further consideration and investigation. The girls were charged with larceny.

Want More Time to Plead—An additional 24 hours in which to enter a plea was asked by W. J. Smuck and Anna Wheeler, when they appeared in police court to answer to a charge of disorderly conduct. The request was granted for the second time.

Eye Operated On—C. J. McAdams, living at 756 South Twelfth street, is at the Salem hospital following a delicate eye operation, performed Thursday morning.

Ice Cream Social—The women of the Auburn Missionary society will hold an ice cream social Saturday evening at the W. H. Snead home. The public is invited. This is two miles east of Salem, east of the Auburn schoolhouse.

Bridges at Gates Poor—That the big bridge over the Santiam river at Gates needs reshingling and that several other of the smaller bridges are in poor condition was reported by Judge Bushey and Commissioner Hunt, who spent Wednesday in the upper Santiam section, inspecting bridges as far as Niagara, at the end of the traveled road.

Keyes Was "Keyed Up"—A man giving the name of Frank Keyes was arrested yesterday afternoon and lodged in the city jail on a charge of being drunk. The arrest was made by Officer Branson. It is said Keyes evidently believed himself to be either a millionaire or else a human mite, for he was taken into custody while trying to give money away to a girl in one of the theater box offices.

Queer Accident Reported—While driving in Portland last night B. W. Wagner of Clear Lake figured in a combination of accidents from which he escaped unharmed, though considerable damage was done to his automobile. Wagner's machine was struck by a street car, shoving it into another machine, caving in one side of the latter and damaging the former.

Boys Hear Shaffer—Frank Shaffer, entertainer and philosopher, visited the boys' training school Wednesday night to give one of his inimitable inspirational entertainments. Supt. L. M. Gilbert reports that the boys never had a more delightful evening, or one more charged with genuine helpfulness. Two of the boys who have been given especially trustworthy positions were not able to attend because of their other duties. But some of the Rotary club who heard the Shaffer message at their Rotary luncheon Wednesday noon, drove out for these two boys Thursday afternoon and took them down to the Salem-McMinnville Rotarian picnic at Wheatland where they had a whole afternoon of good times and had the privilege of hearing Mr. Shaffer to-boot.

Attended Funeral—Mrs. C. E. Knowland, her daughter Miss Pauline, and Mrs. Frank Ward and daughter, Mrs. Ted Purvine, drove down to Albany Thursday to attend the funeral service for the late Miss Barbara Pfeiffer. The young woman was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. France Pfeiffer of Albany, well-known pioneers of Linn county. They were well known here, and their only daughter, Miss Barbara was an untiring worker in the Christian Endeavor and many other public services. She visited Salem many times, in convention and other charitable and public service, and had a host of friends here.

Textile Man Here—James Hawthorne of New York is visiting in Salem, the guest of Robert Crawford of the state flax plant. The two men met three years ago when Crawford was visiting Europe in the interest of Oregon flax. Mr. Hawthorne is a flax man with many years of experience, but he has been connected with the textile end of the

ROTARIANS HAVE ANNUAL PICNIC

Salem and McMinnville Organizations Enjoy Wheatland Ferry Outing

Salem and McMinnville Rotarians celebrated their third annual joint picnic Thursday afternoon and evening, at the Wheatland ferry camp grounds. They have been meeting at this half-way point each time and every time has proved a little bigger and better and with more elaborate dinners and more fun and louder shouts of good shouts of good fellowship than the year before. Yesterday there were 125 members and guests, about equally divided between the two towns.

United States Marshal George Alexander was here yesterday from Portland. Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Graybell of Portland visited Salem yesterday and dined at the Gray Bells.

President Bill Casey of McMinnville led off in the oratoricals, with Tom Kay of the Salem bunch responding. The big evening program was almost altogether the work of Frank Shaffer, philosopher and story-teller and entertainer. He put on a delightful lot of songs and stories and bits of good-living philosophy, that captivated the crowd.

McMinnville won the annual baseball game by a score of 7 to 3, in spite of Bill Busck's pitching and Tom Kay's catching. Dan Langenberg was the gallant umpire who couldn't seem to favor a friend of an expense of an enemy, so the score stood where it did.

The ham-and-chicken-and-ice-cream-everything dinner served by Johnnie Jones of Salem was a masterpiece of its kind. McMinnville may get the most credit on the baseball field, but they allied to win at the table, according to local authorities.

Umm Ham

"Umm ham!" exclaim members of the family when they peep into the kitchen. It's so warm they thought they didn't want anything to eat but the odor of broiled FRYE'S DELICIOUS HAM makes them change their minds.

FRYE'S DELICIOUS HAM tastes just as good as it smells. It's choice, young, grain-fed pork, cured and smoked the FRYE WAY, which preserves the delicate texture and rich juices of the meat.

Keep a FRYE'S DELICIOUS HAM hanging in the cooler ready to give you a small roast for baking, thick slices from the center for frying or broiling and pieces from the shank for boiling with vegetables.

FRYE'S DELICIOUS BACON is of the same rich flavor and delicate texture as FRYE'S DELICIOUS HAM.
