

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

At State Shoot—Four members of Company F of Salem are at Clackamas rifle range to participate in the state rifle shoot. The four marksmen from here are Lieutenant Paul Burris, Corporal Blankenship, Private Leo White and Private Paul Sims, Jr.

Ready for Picnic Parties—Camp Santiam, Jefferson, Or.—Adv.

Grants Pass Man Held—Ed Crockard, wanted by Grants Pass authorities, was arrested yesterday afternoon by the sheriff's office and is being held until an officer from southern Oregon arrives, probably this morning. While no charge was given, it is believed he is wanted for larceny of an automobile, as he drove a light truck to Roseburg, leaving the machine there and then coming on to Salem. Crockard was employed by an irrigation concern in the Rogue River valley.

Daughter Born—Mr. and Mrs. George Schoff, of 2308 North Liberty street, are the parents of a daughter born August 16. The child has been named Josephine Theresa.

Five-Room Flat—Modern, fully furnished, at 666 Ferry St. Ground floor. $45 a month. Call at Statesman business office or phone 23.—Adv.

Son Born—A son was born August 8 to Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Wildman, 2325 Maple avenue. The boy has been named Ray Cassius. Mr. Wildman is an employe of the Salem Tile & Mercantile company.

Willamette Man Chosen—Rodney Alden, a son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Alden and a graduate of Willamette university, has signed a contract with the Grants Pass school board. He will coach debate. He was a member of the Willamette debate team which made the trip across the country last winter to debate with mid-western universities and colleges. Grants Pass has always had an especially good debate record.

Does This Interest You?—If you are looking for a job, or if you need to employ help, use the city free employment bureau at the YMCA.—Adv.

Kindness Not Repaid—When John Hughes, formerly of Hughes & Taylor, was driving toward Salem and found a motorist stranded in a ditch he felt sorry for the stranger and loaned him a tire, with the understanding that it should be left with the Valley Motor company. The stranger went to Portland instead. Hughes has sworn out a warrant for his arrest.

Legal Blanks—Get them at The Statesman office. Catalog on application.—Adv.

More Bicyclists Arrested—Failure to have lights on their bicycles after dark has resulted in the following being booked as first offenders at the police station. Lyle Sheppard, 257 North Liberty; George Nelson, 1125 South Fourteenth; W. W. Williams, route 4 and Paul Roeder, 687 North Winter, second offense. The arrests were made by Officer Shelton.

Drunken Man Locked Up—In response to a call from North Liberty street yesterday afternoon, Officer George White arrested B. Crum, 469 North Liberty, upon a charge of being drunk. Crum was asleep when found by the policeman. He was placed in a cell at the police station.

Building Permits Issued—Building permits have been issued by City Recorder Poulson to George F. Mentzer, for a story and a half dwelling at 1135 North Seventeenth street, $3500; E. V. Ryder, one-story dwelling, 805 North Church, $2500; J. M. York, one-story dwelling, 1855 South Commercial, $3500, and to R. B. Fleming, to alter and repair a story and a half dwelling, 391 North Cottage street, $500.

Hawkins & Roberts—City loans; lowest rates.—Adv.

Girls Leave Chemawa School—Police have been notified to watch out for Lena Nelson and Mary Willson, both 16, who ran away from the Chemawa Indian school some time Thursday night. Both are heavy set and have bobbed hair, the former being light and the latter dark. They were carrying a suitcase.

Stevens' Make Answer—In answer to a complaint of Frank M. Ford, Peter and Lenora Stevens admit having purchased from the defendant a farm for $22,000, paying $7,000 and executing a mortgage for the balance. The deal was made on June 14, 1920. They declare that the farm was represented to be a tract of 122 acres, but a survey shows only 115.21 acres. An agreement was reached whereby Ford allowed them a reduction for the difference in acreage. During the month of January, 1923, the plaintiff offered to accept $13,000 in full payment if the sum of $3000 cash were paid, it is stated, providing the remainder was paid as soon as money could be obtained upon a mortgage. This was done, the Stevens declare, and approximately $10,000 paid. They ask that the suit against them be dismissed.

Wanted Women to Work—On pears, blackberries and prunes. Northwest Canning Company's new cannery. Corner Trade and Liberty.—Adv.

Satchamp Bound Over—M. A. Satchamp was committed to the county jail yesterday in lieu of $1500 bail by order of J. P. Kuntz, and will await action by the grand jury on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses from Rigdon & Son. It was charged that he received $225 from the firm by representing himself as an agent for the Glove Casket company, of Denver. A telegram to Colorado brought the answer that he was no longer with that concern. Satchamp was arrested in Walla Walla upon another charge, and was brought to Salem by Deputy Sheriff Sam O. Burkhardt.

City and Farm Loans—Lowest rates. J. C. Seigmund.—Adv.

Traffic Violators Fined—Jasper W. Phillips was fined $10 for operating a truck without a mirror and F. L. Howard $15 and costs for driving in a reckless manner, when they appeared in the justice court Friday.

New Planos for Rent—H. L. Stitt Furniture Co.—Adv.

Machine Badly Damaged—Damages amounting to $100 were sustained by the car of C. M. Willmot, 304 North Twenty-fourth when he was hit by another machine at Chemekeeta and Capitol streets. Vernal Pickens, of Gervais, reported that his machine was hit by another while on the Mt. Angel road. Slight damages were received.

Returns from Newport—Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Compton returned yesterday from a trip to Newport. Mr. Compton is in the Bank of Commerce.

Woman Pays Assault Fine—Because Maud Simpson, 1177 North Commercial street, used her fists upon Ethel Lacy, 1757 Waller street who had named her as co-respondent in a recent divorce suit, she was fined $10 by Judge P. J. Kuntz yesterday. Mrs. Lacy had her arrested upon a charge of assault and battery.

Old Copies Wanted—We are anxious to secure several copies of the daily issue of June 26, 1923, containing the letter of Geo. H. Graves and will pay 15 cents each for them. Bring or mail them to this office.

Two Licenses Issued—Marriage licenses were issued Friday to George D. Butler, Sacramento, and Laura Ellis, Salem; Harry E. Straub, Corvallis and Neva Hodge, 1625 South Church street.

Former Athlete Here—Joseph A. Gendotti, attorney of San Francisco, was a Salem visitor Friday. He was one of the members of the University of California football team in his college days a number of years ago, and was a chum and pal of "Bill" Hayward, famous athletic trainer of the University of Oregon, whom he is going to visit on his way south.

Final Pavement On—The final touches were put on the paving on North Capitol street, highway addition, Friday afternoon. The street will have to stand four weeks, to season before traffic can be routed over it. Then it will be opened in time for the state fair.

George Eyre Looking Fine—George W. Eyre, who suffered from a severe sickness a few weeks ago, was down town Thursday, looking as well as ever. He is recovering nicely. Mr. Eyre has gone to Pacific City for a rest. His many friends trust that a vacation is all he needed, any way.

Crossings Wanted—The Pacific Spruce Northern Railroad company has applied to the public service commission for authority to cross certain highways at grade in Lincoln county.

Federal Notices—Funeral services for William, son of Katherine Schmidt, will be from the Terwilliger home Saturday at 10 a. m. Rev. Mr. Pemberton officiating, with interment in IOOF cemetery.

SPENNER—The funeral of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Spenner who died at Sublimity on August 16, will take place on Sunday, August 19, at 2 p. m. from the Catholic church at Sublimity. The deceased was 63 years old and resided near Sublimity for the past 25 years. Joseph Spenner, husband of the deceased; Frank, Conrad, Anna and Katherine of Sublimity, Sister Innocentia of Beaverton, and Anthony of Los Gatos, Cal., are the surviving children. Arrangements are in charge of the Salem Mortuary.

FEARLESS EDITOR.

Freedom of the press was endangered in New Mexico when Carl C. Magee, above, editor of the New Mexico State Tribune, was sentenced to two years for contempt of court for criticizing the judiciary. He was pardoned by the Governor.

Visit From California—Rev. Frank W. Dowling, from near Los Angeles, with his family was at the Salem auto park last night. Mr. Dowling is a pastor of the Christian church and is just returning from a five weeks camping trip.

Boy Badly Hurt—Ray Mills, 10-year-old Stayton boy is unconscious in the Willamette sanitarium as a result of having been run over in Stayton last night by an automobile driven by Edward Bell, a Stayton banker. It is said the boy stepped off a milk wagon directly in the path of the automobile. He has a fractured skull and a compound fracture of the right leg, and possibly internal injuries.

Hotel is Pleased—One of the series of interesting articles contributed to The Statesman by George H. Graves while he was on a motor vacation trip this summer concerned the Davenport hotel, where Mr. Graves stayed while in Spokane. The hotel management's attention has been called to the article and it is so pleased with the publicity that several copies of the Statesman containing the article are requested.

After Thirty Years—John A. Whan was in Salem last night on his way home to Oroville, Cal., where he is employed by the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company. He has been with this company a long time. He has been making an auto tour, as far as British Columbia. Mr. Whan was a Salem boy, leaving this city about 30 years ago. He found a few of the old timers he used to train with, like George Waters. He was a member of the old Salem band, with "Ted" Piper, now editor of the Oregonian, but then on The Statesman, and others. Among the old band boys he found left here only Dick Ryley and Karl Poppe. They looked to John as young as they used to be 25 or 30 years ago.

Jones Heads Commission—Seymour Jones has been selected as chairman for the tax supervising and conservation commission for Marion county. The commission is now casting about for a secretary. A man who can give part time is wanted, as it is not believed full time will be necessary. The commission is allowed $2500 a year for all expenses.

Four Accidents Fatal—A total of 722 accidents were reported to the state industrial accident commission for the week ending August 16, of which four were fatal. The fatalities were J. B. Overton, Eugene, logger; M. L. Cole, Marion, mill worker; Eli Davidson, Marion, mill worker; William F. Ebert, Portland, wood worker. Of the total number of accidents reported 632 were subject to the provisions of the workmen's compensation act, 88 were from firms and corporations that have rejected the provisions of the act and two were from public utility corporations not subject to the act.

Intercede for Jail—A committee of Spanish war veterans waited upon Governor Pierce yesterday in behalf of Al Jairl who is serving a term of one year in the county jail for assault with a dangerous weapon. The governor is asked to pardon Jairl on condition that he leave this community. The governor will have a talk with Jairl Monday night.

Home From Long Trip—Don Wiggins of Salem Heights returned Thursday from a two weeks auto trip to the southern Oregon coast. He reports that the new highway from Roseburg to Coquille is now in fine condition, the stage making the run regularly in three hours. From Coquille to Bandon, however, vehicles now have to make a long, rough detour to avoid some of the new and unfinished construction, and this section of the road is insufferably bad. Down the coast from Bandon, the Roosevelt highway is in excellent condition, and a beautiful and thrilling drive. The people along the coast are counting on a great boom in every line of business, as soon as the Roosevelt highway is opened clear through. They have splendid resources of dairying, timber, summer beaches and fishing, that will be opened to the public, and they expect a stampede into their country that heretofore has been isolated and low priced.

Wanted Moderate Volume—Bartlett Pears, Northwest Canning company, corner Trade and Liberty.—Adv.

Off On Vacation—John J. King, advertising and store display manager of the Kaffoury store, is to leave this morning with his family for a two weeks vacation in Washington. They will visit Seattle and Aberdeen, and probably stay for some time at the Rainier National park.

Invited to See Project—Members of the public service commission have been invited by officials of the Portland Railway, Light & Power company to go with them to visit the new power project of the company at Oak Grove in Clackamas county. No definite date is mentioned.

Ten-Hour Day Wanted—The Automotive Carriers' association of Oregon has filed with the public service commission a petition requesting that 10 hours instead of eight hours be made the maximum working day for drivers of motor stages. The eight-hour day was established some time ago in regulations promulgated by the commission.

Car Shortage 208—The Southern Pacific company reports to the public service commission a car shortage in Oregon of 208, or 43 open and 165 closed cars.

Road Valuations Fixed—A tentative valuation of $764,401 has been placed by the interstate commerce commission on the Great Southern railroad which operates in eastern Oregon out of The Dalles south, while on the Mount Hood road, running from Hood River to Dee, the valuation has been placed at $507,032. September 10 has been set as the final date on which protests may be made at the valuation. The interstate commission is estimating the valuation of roads throughout the country.

PERSONAL

F. W. Jones, principal-elect for the Gates high school, was in the city yesterday looking after the purchase of apparatus for the school which will open September 17.

Warren Kilborn, of the Briar Knob school, between Scotts Mills and Silverton, was in Salem Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Singleton of Seattle were in Salem yesterday for a few hours. They are just returning from a trip to Crater Lake. Mr. Singleton was formerly employed at the state house and has many relatives and friends here.
