

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Theaters To Close— Both the Oregon and Liberty playhouses will be closed this afternoon, for President Harding memorial. There will be no 2 o'clock opening, the houses remaining dark until 5 o'clock; then they will run continuously until the last show hour of the day.

Special Offering— Mens' suits $19.50. Good patterns. Conservative styles. See our windows. A. A. Clothing Co., Masonic Temple.—Adv.

Picture on Exhibit— "The Great Blue Heron," painted by R. Bruce Horstal, an Oregon artist specializing in bird life, is to be on exhibit at Miller's store for a few days. It has been purchased by the Salem library through contributions of Salem residents. Monroe Gilbert of the Gilbert Art Studio donated the frame which has just been completed. The picture has not been entirely paid for and interested friends are being requested to leave contributions toward the purchase price at the library. Mr. Horstal deducted $50 from the original purchase price when the library expressed a desire for the picture.

Company Desirable— Marlon Looney of Jefferson was in Salem yesterday. He has just returned from California, having driven down with Mrs. Looney and their small daughter. Mrs. Looney and her daughter remained in California and Mr. Looney made the return trip alone. He says the trip is far from desirable if taken alone. Mrs. Looney is visiting in Long Beach and will be there until the first of the year.

City and Farm Loans— Lowest rates. J. C. Seigmund.—Adv.

Petitions For Guardian— That either C. G. Schram or some other suitable person should be appointed guardian of Mrs. Jennie Howard was set forth in a petition filed in the county clerk's office yesterday by G. F. Hurd, G. T. Spencer and C. C. Morris, appraisers of the estate, which has a probable valuation of $1200 in real property in Salem.

Lions Postpone Meeting— The Friday luncheon of the Salem Lions club will not be held today, having been postponed out of respect to President Harding. The decision was reached at a meeting yesterday of the board of directors.

Traffic Held Up— Street car traffic was held up for more than half an hour yesterday.

according to the weekly report of the accident commission. They were: George W. Otey, Boyd, Or., elevator manager; Elton E. Henningsen, Clatskanie, laborer; Henry Johnson, Clatskanie, brakeman; Fred Daniels, Wendling, logger. Of the total number of accidents reported, 735 were subject to the provisions of the workmen's compensation act, 49 were from firms and corporations that have not elected to come under the act, and six were from public utility corporations not subject to the act.

Will Suspend Activity— Activity at all the state institutions will be suspended today between the hours of 11 and 2, in memory of President Warren G. Harding. State offices in the capitol will be closed throughout the day.

Oregon Act Endorsed— An act of the Oregon legislature at the 1923 session standardizing fire hose couplings has been endorsed by the Pacific Coast Fire Chiefs' association, now in session at Wallace, Idaho, according to a telegram received by Will H. Moore, state fire marshal, from G. W. Stokes, investigator for the department, who is attending the convention.

Hawkins & Roberts— City loans; lowest rates.—Adv.

Bean Files Application— L. E. Bean, Eugene attorney, has applied to the public service commission, in behalf of the Siuslaw Boom company for an extension of two years on the franchise of that company on the Siuslaw river. The franchise already has been held for two years, but the application states that there is a considerable amount of improvement work yet to be done.

Fire Loss Shown— Fire losses in Oregon for the month of July totaled $352,835, exclusive of losses in Portland, according to the monthly statement of Will H. Moore, state fire marshal. The losses of $10,000 or more were: Arlington, wheat, $12,000; Arlington, one block in the business district, $75,000; Chiloquin, public garage, $22,000; Klamath Falls, mill, $25,000; Oregon City, Moose hall and garage, $10,000; St. Helens, mill, $100,000; Wasco county, wheat, $21,250.

Legal Blanks— Get them at The Statesman office. Catalog on application.—Adv.

Will Inspect Projects— To inspect the Snow creek reclamation project near Bend and other projects in eastern Oregon, the state irrigation and drainage securities commission will leave here tonight. On August 29 the commission will again leave Salem for Medford. On the way south the Eagle Point irrigation district will be inspected. On August 30 the officials will go to Klamath Falls, and on the day following will look over a number of districts around that place, including the Malin, Horse Fly, Shaasta View and Pine Grove districts, and on the return trip the Talent district will be inspected.

Card of Thanks— We wish to thank our friends for the kind sympathy and help during the illness and death of our beloved husband and father. Also for the beautiful floral offerings. Mrs. Chas. Krefl and family.—Adv.

Does This Interest You?— If you are looking for a job, or if you need to employ help, use the city free employment bureau at the YMCA.—Adv.

Federation May Protest— A protest to the city council against the erection of a one-story building at Court and Liberty streets will likely be made tonight at the meeting of the Salem Federation of clubs. The protest if made will be sent to the committee on public buildings. The building under consideration is the one which George Waters and Joseph Adolph plan to erect on the spot recently cleared of several smaller buildings. It was planned to build a two story building at first but these plans were changed because of the excessive cost, it was said.

G. W. Eyre III— George W. Eyre, president of the Willamette Valley Flax association, is reported quite ill at his home, 1973 Mill street. Mr. Eyre was one of the pioneers in the boys' and girls' club projects in Marion county. He is a pioneer and leader in the revival and development of the flax industry, and he has always led in the cause of better farming and more business-like farming methods.

Flowers Contributed— The Mothers' Class of the First Methodist church has been making weekly contributions of flowers to the Salem hospitals during the present summer. Thursday is the regular flower day, and the flowers for this week numbered more than a score of offerings, all the way from a single corsage bouquet to a huge basketful of beautiful blossoms. The flowers were distributed to the hospitals, with the best wishes of the busy but thoughtful donors.

Dance— Armory, 9 p. m. Saturday, August 11, 1923, Given by STROLLER'S SEVEN PIECE ORCHSTRA Featuring Joe Pardee. $1.10. Ladies free.—Adv.

Brotherhood to Meet— The regular August session of the Baptist Brotherhood is to be held at the First Baptist church parlors next Thursday evening, August 14. A fuller announcement of the program is to be issued later. The sessions are usually well attended, the dining tables being crowded and the program being very much worth while. Dinner is served at 6:30 o'clock.

Tuel Makes Escape— John Tuel, former Salem boy, has escaped from Kelly Butte, near Portland, where he was serving a sentence for implication in a store robbery. Tuel has a prison record extending back seven years when he was sentenced for a trivial offense. He escaped several times, was out on parole in Salem one year, forged a check during that time and was returned to the penitentiary. He was released just before his time expired to get in bad again near Portland.

Accidents Are Reported— Accidents yesterday by Sam Bush, who stated he was driving his truck north on the Fairgrounds road when he hit the car belonging to Dr. H. C. Epley as the latter turned into a service station on Highland. Slight damage was done. R. G. Lacy, 1890 State street, collided with J. E. Shaveland, 2105 North Front street, at the intersection of Front and Commercial streets. A front wheel on the Lacy machine was broken.

Executor Makes Reply— T. K. Ford, executor of the estate of James Neil, filed his reply to the objection to his final accounting of the state made by Michael O'Neill.

Peaches Coming In— What are believed to be the first Crawford peaches to be grown and delivered in Salem this season will be here today from the Beaver Island orchards north of Salem. They are said to be large and fine. The main harvest, however, will not begin until next week, when there should be many of these fine peaches ripe enough for picking and canning. A price of about $2 a bushel for good peaches, delivered, is said by the growers to be about the probable figure for this year's crop. The crop is not above normal; it will probably be little if any heavier than last year's yield, and they say that $2 a bushel is only a fair living for the grower.

McArthur Will Speak— Ex-Congressman C. N. McArthur, who is spending the week on his farm at Rickreall, will speak at the Harding memorial exercises at the Isis theater at Independence at 10:30 a. m. today and at 3 p. m. will be the principal speaker on the Monmouth normal school memorial program.

Five-Room Flat— Modern, fully furnished, at 666 Ferry St. Ground floor. $45 a month. Call at Statesman business office or phone 23.—Adv.

Hearing Date Set— Monday, September 17, will be the time for final hearing to the final accounting of the estate of Laura Woodhouse, to be made by W. S. Woodhouse, administrator. Woodhouse filed his accounting Thursday and the date was set by Judge Bushey.

Visit From Seattle— Mr. and Mrs. Harry Singleton of Seattle arrived last night for a visit with friends in Salem. Mr. Singleton formerly lived in Salem and worked at the state house. They are camped at the Salem auto park.

New Planos for Rent— H. L. Stiff Furniture Co.—Adv.

Murray Estate Appraised— The estate of Leo Murray has an approximate valuation of $7,480.50, according to the estimate filed Thursday by Perry Mosler, J. N. Van Arman and T. M. Dunnagan, appraisers. Ida Peyree is administratrix of the estate.

YMCA BOYS ARE HAPPY OUTFIT

Youths Enjoying Outing on Trask River Report Multiplied Good Time

If ever there was a happy and busy outfit, it is the YMCA boys' camp out on Trask river in Tillamook county. The 55 boys who went over from Marion county under the command of "Bob" Boardman and his able lieutenants, are too busy to be homesick, to write letters to the home folks, to do anything at all but just be busy and enjoy themselves. Two of the Salem lads, however, have been detailed to report to the home people through the Statesman, and they have jotted down some of their random thoughts in this rather pungent fashion:

"Dear Mr. Lisle: The sun is shining brightly today. We just came from the swimming hole, and we have a dandy diving board and tower. The kids cover themselves over with sand, and lie on the beach. Some of the kids are so tanned that they look like real cannibals.

"We had a big dog fight last night; all the tents go against each other. Ours is in the lead so far. I guess we are the biggest dogs.

"Ed Soco and Whitehouse went on a trip yesterday and did not get back until today. They looked for a place for an over-night hike, and we thought they were lost, but they were just having a good time.

"Ceil Nist is going to have charge of the campfire, and tell us all about West Point, tonight. He graduated from there this

Visiting at Roseburg— Miss Bishop and wife will motor to Roseburg today for a week-end visit with Mrs. Bishop's brother, R. R. Davidson, a former Salem boy, but who now lives on a farm south of the Douglas county shire town. They will be accompanied by Mrs. A. V. Davidson of Salem.

At Portland Hospital— Carl W. Emmons, who graduated from the Portland medical school last June, is doing intern duty at the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland. He is a son of W. W. Emmons of the Salem Woolen Mills store.

Store Will Close— As a mark of respect to the memory of President Harding and complying with the request of our Mayor, this store will be closed today, during the hours 12 to 2. The Ace, Masonic Temple.—Adv.

Culbertson Resigns— J. S. Culbertson, deputy state prohibition enforcement officer, has tendered his resignation to George Cleaver, state officer. Criticism of alleged conduct in making and arrest at St. Paul, preceded the resignation.

Camp Grounds Arrivals— Arrivals last night at the Salem auto park were Peter Gagnor, Flint, Mich.; H. J. Singleton, Seattle; G. C. Sprague, Freewater; Fred Linne, Seattle; P. W. McDonald, Piedmont, Ca.; L. C. Johnson, O. F. Graham, Long Beach, Cal.; L. G. Leago, Seattle; Nellie M. Corrigan, Kansas City; Charles Jacobsness, Astoria; A. Bernth, Seattle; Herbert Hub, Marion, S. D.; A. F. Tribling, Vancornelle, Cal.; C. J. Fell, Burbank, Cal.; W. H. Lynn, Long Beach; J. D. Hill, Boise; G. H. Wilbur Milton, George A. Willey, Nampa; C. Cooley, Oakland; C. E. Morgan, Wainell, Cal.; B. Ginsberg, Calgary, Alta.; O. B. Kellog, Seattle; C. T. Walker, Portland; N. Kemper, Long Beach; F. E. Davis, Oakland; F. W. Page, Inglewood, Cal.; Thos. Borden, Everett; H. A. Marcy, Los Angeles; E. Yahr, Portland.

PERSONAL
U. G. Boyer, county clerk, left for Portland yesterday. He expects to return to Salem this evening.
Earl Peary of the Oregon Growers was in Sheridan yesterday.
J. E. Law of the U. G. Shipley company returned last night from a two week vacation trip to Seaview, Wash.
Allan H. Hofchkin, a real estate dealer from Dallas, was in Salem yesterday on business.
Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Glover are spending several weeks at Cascadia.
Oscar Steelhammer, county assessor, went to Mt. Angel yesterday returning late in the afternoon.
Miss Flora Case, city librarian, is spending her vacation in Alaska having taken the trip to Anchorage. Miss Helen Robe is in charge of the library during her absence.
Sam A. Koser, secretary of state, has returned from a trip to the coast.
E. C. Clanton, former master fish warden of Oregon, was in Salem yesterday.
Porter J. Neff, attorney of Medford, was a Salem visitor yesterday.

year. Sunday Bob Boardman led a memorial service in memory of President Harding. Bob knew him for years back in Ohio.

"Yesterday we took a hike to the source of Trask river. We had a swell time, and caught a lot of fish.

"Our baseball team, the "Yes, We Have No Bananas," defeated the "Cats' Ankles" for the championship today. I knocked the ball into a big tree in the left field and it stayed there, but Chuck Hagemann shinned up it so fast that he robbed me of a home run. "Dumbell" Hulbert is a good ball player until Bob starts to razz him and Hulbert starts to talk back and promptly misses the ball and strikes out.

"We may hike over to the coast before we leave. Some of the kids have never seen the ocean, and they want to go there if they can.

"One of the boys has a pet rabbit, and called it Charlie Chaplin; but it was a lady rabbit, so he changed and called it Agnes, after a girl in one of the towns near Salem. Some girl, eh? I'll say so—yes no!

"Excuse me for writing so seldom, but we have so much to do; I don't have much spare time. "Yours truly,

"—IVAN WHITE."
"Dear Mr. Editor: It's pretty hard for me to write, as I ate 10 warm pancakes for breakfast and I feel tired. But Mr. Yount says I've got to write or he'll make me help cut some wood, so here goes. "Bob Eyre is getting to be the champion wrestler among the small kids in camp. I'll bet he'll be like his uncle, Dave Eyre, who is some handball player.

"Ed Soco leads the singing, out of the Kiwanis song book. I guess it makes Bob Boardman jealous, as he is a Rotarian and kids Ed about the songs.

"Ralph Sipperell is the champion fish-catcher, and he caught a whopper last night. The kids say he talks to the fish and uses mentholatum to grease the hook. Ed Cross is a funny kid; he don't eat any meat, and his dad is a meat man, too. Chuck Hagemann is the star baseball catcher on all the teams. He hit a long one out into the field the other day and hit a cow.

"We have classes in photography and first aid. Harvey Brock and Ceil Nist have charge of the small kids' tents. They have their hands full, too. Us big kids have for leader Wallace Griffith, and he makes us toe the mark. Morgan Woodruff is the champion gum-chewer of camp; he chews gum and the fat all the time.

"Our cook is the best one I ever ate after. You ought to see what he has to eat. I'm afraid I'll get the gout like Ike White.

"Frank Durbin and Mrs. Durbin were out see Ed Cross the other day, and they asked him how he liked it. He said, "I'd rather go campin' than be at home; the only thing is that I gotta make up my own bunk." We are going on a big overnight hike, soon. Must close.

The Great Strength of MILESTONE HOLLOW TILE IS YOUR SILENT SERVANT

In the design of a home or building you must provide for a combination of dead, live, snow, and wind load with a protecting factor of safety.

MILESTONE masonry assures you of the protecting strength necessary to meet these forces with the lowest maintenance by a greater masonry efficiency than other materials.

The structural arch in each tile supplies a sturdy wall which successfully resists the crushing forces of impact and bearing, reducing wear and tear to an insignificant figure.

A smaller factor of safety than offered by MILESTONE masonry is not the safest and most economical construction.
