AND now that September is real-ly here, we find ourselves standing on the threshold of a new social season. Society folks are returning from their annual seashore meccas to make ready for a busy autumn. The younger set is presenting its feathers in anticipation of the fast approach of the college year. Brides there will be, too, and brides, teas, dinners and dances. Gayels will soon be resurrected from the late spring achieves, for the clubs are beginning to send forth a clarion call to meeting.

The Salem Woman's club will meet for the first time this season on Saturday, September 8 at 2:30 in the new club rooms on North Cottage street. This is the first meeting since June, and it is to be very important, with its annual election of officers, and old and new business. Mrs. Harry Styles will sing a group of songs from which the club song will be chosen. There is also the choice of a club flower which will come up for vote.

The social hour will continue to be a pleasing feature of the club this year. Mrs. Homer Gouley is the general chairman of this part of the meeting, and will be ably assisted each month by a special committee. The committee in charge for the September meeting is Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mrs. T. B. Kay, Mrs. F. W. Spencer, Mrs. W. E. Wilson, Mrs. A. M. Vassal, Mrs. Charles H. Robertson, Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner, Mrs. Hal Patton, Mrs. W. J. Culver.

Of great surprise to friends in Salem comes the announcement from Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Bean of the marriage of their daughter, Grace to Mr. Harold John Larsen of Minneapolis on August 17. After a short stay in Oregon and Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Larsen will make their home in Minneapolis.

Mrs. Larsen attended the University of Oregon, where she was a member of Gamma Phi Beta.

Miss Wilma E. Ingalls became the bride of Mr. Irving C. Roberts at a simple but impressive ceremony last night at the home of the bride's parents, the Rev. and Mrs. W. Edwin Ingalls, on route 7.

The bride wore a dress of gray canton crepe and a corsage of ecel bruner roses. The double ring ceremony was used, the bride's father officiating. Only immediate relatives of the family were present.

The bride is well known among Salem folk. She is a former student of the agricultural college where she served as a member of the citation committee.

Mr. Roberts is a graduate of the Oregon Agricultural college, and is a member of Theta Nu Phi fraternity.

Immediately following the ceremony the young couple left for a short motor trip. They will be at home after Sept. 15 in Portland where Mr. Roberts is an electrical engineer for the P. R. L. & P. Co.

The War Mothers will meet Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 in the Chamber of Commerce for their first regular meeting. This is to be a very important meeting at which arrangements will be made to send a delegate to the national convention of War Mothers which will be held in Kansas City, Mo., September 29 to October 5.

The Daughters of the American Revolution will meet for the first time this season on Constitution Day, September 17, in the Chamber of Commerce. Governor Pierce will speak, and a good musical program is being planned. This is to be an open meeting, and the public is cordially invited to attend.

Miss Julia Webster, department president of the Daughters of Veterans, left last Thursday for Milwaukee, Wis., where she will attend the 33rd national convention of the Daughters of Veterans. After the convention, which meets this week, Miss Webster will spend the rest of the month visiting various places in the east. She will return to Salem the first part of October.

The Salem Business Woman's Club will hold its first meeting on the First Wednesday of October, the election of officers will take place and there will be a general discussion of plans for the coming year.

The Modern Writers are to meet Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock on Fairmount Hill, if the weather permits. In case of rain, Mrs. W. F. Fargo has invited the club to her home 1055 North Church street.

J. W. Campbell of Edmonton, Alta. is the week end guest of Mrs. J. A. Carson on South High street. Mr. Campbell, who is a professor at the University of Edmonton, is on his way to Catalina Island from where he will observe the eclipse which is to occur on September 10.

Mrs. O. B. Miles and daughter Jessie have as their house guests for the week-end Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Miles of Medford. Mr. Miles is a prominent attorney of Medford.

Mrs. S. A. Stone and children have gone to Eugene for a week's visit with relatives.

Miss Thelma Fritz of The Dalles has been spending the week as the guest of Miss Bernice Bright on North 14th street. Miss Fritz attended the Oregon Agricultural college last year.

Mr. Wm. F. Dyars and Miss Josephine Dyars of Goldendale, Wn., and the Rev. Wm. Nesbitt Dyars of Portland, were Salem visitors for the past week. The party, accompanied by Mrs. F. W. Thompson, motored to Roseburg, and on the way home stopped to visit with friends in Oakland, Drain and Eugene. They returned to Salem Wednesday and the visitors returned to Portland the same day.

Mrs. W. H. Dyars of 636 North Commercial street, celebrated her 50th birthday anniversary Friday afternoon. A group of old friends called during the hours from 2 to 5. A part of the afternoon was given to a postcard and flower shower. Mrs. Ida M. Babcock, in behalf of the callers, presented the honoree with a beautiful big plant.

After a series of tributes relating to Mrs. Dyars' past life, associations and friendships, a toast to "Auld Lang Syne" was responded to by Mrs. William McCall and the group sang the old familiar song.

During the refreshment hour a large cake, bearing 80 lighted candles was cut and served.

Those calling during the afternoon were Mrs. Willetta Mott, Mrs. T. B. Jones, Mrs. D. J. Fry, Mrs. IKety Graber, Mrs. F. W. Steustoff, Mrs. Wm. McCall, Mrs. Gideon Stoltz, Mrs. Lenta Westcott, Ida M. Babcock, Mrs. Abbig Farrar, Mrs. P. P. Gouley, Mrs. I. L. McAddams, Mrs. F. E. Loose, Mrs. S. W. Thompson, Mrs. Effie W. Dunlap, Mrs. Ronald Glover, Miss Louise Thompson, Miss Vera Wright and Miss Priscilla Fry.

Little Miss Mary, Elizabeth

Hickman of 1765 State street, celebrated her 9th birthday Friday with a party. The rooms were prettily in their decoration of pink and white sweet-peas.

The Hub class of the Central Congregational church with their families held their annual picnic at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Mead, Wednesday evening. After the supper which was served in the grove near the house, the picnickers gathered around a big bonfire, to spend the evening singing hymns and the old familiar songs.

Mrs. Roy Smith of Eugene is the week end guest of Mrs. Gertrude J. M. Page.

Mrs. Gertrude J. M. Page entertained at three tables of brides at the recent Woman's Club garden party which was held on the lawns of the homes of Dr. Fred Thompson, and Mrs. John McNary. The guests included Mrs. Harry Weidmer, Mrs. Harry Wendroth, Mrs. Linn Smith, Mrs. Edward Rostein, Mrs. Allen Carson, Mrs. John Carson, Jr., Mrs. Arthur Wallace, Mrs. S. A. Hussey, Mrs. Leo Page, Mrs. Max Page, Mrs. Walter Page, and Mrs. Roy Smith, of Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McOscar and son Edward of Oakland, Cal., have been spending the week among friends in Salem. Before returning to their home in the south they will motor to eastern Oregon to visit with relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. McOscar are former Salem people. Mrs. McOscar is a niece of Mrs. Effie W. Dunlap of this city.

Friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Lloyd of 1679 Chemeketa street are happy to learn of the arrival of little Margaret Alma, who was born on August 25.

Another interesting event of recent date was the housewarming of Friday night, when a group of intimate friends celebrated the opening of the new home of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Foster at 1045 North Fifth street. The evening was spent in visiting, with a bit of music and, later, light refreshments were served.

On Tuesday evening, August 28, Miss Nettie Denny, who is to be a bride of today, was given a miscellaneous shower, sponsored by the girls of the Ladd & Bush bank, where Miss Denny was formerly employed.

The shower was given at the home of Miss Nellie Schwab. The porch was decorated with Japanese lanterns, potted plants and greenery, and tiny Cecil Brunner corsages marked the guests' places at small tables effectively decorated with pastel shaded sweet peas, where light refreshments were served.

The DeMolay boys were guests of Chadwick chapter of Eastern Star Friday evening at the state fair grounds where they celebrated their annual picnic. Before gathering around the tables "America" was sung, ensemble, after which the Rev. J. J. Evans delivered the invocation.

Mrs. David Wright presided as toastmistress for the evening. Mrs. Emma Murphy Brown was introduced as worthy matron, and gave a speech of welcome to all. David A. Wright was named as worthy patron, and also offered in response a greeting to all. Frederick Arpk responded for the DeMolays, and Keith Brown responded to the toast "The Son of the Worthy Matron." Eloise Wright responded to the toast, "The Daughter of the Worthy Patron." Margaret Steiner responded to the toast, "First Impressions of Eastern Star," and William Nelmeyer responded to the toast "The Eastern Star and the Masons."

A. B. Hanson delighted the group with two solos, and little Stanley King gave several readings.

The STAR Car Accessibility

The Continental Red Seal motor in your STAR Car is easily the most accessible motor in any car under $1,000. In fact, it is one of the most accessible motors in any car at any price. Pistons can be removed through either top or bottom of block. Ask a mechanic, for whose time you usually get charged $1.25 per hour, what this means. The front motor support of your STAR Car is separate from motor connected by studs. Accesibility again. These are only a few of the many advantage of the STAR motor. Practically any part of it can be dismantled in half the time needed for any other low-priced car. Remember, your STAR Car ($584.00 here) means more to you than low first cost. It represents a new low cost for maintenance.
