

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Williams Files Motion—

That Dick Williams be required to make more definite certain allegations in her complaint, is the gist of a motion filed yesterday by Ira Williams, who is being sued for divorce. He wants more definitely stated the person or persons with whom the plaintiff claims the defendant accused her with being criminally intimate.

and Sergeant Frank Minto to report at the desk this evening, practically all of the city police officers have completed their summer vacations. Officer Victor, one of the oldest in point of service on the force, has not yet taken advantage of his two week's period, and Officer Warren Edwards of the traffic department has five days vacation coming to him.

Monkey Antics Attract Many—

A monkey on a chain in the window of Smith & Watkins is causing many youngsters, and a great many older people, to stop and watch his actions. When placed in the box yesterday he showed a great aversion to the man who nailed his chain to the box. A young boy was bitten in the shoulder when the frightened animal sprang upon him. It was quickly pacified by the youthful owner, who is able to take whatever liberties he pleases with his pet.

Preparing for Election—

Preparation for the special election in November when the income tax law referendum comes up, is being made by County Clerk U. G. Boyer. All lists of judges and clerks are being checked prior to notifying them of the election and asking for notice as to their ability to serve. An early response is urged by Mr. Boyer in order to fill all vacancies at the October term of county court. Under a new law passed by the last legislature, vacancies may be filled from the adjoining precincts on election day providing there is no one available to serve in the precinct itself.

Stockholders to Meet—

A meeting of stockholders of the Oregon Wood Products company is to be held in Portland Thursday to decide what to do about its recent destructive fire in West Salem. The company had assets of about $35,000, the last dollar of which went up in the blaze, down to the real estate and a few cords of oak cants. There is insurance of about $15,000, which will cover all obligations and possibly some surplus. The stockholders will have to determine their future action, at this Portland meeting. Some of the heavy stockholders are Portland men.

Makes Long Stay—

Congressman W. C. Hawley expects to remain in Salem until about the middle of November, one of his longest stays since he took up the job of being congressman. Then he will leave for Washington to sit with the Republican committee on committees in the house, the body of congressmen who sift out the membership and apportion the 225 Republican members to the scores and hundreds of important committees that really do the big work of congress. Their job of giving every member the most important place, is one of the most Solomonic tasks in the history of American politics. Mr. Hawley has been on the job for four sessions.

Two Seek Divorce—

Slapping at various times in the past few years is the basis of a divorce complaint filed yesterday by Rosa McDole against H. C. McDole. They were married in March, 1914. She charges that he slapped her three years ago while they were in Sand Point, Idaho, and two years ago while living at Monitor, Or. It is also alleged that at their home in Silverton on October 15, 1921, and on other occasions, he has violently shaken her. Desertion is charged against Gennie I. McClellan by Paul T. McClellan. They were married in June, 1918. She left on February 22, 1922, he declares. McClellan states he is willing to contribute to the support of their two minor children, Glenna, 3 1/2 years, and Gene N., about 2 years old.

Says Stomach Pump Used Against Legal Rights

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 28.—Because a stomach pump was used to extract morphine he had swallowed when government agents arrested him as an alleged drug peddler, G. Bennett today filed in federal court a petition for a writ of habeas corpus charging he is detained illegally since he was "forced to give evidence against himself in violation of his constitutional rights."

Swimming Pool Will be Dedicated at Silverton

SILVERTON, Or., Aug. 28.—(Special to The Statesman.)—Silverton is extending a general invitation to Salem citizens to join in the opening of the new swimming pool in the Silverton city park. The pool, which is 75 by 400 feet, is to be opened formally Sunday. The pool is one of the donations of the Silverton Community club. The Delbert Reeves post has added dressing rooms to park improvements.

For years Silverton has had one of the prettiest natural parks in the Willamette valley. Very little was done in the line of improvement until this year. Flower beds have been added, trees have been cleared of moss and the swimming pool built.

"Then there is the signed statement given by Sheriff Dunlap prior to his death. That statement was written with a lead pencil. Yet as exhibited in court it shows erasures which have been overwritten with an indelible pencil. I believe that those altered lines contained Dunlap's corroboration of the firing of the first shot. Had Judge Kelly considered these points I would not have received more than 15 years.

"But why go over it all. This is another 'revenge' killing. Of course Dunlap's friends admired him and they have gone a mob gait in their eagerness to get vengeance.

"When I was finally lodged in jail my shoulder still bore bruise marks where Dunlap had struck me before he fired. Mr. Warner, then a prisoner in the county jail, viewed those marks but his testimony would not help, I guess.

"The deck is stacked and I must play the game. Yet I surely am not to be blamed for the condition of public sentiment in that county as I had had nothing to do with the shooting of their other sheriff. Someone had to pay and I am the victim.

"Had I not been picked for this final scene, my efforts for a change of venue would have been granted and my poor shreds of evidence given consideration.

"Yesterday I was assured that the boys (inmates) of the prison here would try to help me from their funds if I wished to continue the legal battle. But unless the public can view both sides of the story that would be throwing good money away without purpose.

Parker's statement was given while he was sitting in the death chamber which adjoins the gallows room. He has given up all hope that he will be given a stay and often expresses the hope that he can face his death with courage, "as my family are of the best people on earth," he expressed it.
