

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

River Now Very Low— One-tenth of a foot less water in the Willamette than there is at present will equal the low record of last year when the river measured minus 1.3 feet.

Fire-Room Flat— Modern, fully furnished, at 686 Ferry St. Ground floor, $45 a month. Call at Statesman business office or phone 23.—Adv.

Portland Man Arrested— George H. Lindberg is being held by the Salem police pending the arrival of a Portland officer. It is said that he is wanted in Portland for obtaining money under false pretenses.

Does This Interest You?— If you are looking for a job, or if you need to employ help, use the city free employment bureau at the YMCA.—Adv.

Monmouth Quartet Arrested— Conduct accredited to Hollywood does not go in Monmouth, consequently when four young people staged a party at the home of a citizen who was absent from the city, charges of disorderly conduct and disturbing the peace were placed against those "partying."

Legal Blanks— Get them at The Statesman office. Catalog on application.—Adv.

Police Matron Returns— Mrs. Blanche Coe, police matron, returned to Salem yesterday after several weeks leave of absence, and was on duty last night.

Hawkins & Roberts— City loans; lowest rates.—Adv.

Attended Harding Funeral— Salem was represented at the funeral of President Harding in Marion, Ohio, by Joseph Baumgartner, former councilman, according to a postcard received by Mayor John B. Giesey.

Trade Your Old Piano— For a new Victrola or Brunswick. H. L. Stiff Furniture Co.—Adv.

Speeder is Arrested— Delbert C. Brock, 1010 Turner street, was arrested yesterday by Officer Edwards and booked at headquarters for traveling 30 miles an hour along State street, between Twelfth and Fourteenth streets.

For Gifts That Last HARTMAN BROS. Diamonds, Watches, Jewelry and Silverware Phone 1255, Salem, Oregon

Salem Ambulance Service Day and Night PHONE 666 178 E. Liberty St. Salem Oregon

CAPITAL JUNK CO. WANTS All kinds of junk and second-hand goods. We pay full value. 215 Center Street Phone 398

LADD & BUSH BANKERS Established 1868 General Banking Business Office Hours from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m.

Sent Home by Police— Because they were out two hours later than the curfew law allows, three Salem youths 14 years old were taken to the police station Wednesday night and given a severe lecture. They were then sent home. The boys were picked up by Officer Putnam shortly after midnight.

Arrange Your Sale— With Woody the auctioneer. Adv.

Jack Mays Case Dismissed— Because of inability of the state to produce the chief witness in court, the case against Jack Mays was dismissed by Justice of the Peace Kuntz Thursday. Mays was arrested a few days ago upon a second complaint charging him with lewd cohabitation, the alleged crime having been committed on March 15. A complaint was filed at that time, but was never served upon Mays.

Woody the Auctioneer— Buys and sells furniture.—Adv.

Accidents Reported— Accidents reported to the police yesterday were between machines driven by A. W. Lightfoot, 1165 Shipping, whose car was badly damaged in a collision with an unknown driver at Capitol and Chemeketa streets and by Mrs. O. L. Fisher 380 Leslie and P. A. Robertson, who collided on South Commercial between Mill and Bellevue. Slight damages were sustained and both parties reported the accident.

King Heralds to be Guests— Mrs. A. A. Lee will entertain Saturday for the junior and senior Kings Heralds. The junior girls will meet at the Lee home between 1 and 3:30 while the senior girls will meet there from 3 until 6 o'clock. Mrs. Lee will be assisted by Mrs. F. L. Odom and Mrs. Lloyd Lee.

Albany Couple Disappointed— An effort to obtain a marriage license by two residents of Linn county was blocked yesterday afternoon by Miss Ruth Wallace, deputy county clerk. She had made out the license application as far as the girl's name, when she found the bride-to-be was from Albany. There was nothing doing on the license. The couple were Ernest H. Howe, who gave his occupation as a jack of all trades, and Gladys Carten.

Court House Picnic Monday— Following much discussion, consultation and chasing back and forth through the court house, employees of the building finally decided to hold their annual picnic Monday evening. An effort had been made earlier in the week to have the event last night.

Will Distribute Estate Funds— Real property of the estate of Nancy E. Hagey will be distributed among the children by order of Judge Bushey. Heirs to the estate are J. B. Hagey, La Grande, Henry E. Hagey, Island City, Minnie M. Glass, G. F. Hagey, Marion D. Hagey and Eva E. Hillhouse, all of Hillgard; Ollie N. Parks, Chehalis, Wash.; Bessie J. Strults, Jordan Valley, and one granddaughter, Maudie Wilson of Portland. J. B. Hagey, administrator of the estate, was discharged from his trust.

Memorial Service Held— A belated but interesting letter from Mark S. Skiff, Jr., tells of the memorial services held at Breitenbush Hot Springs on the Santiam, the afternoon of August 10, in memory of the late President Harding. About 50 vacationists were in the camp, from as far off as Washington, D. C. Henry Downing of Shaw was the chairman of the day, and Mrs. C. W. Sawyer of Salem led in the singing. Rev. George S. Roeder of Salem gave both the invocation

506 V. A. National Bank Building Phone 559 Res. Phone 4693 DR. B. H. WHITE Osteopathic Physician and Surgeon Electronic Diagnosis and Treatment (Dr. Abrams' Method.) Salem Oregon

DR. C. V. SCHENK Has Moved to His New Location 249 So. Cottage Street Phone 1182

DR. C. L. MARSHALL Osteopathic Physician and Surgeon 228 Oregon Building Phone 255

Webb & Clough Leading Funeral Directors Expert Embalmers

Rigdon & Son's MORTUARY Unequaled Service

and the benediction, and addresses were made by C. P. Frazier and H. L. Idleman of Portland. The Breitenbush springs are about 12 miles from Detroit, and are reached by pack trail for the last 12 miles. They rate as among the most popular of all the restful summer resorts of the Cascade country.

Wanted Women to Work— On pears, blackberries and prunes. Northwest Canning Company's new cannery. Corner Trade and Liberty.—Adv.

Summer Ceremonial Postponed— Though once postponed, the summer ceremonial of the "40 & 8" playground order of the American Legion, scheduled for the armory this evening, is again postponed, on account of the recent death of L. M. Cole, whose funeral was held yesterday. Dr. B. F. Pound, chief in care of the order, has been unable to give the time necessary for preparation for the ceremonial on account of the death of Cole, to whom he was related. Dr. Pound stated last night that he would hasten arrangements, and that the ceremonial will be staged without fail prior to the American Legion state convention in Seaside early in September.

Lents Given More Time— Benjamin Lents, by Louise Lents, his guardian ad litem, has been given until September 15 to file a bill of exemptions and until October 1 to file a transcript on appeal by Judge Percy R. Kelly. His case named the Oregon Growers Cooperative association as defendant.

City and Farm Loans— Lowest rates. J. C. Selgmand.—Adv.

Habeas Corpus Approved— An order for a writ of habeas corpus in the case of F. V. McReynolds vs Donna V. Henry, court mandating her to produce the person of Elinor McReynolds before the sheriff's office yesterday for Paul Seiler, a former inmate of the county jail, cost the sender just $120. The card, which was mailed in Astoria, carried one 400 mark stamp and two of 40 mark denominations. The letter, which was mailed in Pewsum, carried but one 400 mark stamp.

Postage Costs $120— Based on pre-war rates of exchange, a postcard received at the sheriff's office yesterday for Paul Seiler, a former inmate of the county jail, cost the sender just $120. The card, which was mailed in Astoria, carried one 400 mark stamp and two of 40 mark denominations. The letter, which was mailed in Pewsum, carried but one 400 mark stamp.

McMorcom Estate Appraised— Appraisement of the estate of Elisha P. Morcom is given at $500 by W. J. Knox, A. E. Austin and Minnie M. Richards, appraisers. Libby M. Morcom is executrix of the estate. September 17 was set by Judge Bushey as the time for hearing final objections to the accounting of the estate.

Two Licenses Issued— Marriage licenses were issued Thursday to Henry J. Shiltz of Scotts Mills and Sylvia L. Helms of Silverton route 4; Wesley F. Earl and Kathleen Wood, both of 1140 North Fifth street, Salem.

Many at Springs— Henry Downing and wife, Dr. Mark Skiff and wife, Judge Earl Race and wife, and Ralph White and wife, were Salem visitors last week at the Breitenbush hot springs on the north fork of the Santiam.

May Locate Here— A. M. Lausch and wife, of Richmond, Wn., visited over Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Breithaupt of Salem. Mr. Lausch is construction foreman for the Pacific States Power company, and was in charge of the building of the new power plant at Hood River. They may decide to locate in Salem.

Attended Convention— C. F. Breithaupt of Salem attended the state convention of florists at Portland Wednesday. Between 400 and 500 people attended the big annual event.

Reply is Filed— The Oregon public service commission has filed with the interstate commerce commission a reply to the petition of Seattle and Tacoma for a rehearing of the Columbia basin rate case. The Puget sound ports are attempting to get the rates from the basin into Puget sound territory on a parity with the water grade rates into Columbia river ports.

Drake Bond Approved— Bond of Benjamin S. Drake, guardian of Florence Drake, has been approved by Judge Bushey.

Guardian Requests Return— That Nicholas Turans, now in Italy, is not receiving proper attention according to correspondence he has received, and should be returned to the United States as he is an American citizen, is the report of Robin Day, attorney and guardian for the estate. Day states that Turans' father stole him from this country and since that time has squandered the money derived from the estate and it has been necessary for the guardian to pay for Turans' care out of money being received from the government. Day's request for $200 from the estate and that he might continue as guardian were approved by Judge Bushey Thursday.

in cold storage in the fall and when he opened them up in May not one was spoiled. The crop is mostly Yellow Newton and Spitzberger varieties. Rich L. Reimann brought to the Oregon Statesman office yesterday some fine specimens of both this year's crop and samples from last year's storage. It makes a good showing for this valley.

Pearse Removed— Governor Pierce said yesterday that he had removed William M. Pearce of La Grande as a member of the state board of optometry and had appointed in his place, George S. Birney, also of La Grande. The governor said he had no objection to the service being given by Pearce and had simply exercised his rights under the statute in removing him.

A Classified Ad— Will bring you a buyer.—Adv.

Prospect Looks Good— Governor Pierce and other members of the state irrigation and drainage securities commission who have recently visited the Snow creek project in Deschutes county, declared yesterday on his return that the project looks good, and it was intimated that the project's request for certification of funds will receive the approval of the commission.

New Pianos for Rent— H. L. Stiff Furniture Co.—Adv.

Salem Man to Oregon City— Russel Emmel, a graduate of Oregon Agricultural college last June, will teach agriculture in the Oregon City high school the coming year.

Speaks in Bend— C. N. McArthur, former congressman, addressed the Bend Commercial club at the weekly luncheon Wednesday. Dairying in Central Oregon was the subject which Mr. McArthur discussed. Many farmers attended the noon meeting, according to the Bend Bulletin.

Company Makes Report— Total operating revenues of the Portland Railway, Light & Power company for the quarter ending June 31 were $869,941.64, according to the report filed with the public service commissioner. Total operating expenses were $454,132.95 and depreciation $59,782.16, leaving the net operating revenues $356,026.53.

Speeder Pays Fine— L. L. Bates was fined $5 for speeding when he appeared before Police Judge Poulson Thursday afternoon. Milton M. Smith forfeited $10 bail for a similar charge.

Bicycle Found— A bicycle reported standing at 2490 Myrtle, was taken to the police station yesterday afternoon by Officer Edwards.

Company Files Demurrer— The Lower Columbia Fire Relief association demurs to the complaint filed by W. W. Rosebraugh on the ground that it does not constitute cause of action and that it was not brought within 12 months after fire had destroyed the plaintiff's property.

Kreft Estate Value $15,000— Petition for letters of executorship in the estate of Charles Kreft were filed yesterday. The estate has a probable value of $15,000. Besides the widow, Philomine Kreft, there are 11 children. These are Erna Lou, Herman, Elsie and Esther, all of Salem; Martha Schierman and Emil Kreft of Everett, Wash.; Anna Kuhnke of Portland; Eric of Junction City and Dora Flemming of Multnomah. The will, which was also filed yesterday, nominates Carl and Albert Kreft as executors and Elmo S. White as attorney for the estate.

Alaskan Trip Enjoyed— "Mile meals" prevail with the Salem party just now Alaska bound. Joe Albert of the Capital National Bank has written to friends in Salem saying that all of the party are enjoying the life on board ship to the fullest extent. Among those included in the party are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Albert, Mrs. John Griffith of Salem Man Has Idea— What is hailed in the public service commission as a good suggestion is made in a letter to the commission from C. H. Fake of Salem relative to grade crossings. Mr. Fake believes that approach to the crossings should be level on each side of the railroad track instead of rising to a crest with the track squarely on top of the crest. Crossings built by the state highway commission it is said are built as suggested by Mr. Fake, but many others are not so constructed.

Escapes Caught— Pierre L. Lamsyer, an inmate of the state hospital for the insane, escaped from Colony farm yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock but was immediately caught. His home is at Turner. Bird, the patient who escaped the previous day was caught a few hours later.

Case Appealed— Walter Davis, former Southern Pacific locomotive engineer who received a damage judgment of $20,000 from the company in Multnomah county and who was reversed in the supreme court, has appealed his case to the United States supreme court, according to notice filed here yesterday. Davis was injured in a head-on collision near Beaverton, Or. The railroad company claimed he did not follow orders, while Davis claimed that the orders were ambiguous, so that he was confused.

Permits Issued— Under the state blue sky act a permit has been granted to the Laundry Equipment company of Portland to sell $20,000 worth of stock, and to the Lane County Farmers' Union Cooperative Warehouse company to sell $2000 worth of stock.

Company Makes Report— Total operating revenues of the Portland Railway, Light & Power company for the quarter ending June 31 were $869,941.64, according to the report filed with the public service commissioner. Total operating expenses were $454,132.95 and depreciation $59,782.16, leaving the net operating revenues $356,026.53.

Speeder Pays Fine— L. L. Bates was fined $5 for speeding when he appeared before Police Judge Poulson Thursday afternoon. Milton M. Smith forfeited $10 bail for a similar charge.

Bicycle Found— A bicycle reported standing at 2490 Myrtle, was taken to the police station yesterday afternoon by Officer Edwards.

Company Files Demurrer— The Lower Columbia Fire Relief association demurs to the complaint filed by W. W. Rosebraugh on the ground that it does not constitute cause of action and that it was not brought within 12 months after fire had destroyed the plaintiff's property.

Kreft Estate Value $15,000— Petition for letters of executorship in the estate of Charles Kreft were filed yesterday. The estate has a probable value of $15,000. Besides the widow, Philomine Kreft, there are 11 children. These are Erna Lou, Herman, Elsie and Esther, all of Salem; Martha Schierman and Emil Kreft of Everett, Wash.; Anna Kuhnke of Portland; Eric of Junction City and Dora Flemming of Multnomah. The will, which was also filed yesterday, nominates Carl and Albert Kreft as executors and Elmo S. White as attorney for the estate.

Alaskan Trip Enjoyed— "Mile meals" prevail with the Salem party just now Alaska bound. Joe Albert of the Capital National Bank has written to friends in Salem saying that all of the party are enjoying the life on board ship to the fullest extent. Among those included in the party are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Albert, Mrs. John Griffith of Salem and Mr. and Mrs. Otto Krausse of Portland. Mr. Albert insists that every member of the party shall walk a dozen times around the deck after each meal so that they will continue in good health and spirits. Since 12 times around is approximately a mile, the members have dubbed their repasts "mile meals." Other Salem folk on the boat include Miss Rose Amort and Mrs. D. R. Ross.

We Wish to Thank— Our friends and neighbors for the sympathy and help in our late bereavement in the loss of our father and brother. Children and sisters of Thomas D. Jones.—Adv.

Police Patrol Wrecked— Officer Louis Olson narrowly escaped serious injuries early yesterday morning when the Salem police car was struck and fully demolished by a Southern Pacific freight train on the Twelfth street crossing. Olson stated after the accident that there was no brakeman on the boxcar and that he was traveling between 15 and 20 miles an hour when he was hit. The machine was shoved about 20 feet before he was able to jump from the auto. Minor bruises and scratches are being displayed by Olson as a result of the accident. Chief Birtchet stated yesterday that he did not know whether it would be worth while to have the old car repaired.

Declares Law Violated— That J. S. Culbertson, former dry officer, and Ray Amy, Newberg, marshal, searched the Hiller ranch near St. Paul on August 3 without a warrant, thus violating Hiller's constitutional rights, is charged in a petition filed in justice court yesterday by James G. Heitsel, Salem attorney. The petition also demands that Judge county also demands that Judge county

P. J. Kuntz return to Hiller the bottle that was seized by the officers at the raid. It is contended that the jug partially filled with which they claimed to be intoxicating liquor was only vinegar.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Crain went to Portland yesterday where they will spend part of Mr. Crain's vacation.

Ralph E. Mantor, former deputy warden of the state penitentiary, was here yesterday from Portland. He has been ill for a month.

Mrs. Mary L. Fulkerson, county school superintendent, spent Thursday in the northern part of the county on affairs connected with her office.

Merle Ivie and family have returned from a two weeks vacation trip spent at Newport. Mr. Ivie is connected with the county clerk's office.

Mrs. George Trot, a saleswoman in Kafoury Bros. store, has returned from a three weeks' vacation. Miss Helen Aspinwall, stenographer at the YMCA, has returned from a vacation trip to Newport. Harry Levy of the Midget Market spent Wednesday in Portland attending the Dokkie convention.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Waltman were Sunday afternoon visitors at the C. E. McIlwain home. C. S. and V. L. Morgan were Monday business callers in Silverton. Mr. Pinkstin Dyer of Gilliam county, although a man of 80 years, drove down from Gilliam county in his car last week and has been visiting old friends and neighbors. Mr. Dyer sees many changes in the last 23 years in this part of the valley. He promises he will make the same trip next summer. Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Dunn were Sunday visitors at James McGuire's.

Mrs. Fred Dickson and daughter, Leona, and Mrs. W. H. Baughman were business callers in Silverton Tuesday afternoon. Miss Lois Vinton who has been on the sick list for several days is improving.

Bill Zelinski of Hazel Green is threshing for some of the farmers, as our home machines are on the prairie.

SILVERTON, Or., Aug. 16.— (Special To The Statesman.)— Miss Valborg Ormbeck entertained a number of young friends at her home in North Silverton on Wednesday night. Lawn games were the chief diversion of the evening. Refreshments were served by the hostess. Those present included Miss Ingeborg Goplerud, Miss Esther Towe, Miss Louise Henriksen, Miss Ethel Larson, Miss Sylvia Larson, Merle Larson, Miss Merna Sather, Miss Hazel English, Miss Jordis Closter, Miss Valborg Ormbeck, Miss Dora Henriksen, Miss Agnes Dahlen, Amos Benson, Theodore Ormbeck, Bernard Roison, Harry Larson, Clayton Benson, Victor Sather, Dale Blair and Einar Ormbeck.

PICNIC SPECIALS We Cater to the Wants of Picnickers LITTLE LADY STORE Center at 12th. Phone 1357

MILLER'S Good Goods.

Store News for Today and Tomorrow

Clean-Up Sale of ODD STOCKINGS

200 Pairs Former Values to $3.50 TODAY AND TOMORROW

To clean up our Hosiery department of all odd pair of Stockings, we will offer to Salem women an unrestricted choice of 200 pairs valued as high as $3.50. Many are all silk, some are full fashioned—some are the season's most desirable colors. Plain silk, glove silks, chiffons and laces. Come early for this is going to be a tremendous selling event in which the early shoppers get choice of best values.

THE PAIR

Not all sizes in each style, ALL SIZES IN THE LOT

COLORS: Brown, navy, Pekin, tan, nude, grey, green, black, white

Keep Cool! Buy Electrical Appliances Salem's Electrical Supply Headquarters FLEENER Electric Co. 471 Court St.