

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Minor Accidents Reported—Minor accidents were reported to the police yesterday by Harry S. Parker, 464 North Liberty, who backed into a truck driven by C. O. Crooks while attempting to avoid another machine. Audra Winship, route 5, was struck by another car at State and High streets, with slight damage to her car and none to her two girl companions, and J. M. Ogle, route 1, Jefferson, and Clarence Van Patten, 2255 State, who both reported a collision.

Late Model Ford Roadster—Good rubber, good mechanical condition, $125.00 if taken Tuesday, 490 Ferry street.—Adv.

Administrator Named—Mable Walker has been named administrator for the estate of James T. Walker. Valuation of the real property was placed at $3,000 and that of personal property at $900.

Big Drop in Maxwell Cars—Now $960 Salem.—Adv.

Amended Answer Filed—The Oregon Realty Exchange Investment company has filed an amended answer to the complaint of the board of foreign missions of the Methodist Episcopal church covering money collected. John L. White and Mrs. John L. White are named as members of the realty company.

Prison Plans Fair Exhibit—An agricultural, flax and industrial exhibit will be displayed at the state fair by the penitentiary, Warden Johnson Smith said yesterday. Preparation for this exhibit is now under way. Visitors have shown so much interest in Virginia, the penitentiary pet deer, that she will be featured at the state fair.

Does This Interest You?—If you are looking for a job, or if you need to employ help, use the city free employment bureau at the YMCA.—Adv.

north of Salem yesterday afternoon ditched the stage. No one was injured in the accident, and those who saw the accident state it was only by the skillful handling by the driver that injuries were not received by the passengers.

Buyers From Small Orchardists—Prunes in quantities of from 300 to 400 bushels have been purchased from several small orchardists by Noah Welch, fruit grower residing northeast of the city. Mr. Welch, who has purchased a total of 3,000 bushels, now has all the fruit he desires. The price will be determined by the size of the fruit when it leaves the drier, but is expected to be about 75 cents for the smaller sizes, with a little more a bushel for those running larger in size. The prune crop in Mr. Welch's district is reported to be good.

Prune Survey Easing Made—Estimates on the prune crop for the state vary between 45,000,000 and 60,000,000 pounds, while other estimates place a total of around 50,000,000 pounds. The surveys are being made by the Oregon Growers association. Every district will be covered in order to ascertain the exact number of pounds as far as is possible.

Legal Blanks—Get them at The Statesman office. Catalog on application.—Adv.

Shipping Carload of Tow—There was no half-holiday for penitentiary inmates working in the flax mill Saturday, for the men were kept at work in getting out a carload of tow destined for Tacoma.

Boy Has Narrow Escape—When Martin Jensen, 110 Hoyt street, backed his car from his garage he struck a boy riding a bicycle, he reported to the police. The lad was not injured, he said.

Rural Mail Route Longer—With another mile added to his route that must be retraced, John J. Moritz, carrier for route No. 1, will have two miles more to travel and seven more families to carry mail for. The route is on the Bethel market road in Polk county. The new order went into effect yesterday.

500 Balloons To—Tomorrow, at 2 o'clock, 500 sausage balloons will be sent up at the race track at the state fair grounds, and these balloons will contain orders on the Ideal Shock Absorber company for 20 Ideal shock absorbers.

This will no doubt attract a lot of attention, especially as the company will give a demonstration at the track of what these shock absorbers will do on Ford cars, and in the forenoon four Ford coupes, painted yellow, will parade in the down town districts of Salem, advertising the races.

City and Farm Loans—Lowest rates. J. C. Seigmund.—Adv.

Seabeck Conference Closes—Ed Socolofsky, Marion county secretary, and Mr. and Mrs. Meade Elliott, are expected to return from Seabeck where they have been attending the YMCA summer conference, during the weekend. Mr. Elliott is boys' secretary for the YMCA in Salem. Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Boardman will remain in Seattle for a short time before returning. Everett Lisle left for New Westminster, B. C., to confer with YMCA officers regarding a position that he had been offered. Mr. Boardman is physical director for the Salem organization, and Mr. Lisle was graduated from Willamette university last spring, having fitted himself for work in the YMCA field.

Maxwell Leads Again—Prices drop to $960 at Salem.—Adv.

Three Enlist in Navy—The first enlistments in the navy during the past month were announced yesterday by W. R. Brown, chief quartermaster, in charge of the Salem recruiting office. Three Salem men left Friday for the naval training station at San Diego, Calif., where they will be stationed for two months after which they will be placed aboard one of the ships to qualify themselves in some trade. Those who enlisted were Judson Owen, 295 North Church street; Howard W. Henrickson, 390 South Eleventh street, and Joe Himmel, route 1; box No. 34.

Funeral Designs—Of all kinds, flowers in season at Maruny's, 211 Miller. Phone 916.—Adv.

Sondheim Makes Kick—Louis Sondheim, editor of an insurance publication in Portland, declares in a letter to the public service commission that he always has labored under the belief that windows were to look through and to afford ventilation, and protests that some of the street cars in Portland have their windows nailed shut so the Portland Railway, Light & Power company may use them for advertising purposes. F. A. Rasch of the Portland office of the commission called the matter to the attention of the company, in response to Mr. Sondheim's complaint, and received a promise that the windows would be opened.

Safer Crossings Desired—The Southern Pacific company is ready to cooperate with the state and the state's subdivisions in making grade crossings safer, says a letter of Ben C. Dey, attorney for the company, to the public service commission. Mr. Dey says his company has in times past offered to furnish materials for leveling up the approaches to crossings for a distance of about 15 feet on each side of the track, but has received very little encouragement.

Hopping Begins Sept. 4th—In Hartley and Craig's yard, on Minto Island.—Adv.

Car Shortage 472—Car shortage on the Southern Pacific lines in Oregon at latest reports totaled 472, according to records of the public service commission, 291 closed and 81 open cars. The Oregon-Washington Railroad & Navigation company, which has a surplus of cars, is furnishing some empties to the Southern Pacific company.

Tomatoes of All Grades—Canning $1.00 per bushel. Ernest Inzer, Rt. 1 Box 11, Phone 116F4.—Adv.

make the trip east that he was to begin Monday or Tuesday of this week. Mr. Fereshetian desires to be in Salem when the plans arrive.

The Good Maxwell—Now $960 Salem delivered.—Adv.

Improving Auto Parks—Long Beach, Cal., has just voted $900,000 to make an ideal tourist auto park. The subject was put to vote and the vote stood 12147 for and only 658 against. Long Beach knows the value of tourist traffic. The Vancouver, Wash., Chamber of Commerce has taken $350 out of its slender budget to improve the auto tourist park. Some people seem to think an auto tourist park is of value to a city.

Kodak Films Developed—At the Capital Drug Store, will be the best work you have ever had done. Films in at 8 a. m. ready at 12 m. Those in by 1 p. m. ready at 5 p. m.—Adv.

Not Superstitious—"Yes, we are not superstitious," says Ray Abet of the Grease Spot, then he goes ahead to prove it to any who may smile at the assertion, by entering his Dodge racer in the auto races at the fair grounds Labor day, bearing the numeral 13, and carrying a black cat mascot. Mr. Abet professes himself as very confident that the combination will carry him through either to victory or a nice comfortable bed in the hospital where he can rest up and enjoy the society of some pretty nurse.

Accidents Feared—Traffic men are anxiously awaiting reports of numerous accidents as a result of the triple holiday, as many people take Saturday afternoon off, and with Sunday and Monday following, an unusually large number of people are expected to be traveling in automobiles on the highways. Traffic men are expecting heavy work today and tomorrow.

On Account of Delay—In getting fixtures the Argo dining room will not open until Saturday noon, Sept. 8.—Adv.

Salem Dentists Move—Utter Brothers, dentists, are moving their offices from the Bank of Commerce building to State and Commercial streets, where they have a fine suite of office rooms with all modern conveniences, including an up to date waiting room. The moving work began Saturday.

Breaks Plate Glass Window—Forgetting that he had left his car in reverse, D. H. Clarke, 1025 Shipping street, cranked the machine by hand. The result was a broken plate glass window at the Smith cigar store, State and Commercial streets, when the automobile backed over the curb and across the sidewalk. Though there were many pedestrians on the street, no one was injured.

Motorist Kills Sheep—"A band of sheep ran over me," A. M. Hansen, 562 Mill street, said in an excited manner when he reported an accident to the police yesterday. Hansen said he was driving on the Pacific highway about three miles north of Independence when all of a sudden the sheep appeared in front of him. Before he could apply the brakes the machine rolled into the band, killing several.

Dr. Kantner Not Home—Dr. W. C. Kantner, who has been spending his vacation in the Puget Sound country, accompanied by Mrs. Kantner, has not yet arrived home. He is expected during the week. There will be no services at the First Congregational church today, excepting Sunday school at 10.

Committed to State School—Louise Willoughby was committed to the state school for girls for an indeterminate term yesterday afternoon by Justice of the Peace Kuntz. The Willoughby girl was recently arrested on a larceny charge. Her companion, Thelma Cook-Keene, was sent to the state school about two weeks ago.

Twelve Gladioli Bulbs Free—With each $3 order before Oct. 15th. Six given with $1.50 orders. Mrs. W. W. Rosebraugh, 1422 State.—Adv.

Train Delayed by Fire—Train No. 16 on the Oregon Electric was nearly an hour late Saturday afternoon owing to the train crew on the train that connects with the main line at Gray for Corvallis being late. A grass fire was discovered by the trainmen on the branch line, and they stopped to put it out. No serious damage resulted. Train No. 16 is due in Salem from the south at 4 o'clock.

Grass Fire Calls Department—When a bonfire at 1210 North Twelfth street broke from control yesterday afternoon it threatened the destruction of a wood shed. Prompt action by the fire department prevented very much damage to the property.

Electronic Reactions of Abrams—Dr. White, 506 U. S. Bank bldg.—Adv.

Prune Price Not Set—Final setting of the prune price will depend upon the market finding its level, General Manager Mortensen, of the California Growers, said yesterday. He also stated that the association wished to avoid any opening price that would surely be cut by independent growers. No price for the opening will be set until the hold-over has been cleared up and the prunes are ready for shipment.

City Council Meets Tuesday—Owing to the holiday Monday the city council has postponed its regular meeting until Tuesday night. Several paving ordinances are expected to be acted upon, while the parking and safety zone ordinance is not expected to be reported back by the ordinance committee. Harry Tangemann, or his attorney, have been notified that they must show cause why Tangemann's license for operating a rooming house should not be revoked. This action was demanded at the last meeting of the council after Tangemann had been arrested in his rooming house while in a state of intoxication. The complaint against him declared that he was not the proper person to conduct a business of this nature.

Hawkins & Roberts—City loans; lowest rates.—Adv.

Salem Boy in Devastated Zone—Fred W. Jobelman, of the Bligh hotel, is greatly worried from the reports of the earthquake and subsequent fire in Japan. His son, Fred W. Jobelman, Jr., sailed from Portland for that section of the country on August 16.

Two Schools Open Tuesday—Two schools in the county will reopen Tuesday following the summer vacation, according to Mrs. Mary Fulkerson, county school superintendent. Miss Marie Lambert will teach the Bridge Creek school while Miss Emily Van Santen will be in charge of the Hull school.

Summer School Closes—Mrs. Mary Fulkerson, county school superintendent, returned yesterday from Aumsville where she conducted a summer school for primary teachers of the week was 33 teachers.

Demurrer Filed—Paul H. Sproat filed a demurrer to the complaint of U. S. Page on the grounds that there was not enough evidence to constitute cause for action.

Many Will Marry—September started off with a rush in the marriage license bureau yesterday. Jack F. Unruh and Catharine Barendrick were issued a license and they will be married today at the Bungalow Christian church. Both are from Salem. Other permits were issued to Lola V. Ruble and Clarence A. Eldridge, dentist, both of Aurora; Irving C. Roberts and Wilma Ingalls, Salem; Alta May Lewis, Silverton teacher, and Robert M. Yoco, of Waldport; H. F. Haldeman, Lebanon, and Bessie Mae Anderson of Salem; Elsie Gennar of Bridge Creek and Gardner Teal of Vancouver, Wash. A license a day was the average for the month of August with 31 permits issued by the county clerk's office.
