ANGELS VICTORS IN SEAL SERIES

Los Angeles Wins Four Out of Five Games From San Francisco

LOS ANGELES, July 21.—Los Angeles clinched the series with San Francisco today, taking a hard hitting contest 9 to 7, making the series count four to one in favor of the Angels. Los Angeles made sure of victory in the third inning by scoring three runs on a homer by Wally Hood, centerfielder, a double, an error and a single. Kelly, Seal, centerfielder, had a good day at the plate, hitting a double and three singles in five times up.

SACRAMENTO, July 21.—With Mollwitz, star first sacker, out of the lineup and the team shifted about to compensate the loss, the Solons played like a lot of school boys against the Siwash here today. Killefer's tribe collected their second straight victory by a score of 16 to 4. Pick's cohorts seemed badly demoralized and ordinarily easy chances treked by the infielders for base hits, while the entire local forces seemed peepers on the offense.

OAKLAND, July 21.—Kremer not only outpitched Foster, former Boston Red Sox player, in a pitchers' duel here today, but won his own game for Oakland from Vernon by hitting a home run in the ninth inning for the winning tally. He was the first man up in that inning. The score was 4 to 3. D. Murphy, Vernon catcher, was banished by Umpire Beckey in the seventh inning for disputing balls and strikes.

TENDLER HAS EDGE OVER LEONARD IS YOUNGER, TALLER AND HEAVIER RECORD CROWD TO WITNESS FIGHT

NEW YORK, July 21.—Lew Tendler, Philadelphia challenger for Benny Leonard's lightweight title will have advantages in age, height and reach when the pair step into the ring Monday night at the Yankee stadium. Tendler is three years younger, 1 1/4 inches taller and has a margin of one inch in reach. Measurements of the boxers, taken today follow:

LEONARD—		—TENDLER
27	Age	24
134	Weight	134 1/2

NEW YORK, July 21.—(By the Associated Press)—One of the most spectacular battles on record for the world's lightweight championship is expected Monday night at the Yankee stadium when Benny Leonard of New York, the title-holder, defends his crown in a 15-round match with Lew Tendler, Philadelphia southpaw.

Leonard, in the opinion of a majority of critics, will enter the ring a favorite to retain his laurels, but those those who recalled the slashing fight this pair staged just a year ago at Boyle's Thirty Acres believe the hard hitting Quaker City southpaw will extend the champion to the limit. Leonard emerged a victor, according to ringside opinion, in their last encounter, but saved the verdict only by a sensational rally after Tendler had him wobbling in the eighth round.

Close to 80,000 may witness the title battle, Promoter Jimmy Johnston declared today, basing his estimate on an advance sale that established a new record for a light-weight encounter. Receipts were already beyond the $350,000 mark, he said, with indications that by Monday night more than $500,000 would be taken in. The seating capacity of the stadium is 75,000.

Both boxers were pronounced to be in perfect condition today when they wound up their training camps, the champion at Tannersville, N.Y., in the Catskills and the challenger at Danco, N.J. Both are below weight now, it was said, Leonard scaling 134, a pound under the limit. The title-holder will rest up tomorrow and Monday in New York while Tendler will spend the interval before the fight in Philadelphia.

NEW YORK WINS FROM ST. LOUIS

Giants Raise World Championship Flag and National League Pennant

NEW YORK, July 21.—(National)—The Giants raised their 1922 world's championship flag and 1922 National league pennant here today and celebrated the occasion with a 14 to 7 victory over the St. Louis club. The Giants drove out 19 hits, Groh starting with two doubles and three singles in five times up. The game was preceded by a parade to centerfield in which the two clubs, Commissioner of Baseball Landis and John Heydler, president of the National league, participated.

Yale-Harvard Track Team Defeated By Englishmen

WEMBLEY STADIUM, London, July 21.—(By the Associated Press.)—The track and field stars of Oxford and Cambridge universities defeated the visiting Yale-Harvard team this afternoon by 6 1/2 to 5 1/2 points before a crowd of about 6,000 persons, who seemed utterly swallowed up by the vast concrete expanses of the great Wembley stadium.
Full half the credit for the British victory must go to the Cambridge captain, Abrahams, who won first place in three of the events—100-yard dash, the 220-yard dash, and the broad jump—and all by goodly margins.
