It was necessary to select a name for the body, and 'G. T. club' was chosen because it stands for 'get together,' 'good times,' 'good thoughts,' and 'good things,' eliminating everything that pertains to gossip, unkindness, etc., thus promoting good cheer and good will."

Mrs. Coolidge Popular Woman in Washington

Mrs. Coolidge has been one of the most popular women in Washington since she came there March 4, 1921, according to Mrs. W. C. Hawley, who with her husband, Congressman Hawley has been in Washington through the administrations of Presidents Roosevelt, Taft, Wilson and Harding. "Mrs. Coolidge, as the wife of the vice president, was of course one of the leaders in the social life since her time was available in a way which that of Mrs. Harding was not. Mrs. Coolidge was seldom at home during the week for luncheon which would seem to prove her popularity among the official set."

"She has a merry twinkle in her eye which I always remember about her."

Mrs. Hawley was ill for many weeks after Mrs. Coolidge came to Washington and is not as well acquainted with her as with Mrs. Harding whom she knew as the wife of a senator long before Harding became president.

"What the social life of the White House will be now I have no idea," said Mrs. Hawley. "It was entirely cancelled last year because of Mrs. Harding's illness."

"Mrs. Coolidge is an altogether charming woman and while she is entirely different from Mrs. Harding, she is just as lovely and as popular in the official social life. Mrs. Coolidge is just as different from Mrs. Harding as President Coolidge is different from President Harding—each is charming in her own way."

"Mrs. Coolidge, if she has a fad, makes her family her fad."

Mrs. Hawley is at her home on Oak street for the first time in three years and says she wishes she could spend the coming winter here instead of returning to Washington. She has been ill part of the time since returning but has found time to reestablish her flower garden and refinish her home there.

Congressman and Mrs. Hawley's daughter, Miss Iris, was married just before her parents returned from the east. Her husband, Samuel Steers Tourtelout's home is not far from Providence, R. I. Mrs. Tourtelout, during Mrs. Hawley's illness, took her mother's place frequently in the official life in Washington and will be missed during the coming season. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hawley are located in Pennsylvania where Mr. Hawley has a position.

Guests at the J. F. Dunlap home include Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Bertelson and Mr. and Mrs. Fred House of Kalamazoo, Wash.

The Brush college picnic grounds were the scene of a delightful gathering Tuesday afternoon when Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Ewing entertained in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Clark of Shanghai, China.

Mr. Clark has been director of boys' work in the YMCA of Shanghai, where he has met with much success for about 12 years, but the past 15 months have been spent in the United States. During the early part of this time his work was on the Pacific coast, but since last fall his headquarters have been New York city.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark and their three children, Winstan, Richard and Imogene, stopped off for a few hours as they were passing through Salem, after visiting relatives in Roseburg and Corvallis on their way to Vancouver, B. C., from which place they sail August 23, on the Empress of Canada, to resume their work in China.

Almost all the adults bidden were friends of the Clarks during their college days at OAC, and many pleasant reminiscences were exchanged during the time spent together.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Clark and family, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cummings and
