Electronic Reactions of Abrams—Dr. White, 506 U. S. Bank bldg.—Adv.

Ball Ordered Forfeited—S. T. Rainey of Portland was arrested Sunday for speeding. He forfeited $10 when he failed to show up in police court yesterday afternoon.

Boy Has Narrow Escape—Though he was run over by an automobile driven by K. Anderson of route 3, Walter McAdams, 1935 North Front street, escaped with slight bruises Monday afternoon. According to the report made to the police Anderson was driving north on Commercial near the Producers cannery when the boy jumped from the rear end of a wagon, directly in front of the moving automobile. He was unable to avoid the accident, he stated. The machine, it is said, passed directly over the boy.

Final Accountings Filed—Final accounting of Iva E. Mitchell, administratrix of the Thomas E. Mitchell estate, has been made. According to her report the appraisal of the estate was $24,406.55. After disbursements had been made there were left $12,319.65 to be equally divided between her and Burrill M. Mitchell. Albert LaBranch, executor of the estate of Edward LaBranch, reported that there is a balance of $2930, represented by real property.

Racing Proves Costly—Four persons were fined $25 each in the justice court Monday for speeding. Though this sum is above that generally named in such cases by Judge Kuntz, the alleged fact that the quartet were racing home from a dance in Turner Saturday night, in which a speed of 40 per was attained, was taken into consideration. Those who were arrested were A. J. Wilson, Portland; Wilfred Wilson of Polk county; Wesley Ellis and Thomas Webb of Salem.

McDougal Smashes Machine—Following an accident on the highway Sunday in which his car was badly damaged, Walter McDougal was arrested yesterday upon a complaint filed in the justice court charging him with careless and imprudent driving. It is said that after the wreck McDougal was brought back to the city limits, but left the escorting machine and disappeared over the hill.

Rathbun Finds Home—Prof. G. L. Rathbun, head of the physical department of Willamette university, was in Salem, Monday, one of the gladdest men in Marion county. After a search covering weeks, he has found a home on E street, in North Salem, where he will be able to bring his family within the next few days. He expects to be well located before the opening of the fall work in Willamette, the third week in September.

Many Accidents Over Week-end—An unusually large number of traffic accidents, none of them of a serious nature, came to the attention of the police department between Saturday and Monday nights. Those reporting accidents were Paul Hansen, 1645 South Commercial; Pauline Robertson, 689 North Commercial; W. E. Paul, North Bend; H. C. Moon, Union Oil company, who struck a street car while attempting to dodge another machine; Albert E. Rutas, Rickreall; W. R. Foley, Butte, Mont., who collided with Mrs. Loren Simpkins, 1712 Perry; Richard Buckner, Klamath Falls; Forrest E. Wax, 1118 Oak; Charles J. Bock, Silverton; E. T. Prescott, 541 Mill; Belle M. Brown, Vancouver, and C. G. Dossbach, Portland, collided Monday, damaging both cars.

Judge Bushey Taking Rest—County Judge W. M. Bushey is taking a much needed rest and is one of the last of the court house people to take advantage of summer vacation privileges. While he is out of the city Circuit Judge George G. Bingham will have charge of his department, consisting chiefly of probate matters, guardianships and cases before the juvenile court.

Operated Headly—E. F. Underwood of Salem recently returned from near The Dalles where he drove a header for five weeks, cutting more than 400 acres of grain. He reports the wheat running between 30 and 35 bushels to the acre, and the heaviest, soundest wheat ever raised in that country. Many fields made up to 63 and up to 65 pounds to the measured bushel, where 60 pounds is the standard for good wheat the world over.

Realtors Dine Thursday—Beginning Thursday, Sept. 6, the Marion-Polk Realtors will start in on their weekly luncheons. They took a two months' vacation, during the heat of the summer, but now that the summer is getting well over, and the big fall activities have begun, they are reopening at the old stand with renewed vigor. George Grabenhorst of Salem, the president, announces that some exceptionally interesting programs are to be presented during the winter, and they plan to make it the best year of the association history. They meet Thursday noons at the Marion.

Sacred Heart Academy—Salem, Or., reopens Tuesday, September 4, 1923. Conducted by the Sisters of the Holy Names of Jesus and Mary. Resident and day school. Four years high school prepares for college or normal entrance. Complete primary and grammar grades. Music department gives special attention to piano, violin, harp and choral. Physical culture under competent teachers. Fall term opens September 4, 1923.—Adv.

Gilbert Presents Flag—Tinkham Gilbert, Willamette, '21, has presented to the university a fine new flag, 8 by 12 feet, that is to be raised over the main building as soon as the college year opens. Mr. Gilbert is an employe of the state banking department, and he can look out and see the old flag floating almost any hour of the day.

Does Logging Business—Rich L. Reimann, Salem realtor, is running an important little logging camp in the Fox valley, up towards Mill City. He has a tract of timber with about 4,000,000 feet of good fir logs, which he is working out this summer with a crew of about 20 men. This crew ships about 30,000 feet of logs a day, that come by rail to the Spaulding mills and are unloaded at the log dump at Winona. The camp will be run steadily until the bad weather drives the workers out, or the tract is cleared. Mr. Reimann says that he had no trouble in getting good men this year.

Objects To Sticks—The fact that the automobile races next week at Lone Oak track are a benefit for the new Salem hospital has induced most people, who would otherwise object to auto races, to be tolerant. Most of them feel that since it is in a good cause it is well or at least bearable. Not so one man in Salem with decidedly determined views on racing and other sports. He was observed yesterday.

DIED
ENGLISH—At her late home on Route 7, Aug. 26, 1923, Elizabeth Jane Myers, beloved wife of William English, age 42 years. Funeral services will be from the Friends' church at Highland, Tuesday, at 10:30 a.m. After the services, the remains will be taken to Searsboro, Iowa, for interment. Arrangements are in care of the Terwilliger Home.

SEIBERT—At a local hospital, Aug. 26, 1923, John Seibert, age 84 years. The remains were forwarded by the Terwilliger Home to Riddle, Oregon, for services and interment.

Visit From Missouri—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Green of Moberly, Mo., are visiting in Salem and are staying at the Marion hotel. They are friends of S. B. Elliott of the Salem Bank of Commerce.

New Sign Installed—The local YWCA has just installed a large electric sign over the entrance to the association rooms on Liberty street. The sign is in the form of a large blue triangle, the ensigns of the association, with the words YWCA on a bar crossing the triangle.

Women Wanted—At Starr Fruit Products Co., cor. Church and Mill Sts. Phone 439.—Adv.

Signals Are Mixed—Some observers in Salem declare that 85 per cent of the drivers of automobiles fail to give the correct signals when turning corners, and women are said to be much worse offenders than men. Persons turning to the left have a habit of raising the hand to a perpendicular position when the hand should be thrust straight out from where the driver sits. Also persons turning to the right thrust the hand straight out, when it should be raised to a perpendicular position. To signal a stop the hand should be held downward, a signal that also is often wrongly given.

Demurrer is Filed—A. W. and Bertha Brady have filed a demurrer to the complaint of S. A. Hoefler.

Legal Blanks—Get them at The Statesman office. Catalog on application.—Adv.

Objection Dates Are Set—Judge George G. Bingham has set the following dates for the hearing of final accountings. October 1, estate of Edward L. Brand and October 8, Thomas E. Mitchell estate.

Brother Killed—Mrs. Raymond Burke of the Peoples' Furniture store received word yesterday that her brother, Charles Rohrs, of White Lake, South Dakota, was accidentally killed when hit on the head with a baseball.

Coat Shirts Ninety Cents—Blue and grey Chambray. A. A. Clothing Co., Masonic Temple.—Adv.

Salem Rainfall Moderate—Some interesting weather statistics have been gathered by Secretary Wilson of the Chamber of Commerce for publication in the weekly bulletin. They show that Salem has an average rainfall of only 36 inches—not nearly what might be supposed in talking of "Weblet." Seattle has 36.59 inches; London, 25.47; Berlin, 22.84; Jerusalem, 25.24;
