

ARAPAHOE INDIANS INVADE NEW YORK CITY.

Arpahoe Indians from Wood River Reservation, Arapahoe, Wyo., visited Broadway and gave a war dance which was witnessed by several thousand persons. The tribe paid official respects at City Hall to Acting Mayor Hubert, who was photographed with the youngest of the tribe, a baby girl, tucked in his arms. The Indians are going to London to appear in the prologue of the film "The Covered Wagon."

HOLDING A HUSBAND REVELATIONS OF A WIFE

CHAPTER 387 THE WAY MARION DESCRIBED JUST HOW SHE FELT "How that man does love me!" Dicky put his hand to his forehead dramatically when Dr. Pettit had closed the door after himself and Miss Jones, whom he had silently summoned to a conference outside. We all laughed heartily at his sally, for the relief from the suspense concerning the beloved child lying on the bed had made us all a bit light-headed, and Dicky's words gave us a much needed opportunity to vent a feeling perilously near hysteria. Marion's troubled little voice stilled our laughter. "If I have to stay here instead of going home to Mrs. Ticer's," she said, "where will my Uncle Robert stay?" Robert Savarin crossed to her side, and looked down on her tenderly. "Your Uncle Robert will be right here," he said. "I shall take a room near the hospital," he added to Lillian, "so that I can be with her as much as she wishes during hospital hours."

War Mothers To Convene September 29 in Kansas City

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 21.—Governors of every state in the Union have been asked by the Kansas City chapter of the War Mothers to seek in each state the "Gold Star" mother who made the greatest sacrifice in the World war, with a view of sending her at her state's expense to the national convention of War Mothers in Kansas City, September 29 to October 5, according to Mrs. Howard Boone, head of the local chapter. "Twenty-three governors have already replied," Mrs. Boone stated. "Most have promised aid, although some of them declare selection to be a delicate task."

Foreclosing a Mountain.

THE DALLES, Aug. 21.—Half a mountainside, facing The Dalles on the west, is involved in a suit for the foreclosure of a mortgage and sale of the land by the sheriff, in satisfaction of a promissory note. In all nearly 665 acres of land, grazing pasture for the most part, but for its proximity to this city considered a portion of large size, are described in the complaint and exhibits thereto. A bear drove Con O'Connor, herder for Curly Murphy, from his camp in Foster Flat last week, wrecking the camp and killing a mutton, according to word given the Examiner by W. A. Massingill. Shortly after O'Connor had gone to bed at night something hit his ears a severe blow. Thinking it was a man he jumped from bed and ran out of the tent taking his rifle with him. Inside the unknown disturber was making considerable noise and did not answer to calls. O'Connor fired three shots into the tent and the bear came out after him. He decided it best to leave the camp to the bear as it was dark and spent the night at a nearby camp. In the morning the camp was found badly wrecked and one mutton had been killed.

Free From Aphids.

Although the hop yards around Independence, Salem, and other vicinities are practically eaten with aphids, those in the vicinity of Eugene and Springfield have not been in better condition in years, according to hop owners. There is a noticeable absence of aphids in the local yards, and with a good price offered growers are most optimistic concerning prospects for a good profit this year on their crops. Many yards are contracted for at good prices, while others are getting 23 cents a pound and even higher for their hops.—Eugene Guard.
