

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Not Exempt— Insurance companies are not exempt from the payment of automobile license fees in Oregon, says an opinion from the office of Attorney General Van Winkle to Sam A. Kozer, secretary of state. Exemption was claimed under an act that exempts insurance companies from the payment of certain fees.

A Classified Ad— Will bring you a buyer.—Adv.

McNary Begins Trip— Several reclamation projects in eastern Oregon will be investigated by Senator Charles L. McNary, who left here yesterday for that purpose. The senator's investigations will center at Vale and Ontario.

Airplanes Limited— Senator McNary received information yesterday from W. B. Greeley, chief federal forester, that the United States department of agriculture will be unable to obtain from the war department as many airplanes as the state of Oregon wishes for fire fighting purposes in the forests. Lack of men and funds is given as the reason. Arrangements have been made, the communication said, to have two planes at Vancouver barracks for use in both Oregon and Washington. Senator McNary had requested that a number of planes be furnished for use in this state.

3-Piece Bed Special— Three-inch post bed with fine metal spring, Simmons products, and one 40-lb. cotton mattress—special, $24.75. C. S. Hamilton, good furniture.—Adv.

Visits Many Points— George White has just returned from an extended vacation trip which included stops at Crater lake, Oregon caves, Pacific City, Willhoit springs and McKenzie bridge. Fishing was reported good at McKenzie.

Funeral to be Today— The funeral of Richard Swartz will be held today from Rigdon's chapel at 2 o'clock. Interment will be in Lee Mission cemetery.

Legal Blanks— Get them at The Statesman office. Catalog on application.—Adv.

Sells Polish Property— Tony Wisnesky, a native of Poland, desiring to sell his property in Poland was in Salem yesterday to find out the exact value of 7,000,000 marks, the offer which he had received for his farm in Polish money. He had been asking $1500 United States money, and wanted to know if the mark valuation was enough. Polish marks are worth .000425 in exchange just now.

Recovers From Injuries— Miss Hilda Starr of Sublimity is recovering from injuries received two weeks ago in an automobile accident. Her face was severely lacerated by glass from a broken windshield when the car in which she was riding went into a ditch. She is a patient at Willamette sanitarium.

Kidnaping Case Dismissed— Attorneys for Donna B. Henry and F. V. McReynolds yesterday reached an agreement and have requested that the kidnaping case against Donna Henry be dismissed. The case was slated for the justice court Tuesday afternoon.

A stipulation is being prepared by the attorneys. McReynolds made charges that the woman had enticed Elizabeth McReynolds from home. The girl is his daughter and her niece.

Prison Deer Dies— The second of the two fawns brought to the state prison from the tubercular farm died this week, leaving Virginia, the fawn received from Coos county, again alone. Both of the state farm deer were a little past the age at which deer can safely be kept in captivity. It was said by the convict who has sole charge of Virginia.

Accidents Reported— Two automobile accidents were reported to the police yesterday afternoon. Harry E. Raley of Tacoma collided with A. H. Dougherty, route 7, at Church and Ferry streets, Ralph Hensley, 853 South Commercial street, struck a car belonging to Mrs. Robertson while backing in at the postoffice. In both cases there was practically no damage done and both persons reported the accidents.

Wants Specific Instances— N. Schmaltz demands he be not required to further plead until dates of utterances of alleged false and defamatory words and the names of other persons present be set forth by M. W. Miller, who filed two suits against him in which it was alleged that Schmaltz had defamed Miller.

Visits From Omaha— Miss Lura Rose of Omaha, Neb., is visiting with her uncle, J. F. Unruh. She accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Lee Unruh on a trip to Pacific City this week. Miss Rose plans to leave Salem today.

Hakins & Roberts— City loans; lowest rates.—Adv.

Flax Being Received— Between 50 and 75 tons of flax are being received daily at the state prison and is keeping nearly 75 men busy in the flax mill manufacturing tow. A temporary shed is being erected to shelter the flax, which is being stacked outside the mill. The prison will handle about 2500 tons of flax this year.

Building Again Active— With a building permit issued yesterday to Adolph & Waters for the erection of a one-story brick building at Liberty and Brick streets at a cost of $15,000, building is again active after a week's slump. Other permits issued by City Recorder Marten Poulsen were to George H. Riches, one-story dwelling, 1235 North Sixteenth street, $2500; L. Lunford, double garage, 1740 Fairmount, $1500; Burt Overgard, two-story dwelling, 111 Chemeketa street, $3500, and to Paul Bassett one-story dwelling, 3187 North Sixteenth street, $2,000.

City and Farm Loans— Lowest rates. J. C. Selgmund.—Adv.

Auto Stolen; Found— Smith & Watkins reported their Ford delivery car stolen Monday night. The machine was found a short time later.

Returned to School— Eva Johnson, 16, who escaped from the state industrial school for girls several days ago, has been returned. The girl is said to have beaten her way into Portland on a freight train, and was caught in the Brooklyn yards by a police officer.

Pierce Addresses Woodmen— Governor Pierce, while in Bend Tuesday night, addressed an open meeting of the Modern Woodmen of America. The governor is inspecting a number of reclamation projects in eastern Oregon.

Dr. Findley Returning— Dr. M. C. Findley, who has been studying in Europe during the summer weeks, is expected to land in New York today. How soon he will return to Salem is not known. Dr. Findley has been attending clinics in Vienna.

Cop-Detector Attached— A Salem auto accessories salesman recently succeeded in placing an order for a fear view mirror—a "cop-detector" as they are usually known to the trade—for mounting on a Salem baby perambulator, and the cab is now equipped with this see-em-coming appliance. The question has been raised as to whether it is to aid in evading the speed laws, and to run the perambulator up to abnormal speeds when the cops are not following, and to give warning when the law guardians are on the trail. Anyhow, the mirror is there, and it seems to work successfully.

Seek Runaway Boys— The Salem police have been notified to watch out for two boys who ran away from Oak Grove Tuesday. They are Everett Wood and a boy named Brown. Both are about 13 years old and were riding bicycles. Each had a red handkerchief tied about his heads.

Stacks Demurs to Complaint— Through his attorney, S. B. Stackus of Boyne City, Mich., demurs to the complaint of A. R. Lenon, Oregon City, on the ground that the facts stated do not constitute cause of action. Lenon filed a $10,000 damage suit against Stackus following an accident on the Pacific highway near Woodburn which resulted in the death of Mrs. Lenon.

Jones Appeals Case— Notice of appeal to the supreme court was filed with the county clerk Tuesday in the case of P. E. and Grace Jones vs. C. J. Johnson. The appeal follows the circuit court decision in which the defendant's motion for involuntary non-suit was allowed and an order of involuntary non-suit entered against the plaintiffs.

New Planos for Rent— H. L. Stiff Furniture Co.—Adv.

Sparks to Bandon— L. C. Sparks of the Washington junior high school, who returned a few days ago from a summer course at the University of California at Berkeley, is to leave this morning for Bandon, his former home. Later he expects to take a tour into Washington before the opening of school October 1.

Two Autos Collide— When E. S. Brehu of Salem was going west on Ferry street about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon he collided with another machine driven by Elvin Foster, of route 8, as the latter was pulling away from the curb. Slight damages were received by both cars.

Wanted Women to Work— On pears, blackberries and prunes. Northwest Canning Company's new cannery. Corner Trade and Liberty.—Adv.

School Innate Escapes— Thomas Larson, 14, of the feeble minded school left that institution about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, the police were advised. He is described as weighing 95 pounds, with light complexion and hair and is wearing brown coveralls.

Automobile Demolished— In a collision seven miles this side of Hebo between a machine owned by E. N. Tracy, 1296 Market street, and one driven by an unidentified driver, the other car was demolished and serious damages received by the Tracy car, according to a report made to the police yesterday by Mrs. E. H. Tracy. The Tracy's were on their way to Pacific City when the accident occurred.

Smid Given Hearing— When James Smid appeared in justice court yesterday to answer to a charge of possession of liquor

DIED
MORTON—Charles Edward Morton died at his residence, 702 North Fourteenth street, aged 73 years. Survived by his wife Clara Belle Morton, and one son, R. C. Morton of Salem. Funeral services will be held from Webb's Funeral Parlors today at 2 p. m. Blaine Kirkpatrick officiating. Interment in IOOF cemetery.

NEIGER—Henry Neiger died at his residence in Lincoln, Polk county, August 14, at the age of 63 years. Survived by his wife, Anna, three sons, Henry J., Mike U. and Casper E., all of Polk county; five daughters, Mrs. Kate Andregg, Hillsdale, Or.; Mrs. Elsie Warman, Portland; Mrs. Lena Miller, Portland; Mrs. Emma Senn, Portland; Miss Ruth Neiger of Lincoln. The body is at the residence. Arrangements in charge of Webb's Funeral Parlors.

he declared that the wine found on his premises was new wine. Judge Kuntz, who tasted the evidence, declared that it was excellent and was not new wine. Smid was much surprised. A decision on the case will be returned by Judge Kuntz Saturday.

A New Arrival— Frank R. Kellogg, who for 10 years has been a successful public accountant of Couer d'Alene, Idaho, has selected Salem as his home and opened an office at 213 Oregon building. Mr. Kellogg says that he traveled all over the coast, having determined to live in this part of the country but finally came back to Salem. He is a young man of promise and it is certainly good for this city to attract such men.

Trained Parrot for Sale— With fine big cage. Flake's Petland, 277 State.—Adv.

Good Program Today— Dan Burns, head of the speaking and entertainment committee of the Rotary club, has several speakers in tow whom he will turn loose at the luncheon today noon, but according to the weekly bulletin he has not yet announced just who they are or what will be their subjects. As a prominent member of the late brilliantly scintillating class in public speaking at the YWCA last winter, Mr. Burns himself may fill the bill. The club has been maintaining a remarkably good hot-weather attendance ratio, though the attendance has not been quite up to 100 per cent. Salem will probably be represented at the annual council meeting of presidents and secretaries held at Olympia August 30 and 31.

Red Hats on Sale— Red hats for deer hunters are now on sale, and a negligible little dollar and a quarter may save many a nimrod a neatly drilled hole through the head or the heart or the heel. The season is so early that it apparently contemplated cradle-robbing the deer family. The mortality of young deer is expected to be unusually heavy. The season opens August 20, next Monday.

Make Your Household Budget Pay Dividends!

A Small Cash Deposit will hold any Blanket until October First

ANNUAL AUGUST Sale of Blankets

Oh, Quantity! Where Is Thy Sting? Less Fuel, More Blankets, Better Health

Many are the advantages of being well supplied with suitable bed covers. Just as surely as one anticipates their winter's supply of fuel during the summer months, one should look to their bedding requirements and choose while stocks are varied and complete. Open air sleeping quarters are becoming universal necessities for the promotion of good health. What a contrast to the old style bedroom that was usually overheated and poorly ventilated. Blankets have played an important role in bringing about these healthful changes.

One thousand square feet of window space will be given over to displaying the biggest line of Blankets (that we believe) ever graced the counters of a retail store in Salem.

For Ten Days we will show this eight store purchase and offer Blankets to the consumer at prices that will make their household budget literally pay dividends.

The saving effected by our direct mill purchase is no small item, besides the discount we offer during our Annual August Sale.

Where is thy sting? Not a "second" or mill run blanket in this entire big showing. Every blanket guaranteed to be perfect.
