observing their first wedding anniversary, Dr. and Mrs. Phil Newmeyer were hosts Friday night at an informal party. Five hundred was played during the evening.

The first prizes went to Mrs. Beulah Mills and Dr. C. E. Bates, while consolation prizes were awarded to Mrs. Tom Galloway and L. S. Geer. The rooms were decorated with sweet peas.

Guests who were invited for the evening were Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Bates, Mr. and Mrs. Bliss Darby, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Webb, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Spaulding, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kirk, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Galloway, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Geer, Dr. and Mrs. Prince Byrd, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Valton, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Zimmerman, Mrs. Beulah Mills and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Compton.

Complimenting Mrs. Alvin Freeman Sersanus of Portland, who is passing a fortnight in Salem, Miss Florence Cartwright entertained informally at luncheon on Thursday. Covers were laid for six around an attractively appointed table, centered with roses and delphinium.

The Thursday Kensington club held a picnic Friday evening at the playgrounds. The members remained later for the band concert and evening program. Those enjoying the evening were Mr. and Mrs. F. Annunson, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Doughton, Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Kafoury, Dr. and Mrs. Henry Moore, Mrs. Frank Powers, Mrs. W. J. Thompson, Mrs. Charles Wilson, Mrs. Herbert Hauser and Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Melson.

Miss Dorothy Green of Lincoln,

Neb., was a guest of Miss Marlon Wyman Friday evening. Both went to Portland early Saturday and joined the Nebraska delegation at the Business and Professional Woman's club on the Columbia River highway trip yesterday.

Miss Green is attending summer sessions of the University of Oregon at Eugene this year. Miss Wyman came to Salem from Lincoln, Neb., last January.

Miss Jennie Remington of Salem was married Wednesday evening to Charles Parks of Anaheim, Cal. Rev. R. L. Putnam officiated. Relatives and friends were present for the marriage service.

Mrs. Curtis Cole of Astoria and her little son Howard, and daughter Erma, have been guests of Mrs. Cole's aunt, Miss Christine M. Harold. They are now visiting with Mrs. Cole's father, G. F. Harold in Stayton.

Mrs. Amos Strong left yesterday for the coast where she will spend some time.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Roberts and Mrs. Fritz Slade of Portland went to the seashore yesterday where they will spend some time.

The Rev. and Mrs. U. H. Gibbs of Estacada, Or., are Sunday guests of the Rev. and Mrs. H. D. Chambers. Mr. Gibbs is the owner and publisher of the Eastern Clackamas News at Estacada.

Miss Myla and Miss Inez Chambers are sending the week-end with their parents, Rev. and Mrs. H. D. Chambers.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Adams and daughter Alice are the house guests of Mrs. Ben P. Taylor, 1437 Center street. Miss Alice is a talented young musician. It will be remembered that they spent the winter in southern California for their daughter's health. She has entirely recovered her eyesight, and will be able to continue her studies this fall. They are going to buy a home and locate in the Capital City once again.

Miss Marjorie Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben P. Taylor, 1437 Center street, had quite a serious accident as a roman candle exploded in her hand Fourth of July evening. The hand is now healing rapidly.

The home of Mrs. L. E. Marrs was the scene of a happy family reunion July 12, the occasion being Mrs. Marrs' 85th birthday anniversary. Twenty-six relatives were present, a brother, W. H. H. Wade of Estacada, a son Robert Curran, his wife and daughter of Estacada, a daughter-in-law, Mrs. William Curran of Corvallis, five daughters, Mrs. Jennie Lewellin of The Dalles and daughter, Mrs. F. Pownder, husband and three children of Multnomah, Mrs. Sarah Spurlin of Harrisburg and son Floyd, wife and two daughters of Corvallis, Mrs. Lou Hale and husband of Estacada, Mrs. Frances Collins, husband and so of Spokane, Ellen Curran of Salem, and a nephew, George Curran and wife of Gresham. At noon a dinner was served on the veranda.

Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Eley were hosts Wednesday night for their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Mynatt of Long Beach, Cal., who were here for a short time. Mr. and Mrs. Mynatt are on their way to Vancouver where they will visit relatives. They plan to take in other points of interest in the northwest.

Guests for the informal affair included Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Scott and son Russel, and daughter Patricia, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Dennisson, Mrs. J. Munson, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Hinderman, Mr. and Mrs. T. Brown, Margaret Munson and Lester Brown. Refreshments were served.

The Salem girls in the Schubert octet, which appeared last week on the program Wednesday at the Gladstone chautauqua, has been asked to appear again before the summer programs close. The octet was asked to sing again "The Little Grey Dove," a quartet number with high soprano obligato by Flora Fletcher. The complete "Venezia Cycle," the most difficult number on the program, was well interpreted, the voices blending perfectly.

The old favorite, "Kentucky Babe," with its strumming accompaniment done by Grace Fawk, and the "Swiss Yodel Song" met with much favor. The piano solo by Bertha Vick, and the vocal duets by Hilda and Della Amster, were well received. Other members of the group are Gladys Stevenson, Ruth Bedford, Ruth Reed, and Myrtle Knowland. Miss Minnetta Magars is director.

One of the first of a series of "open houses" was held yesterday afternoon and evening at the Gilbert Art studio. Included in the exhibit were numerous articles of interest from an intrinsic point of view, as well as those which were valuable from the fact that they represented family heirlooms. Several pieces of walnut, made up in new ways, or old ones fixed up for present-day needs, were displayed. Not the least of these was a black walnut mirror frame belonging to Mrs. M. S. Boyce of Corvallis, which was part of an old table.

A light screen made from an old-fashioned foot stool which was 70 years old was one of the treasured pieces brought in for the exhibit by Miss Teresa D'Arcy.

Two pairs of book-ends, made of black walnut and belonging to Mrs. F. W. Seeley, were among the articles displayed. The walnut in the book-ends came across the plains. Mrs. S. M. Endicott's fire place screen, also made at the shop, was displayed.

A number of original paintings belonging to Mrs. T. A. Livesley were also shown. These included works of Jane Peterson, Van Vreeland and De Vannes.

A water color painting of Dorothy Fitchert, who has been with Blanch White of Salem at a Los Angeles art school for two years, was also exhibited. Miss White is a daughter of D. A. White, and with Miss Fitchert has just returned here.

A number of paintings by Mr. Copson, who is visiting with his son, Professor Copson, in Corvallis, were shown in a room of the studio. Mr. Copson temporarily took Professor McLouth's class in sketching, following the death of Professor McLouth early this year.
