SILVERTON LOSES TO MR. PARKER

Stage Line Operator Not Required to Comply With Terminal Ordinance

J. W. Barker, operator of a Salem-Silverton stage, may continue discharging passengers from his vehicle upon private property and not be compelled to take out a license for a stage terminal as demanded by a Silverton city ordinance, according to a decree handed down by Judge George G. Bingham, who also adjudged the ordinance to be void and that the city of Silverton is perpetually enjoined from carrying on any prosecution of any charges arising under the ordinance so far as it concerns the failure or refusal of the plaintiff to accept the conditions imposed therein. Fred A. Williams was Parker's attorney.

During the hearing of the case it was brought out that the ordinance was passed by the city council of Silverton for the purpose of compelling the plaintiff to obtain private property on which to maintain a terminal for his stages.

When the city council served notice upon Parker that failure to take out a license for a stage terminal as provided in the ordinance, he, his agents and employees would be arrested and prosecuted for a violation of the ordinance.

In addition to winning his suit, Parker was awarded all costs and disbursements expended in bringing his case before the court.

The complaint was filed by Parker against the city of Silverton, L. C. Eastman, mayor; William Service, recorder; Archie Thomas, marshal and street superintendent.

LEAGUE NOT PEACE MAKER

Only Gospel of Jesus Can Bring Desired Condition, Say Baptists

STOCKHOLM, July 24.—Although favoring the League of Nations as a vital step in the prevention of war, that day of universal peace dreamed of by the Bible prophets will not come until the gospel of Jesus Christ has been proclaimed to all the world and men have been made new creatures through its regenerative power, Dr. George W. Truett, of Dallas, Texas, declared in the course of the official congress sermon which he delivered. Dr. Truett is considered one of the foremost pulpit orators of the Baptist faith.

After reciting the troublous times through which the world has passed since the last previous session of the Alliance was held in Philadelphia in 1911, and how that statesmen, economists and philosophers had sought in vain to find a solution of the world's difficulties, Dr. Truett said the Baptists had an adequate message for mankind at this hour in the Gospel of Christ and declared that if the Baptists and other Christians of the world would but devote their energies and resources to the propagation of the gospel the time would soon come when the name of Christ would be proclaimed in every dialect on the globe.

Enduring Peace Awaits
Dr. Truett said in part:
"We long for enduring peace and for wars to cease unto the ends of the earth. It is most inspiring to think of that prophetic day when men shall beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks, and when nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more. But when did the prophet say such halcyon days would come? Not when enemies are crushed on the battlefield, but when all nations shall walk in God's paths. The most vital matter therefore in the world is for Christ's friends to lay their every power under tribute to preach Christ's gospel to every creature and to call all nations to walk in His path. Our work shall never be done until at the name of Jesus every knee shall bow and every tongue confess that He is Lord to the glory of God the Father. We must rest not and halt not until we write His name large across the sky of the whole world, and make His voice the deep undertone of all human life, and supply His principles to the solution of every problem in the world. When will Pentecost be repeated? It will be repeated when Christ's people undertake Pentecostal tasks in the old-time Pentecostal power.

New Gospel Not Needed
"We need no new gospel to win the world. The way of the cross is ever the way of triumph both for Christ and for His people. The tragedy of the world is not poor wages, nor bad legislation, nor ignorance, nor poverty. The supreme tragedy of the world is sin. There is only one adequate remedy for sin and that remedy is found in the cross of Christ. That cross is the sign manual in the redemption of mankind. It is the central fact toward which all subsequent history converges, with its crimson tides diverging. All the light of sacred story gathers about that cross. Redemption is there and not elsewhere. The salvation of men is not to be found in creeds and ceremonies and rituals and sacraments and forms of righteousness which men perform, but it is to be found in Christ, the one mediator between God and man. Let Christianity be reduced to a mere ethic and you would immediately fling away its redeeming power. All such gospels are utterly bankrupt of the power necessary to regenerate and redeem a sinful world.

"The one hope of the world lies in the reign of Christ. There are many occasions of division and rivalry among the nations. We do not disparage the work of the diplomats and statesmen, but the redemption of the world does not lie in that direction. The world's hope lies in the saviorhood and lordship of Christ. He is not going to divide the world with Mohammedanism and Buddhism and Confucianism or any other ism that opposes Christ. His dominion shall extend over every acre of the earth.

Power May Be Proved
"The crowning glory of Christ's gospel is that it may be fully tested and proved in the crucible of human experience. Christ submits himself to the scientific test of demonstration by experiment. Men may call on Mohammed or Confucius or Buddha and they will get no answer. Let them call upon Christ and they will be forgiven of sin and clothed with moral reinforcement for the battles and burdens of life. Destructive criticism can not finally shake our confidence in the Bible, because in that God-given book we find revealed our own experience. It is God's mirror reflecting the spiritual image of every image of every one who looks into it.

"With our more than 11 million Baptists we may quickly fill the earth with the knowledge of Christ if we will only be faithful to him. The world can be saved only by the Gospel of Christ. Society is to be transformed by transforming its individual units. It is not a new system of government that mankind needs, nor a new scheme for the distribution of wealth, nor a new social organization. It is the new birth men need, and then all secondary needs will follow in proper perspective and proportion.

Stupendous Days Ahead
"Stupendous days and demands now confront us. Will we tread the path of the cross, adorning all selfish ease and giving out best for Him? It is an hour for our rededication as preachers to the faithful preaching of this dynamic and divine Gospel. It is an hour when parents should bring their children with delight and joyfully give them to His service. It is an hour when every talent of learning, of wealth, of piety, of prayer should be laid on the altar for the winning of the world to Christ. The open door of the occupation for Christ. Facilities a thousand fold multiplied match the thousand fold opportunities. Autocracy must go, both in church and in state. Sacramentalism and sacerdotalism must likewise go—they are the grave clothes of a moribund and decadent faith. The day of the inalienable rights and worth of the individual is everywhere coming to the fore. Christ's people are to cast up the highway for the spread of His gospel everywhere. If they will only be true to their privileges and resources, the name of Jesus will soon be echoed in every dialect under heaven."

TRY SULPHUR ON AN ECZEMA SKIN

Costs Little and Overcomes the Trouble Almost Over Night

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying Mentho-Sulphur, declares a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation instantly brings ease from skin irritation, soothes and heals the eczema, right up and leaves the skin clear and smooth.

It seldom fails to relieve the torment without delay. Sufferers from skin trouble should obtain a small jar of Rowles Mentho-Sulphur from any good drugist and use it like cold cream.—Adv.

OREGON LEADS IN EDUCATION

More of School Population Attends School Than in Any Other State

Oregon tops all other states in the union in the percentage of its school population that actually attends school, according to a statement received by J. A. Churchill, state superintendent of schools, from John J. Tigert, federal commissioner of education. The percentage of attendance is 76, relating to all persons between the ages of 5 and 18.

"Utah is second with 72.6 per cent," continues the statement; "California third with 70.8 per cent; Wyoming fourth with 70.7 per cent; Idaho fifth with 69.6 per cent; Nevada sixth with 68.9 per cent, and Washington comes seventh with 68.3 per cent. The remaining states rank in the following order:

"Iowa, Nebraska, Kansas, Montana, Colorado, North Dakota, Tennessee, Maine, Indiana, Minnesota, Connecticut, New Jersey, Missouri, Illinois, Florida, Ohio, Michigan, Vermont, Massachusetts, West Virginia, South Carolina, Arkansas, New York, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, Oklahoma, South Dakota, New Mexico, Wisconsin, Arizona, New Hampshire, Texas, Delaware, Rhode Island, Virginia, Georgia, Kentucky, Maryland, Alabama, Louisiana and Mississippi.

"The average per cent of school population of the United States in daily attendance is 82.3 per cent."

The high standards of teaching maintained in the schools of the state and the enforcement of the compulsory education law are given by Superintendent Churchill as the reasons for Oregon's excellent rank in education.

YMCA Boys Camp Will Be One of Best Ever Held

The YMCA boys' camp is going to be one of the best ever held, according to A. E. Yount, interstate secretary at Portland. A good number of local boys have already signed up. The camp this year will be held in the heart of the Coast range mountains, on the Trask river, about 15 miles from Tillamook, at the junction of the north and south forks of the river, where there are beautiful mountain streams and plenty of trout and a fine swimming hole. The camp is surrounded on all sides by rugged mountains heavily wooded, and it is in a wild game country with trails leading back to many places of interest.

There will be all kinds of recreation—baseball games, swimming and hikes. Classes will also be given in first aid, photography and drawing. The parents will not need to worry about their boys, as the supervision will be of the very best. The camp physician will be in attendance all the time. A fine chef has been secured and plenty of good food has been provided, and the water will be obtained from a clear mountain stream near the camp. The boys will leave Salem August 1.

A drink of moonshine will not put sunshine in your soul.

GREATEST HAY CROP THIS YEAR

Yield Is Bumper One, Says Dealer, But Discoloration Unfortunate

The greatest hay crop in the history of the Willamette valley at least to his own personal knowledge, is growing here this year, according to Harley O. White, of the D. A. White & Sons company of Salem. Mr. White has just returned from a long tour, including part of the valley and the Pacific coast sections, including the Tillamook district.

The Tillamook dairy farmers bought close to 3000 cars of hay last year, for their cattle, beyond what they produced on their own farms. They will have more of their own hay this year, but Mr. White estimates that they will need at least 2,000 cars for the winter 1923-24. That's a lot of hay, though it is scattered over a considerable territory, and through most of the year.

Prices have not been definitely declared for the season. Vetch and grain hay is expected to be worth about $14 a ton in the valley, clover up to $15 and oats and heat hay about $13 to $14. This is the price paid the producer, the retail price being higher, hay consumption of the Tillamook Mr. White estimates that the coast dairy country could be increased 300 to 400 per cent, if a more reliable and satisfactory hay supply could be secured. The building of the Natron cut-off, opening the whole vast irrigated alfalfa section of central Oregon to the coast dairymen, might easily be the one thing needed for the dairy expansion as indicated. The railroad program proposed by the Oregon public service commission, 350 miles in all, covering most of central Oregon, would open several hundred thousand acres of magnificent alfalfa land to the coast dairymen, and to whatever other stock feeding needs might arise. Much of this alfalfa would without doubt be fed to beef cattle at home, but the opening of the roads would supply the dairy interests of the coast and even of the Willamette valley with excellent hay at a better price than ever before known.

The valley hay cut thus far in the season is generally somewhat discolored, because of the copious rains that have fallen during the haying season. The hay will be of good feeding value, but it will not top the market because of its color. The second crop hay and the grain hay still uncut will have a chance to be as bright as needed if the weather clears up.
