LET ME BUILD FOR YOU I have formed building connections that enable me to build the best of houses at prices 20 to 25 per cent lower than are commonly quoted and that make it less costly to build what you want than to buy it ready made. Heretofore, the high cost of building has caused a marked increase in the sale of ready-made houses, but I am now able to quote prices and terms that make it equally or more economical to build. I'll take you through houses such as I will build and you may inspect them on every point—qualty of materal, workmanship, plumbing and every finishing touch. See me before you buy, HARRIS
