YMCA Boys on Trask River
Take Long Hike; Mountain Lions Near

The dignified person had better forget it when he goes around a bunch of live kids such as the YMCA boy campers over at Trask river. Their special correspondent takes a shot at even the supreme court of Oregon, in this his latest letter; the judicial ermine is no protection to the judicial fisherman. The boys have been getting bear to nature's heart, and perilously near to nature's claws and appetite, out in the lion country. They have been out among the mountain lions and the bears and the tall timber, and they are sophisticated a-plenty. Here is what their special correspondent says in his latest letter:

"Editor Statesman: We just got back from an overnight hike. Say, it was a long one. We hiked 12 miles, they said, to the summit, and it was uphill all the way. We had 55 in the party. I never went so far on foot at a time in my life. It was over an old stage road, abandoned 25 years ago. The Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company have a pole line over the same trail.

"It used to be a famous stage line, and an old timer here says the stage was held up every now and then by bandits who were in the country. Some of the places we climbed were almost straight up. We saw grouse, rabbits, and the tracks of deer and cougars. We saw bear tracks, deer tracks and cougar tracks, side by side. It must have been that the cougar was following the deer. They say the reason there are so few deer here is that the cougars kill them off.

"We got to the fire ranger's cabin for the night, and while waiting for supper the boys all went to the top of the mountain. At the fire patrol we could see for miles and miles over ranges of hills and mountains. It was a great sight. The station is equipped with range finders and telephones for use in case of fire. This country was all burned off about 50 years ago, and there are tall skeletons of great trees still standing. They look like big ghosts.

"Each boy carried two blankets and some chow and food. It became quite heavy, but coming home we didn't have to carry much, as we ate all the grub and it was down hill nearly all the way coming back.

"You ought to see us eat! One fellow eats so much he gets down on a log and rolls after every meal. Bob Boardman and Mr. Yount stayed up nearly all night keeping the fire going. We heard some wild animal yelling and crying in the timber for over an hour. It was a mountain lion, and it made the shivers run down your back. Bill Sipperel is going around saying it was no wild animal, but Chuck Hagemann snoring and talking in his sleep, from eating too much hot biscuit and jelly.

"Ikey White is happy, as he got another letter from his girl. Harvey Brock says it was no letter, but a dun from the Spa. Frank Myer's place, to come and pay for the chocolate sundae he got for his girl in Salem. I'll bet Jack Winter's got her now.

"We have Bible examination Sunday morning. Every one has to take the test, so he gets a diploma if he passes. Tyler, a Willamette student, has charge of the Sunday morning church, and Mr. Yount the evening church.

"We have a big field meet this afternoon. There will be races of all kinds. All the fellows have still got aches from the long hike, but everybody is happy and full of pep. I'll say so! We saw Judge Harris fishing up here the other day. If he goes around telling fish stories at Anderson & Brown's, and at Hauser's, just tell 'em he hadn't caught any fish a-tall when we saw him.

"Good-bye.

—JACK HARBISON.

You needn't be "raggle-taggle gypsies" to think of life being under open skies, beside a brook with the scent of mountain-pine all about. Better still pack off in your motor—have the summer of your life—traveling comfortably and enjoyably—with the needful "Red Crown" in your tank. If you have gypsy blood, gratify it! And remember—for long, economical mileage, and for powerful work in the mountains and elsewhere—it's "Red Crown" for the experienced motorist.

Knockout Comes in Second
Canto to Scheduled Eight
Round Bout

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 13.—Luis Angel Firpo, South American heavyweight, knocked out Charley Winert of Newark, N. J., in the second round of an eight-round no decision match tonight in the National league ball park.

Round one.—Winert brought blood to Firpo's nose with straight lefts and the South American gave way, clinching as they fell into the ropes. Firpo launched two heavy right swings to the body and followed with right to head and one to body without damage. They were both slightly winded when the bell rang.

Round two.—Firpo rushed wildly at Winert and they clinched. Firpo landed right to the body. Winert jabbed lightly. Winert uppercut to the jaw. Firpo landed right and they clinched. Firpo uppercut and staggered Winert, knocking him down for the count of nine. Firpo rushed Winert after he came up the second time and landed flush on the jaw, sending him to the canvas for the full count after one minute and 49 seconds of fighting.

300 ATTEND BIG LEAGUE MEETING

Falls City Gathering Said to Have Broken Record for Pacific Coast

About 44 Salem people, young and old, attended the Epworth league institute held at Falls City last week, the program opening last Monday and closing with the morning watch and farewell yesterday morning. The total attendance was about 300, the largest ever reported anywhere on the Pacific coast, it is believed. The Salem delegates returned to their homes Monday afternoon, the delegates coming by train and their baggage being brought over by truck and carried around to the homes.

Dr. Blaine E. Kirkpatrick, of Salem, dean of the institute, kept the program up to concert pitch from the first minute. Several Salem instructors of eminence were in charge of various departments of the work. Dr. E. C. Hammond, Dr. J. D. McCormick, Rev. C. E. Powell, Rev. H. F. Pemberton, Dr. E. S. Gilbert, and Miss Mary Findley, all made conspicuous records with their various departments of religious and social work. Rev. P. M. Blenkinsop of Sherwood was in charge of the music.

Speakers of national and international prominence were Dr. W. E. J. Gratz, of the International Epworth league committee Dr. Marvin Rader, former missionary to the Philippines and Dr. Clarence True Wilson, head of the international board of temperance. The flashing, lightning-like cleverness of Dr. Rader, and the sledge-hammer fighting spirit of Dr. Wilson, were outstanding features of the week.

The delegates and attendants from all over the northwestern part of the state, from as far off as Astoria, pooled their expenses, so that the entire cost, traveling and living and the use of tents, was only a little more than $10 each for the week. Assessments of $12 each were made at the beginning, but a refund was made after finding that the estimated cost could be reduced.

of sundae, the logan is in a class by itself. This sun-cooking process that Mr. Crothers has been testing, is said by all housekeepers who have tried it to be the ideal way of preserving the true fruit flavor for any fruit that can be prepared in this manner. Mr. Crothers is confident that in this form of high-class goods, the loganberry ought to have its ideal development.

"Miss Edith," asked a young man, "may I ask you please not to call me Mr. Durand?"
"But," said Miss Edith, with great coyness, "our acquaintance is so short, you know. Why should I not call you that?"
"Well," said the young man, "chiefly because my name is Du pont."

A steel screen, or steel contract of any kind, is held to be harmful to the delicate logan taste, and to make it sharp and bitter. They are placing some of this sun-jam seedless and perfect, with some of the local and other soda fountain operators. One of the new investigators is Ernest Wilson of Los Angeles, who has great soda palaces at half a dozen California cities. Visiting in Salem recently, he tried the new fruit flavoring, pronounced it the finest thing he ever saw or tasted, and he is going to feature it in his California emporiums. Mr. Wilson, who is a cousin of Otto Wilson, former mayor of Salem, says that it will go big.

Various Salem people, who profess to dislike loganberries because of their extreme acidity, still have found that as a fruit dressing for ice cream in the form
