What Became of the Peddler?

VEN in remote regions, the once-familiar figure of the peddler is rarely seen. In the cities the brass-lunged huckster has practically disappeared.

Advertising has banished those outworn hangers-on of trade. Through advertisements, women learned discontent with the limited choice offered by the peddler's' pack and the huckster's cart.

Advertising teaches us to be more exact in judging values; to require things to measure up to better standards; to make better use of every cent we spend.

Advertising has done away with haphazard choosing by showing how wide and precise a choice you really can have. Haphazard buying is going the same route... People who read advertisements know what is what-and they make sure they get it at the right price!

Advertisements give you living news of economies. Read them regularly!
