

ARLETA COMES FOR TWO GAMES HERE

Baseball Both Today and Tomorrow to Begin at 3 O'Clock Afternoon

Today and Monday the Senators and the Arleta club team will meet at Oxford field in a two-game series. Speck Keene, who is back from a honeymoon, will be in a Senator suit Sunday and Monday. Bill Reinhart, one of the best ball players produced in Salem, and having a college reputation, will also be here and may play second base.

In meeting the Arleta team the Senators will need a strong lineup, as the Portlanders were the victors in a game played with the Senators several months ago by a score of 2 to 1.

In the Sunday game Keene will play first base with Adolph holding the bench and ready to play in case Keene should go in for Ashby at pitching in a hard-pressed moment. Humphries will be away for the two games.

The game Monday will be played in the afternoon, beginning at 3 o'clock. Considerable investigation on the part of Manager Harry Wenderoth revealed the fact that few fans would attend both the game and the auto races, providing the game was played in the morning. A majority of the players were in favor of playing in the afternoon and the matter was settled. The game will begin at 3 o'clock on both Sunday and Monday.

COUGHS DISTURB SCHOOL WORK

School teachers should give the same advice to children who have coughs as did this Florida teacher. "I recommend FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR to the children in my school who had the 'flu' and good results came whenever it was used," writes Mrs. L. Armstrong, Okechohee, Florida. Foley's Honey and Tar contains no opiates. Ingredients printed on the wrapper. Quickly relieves colds, coughs and croup. Sold everywhere.—Adv.

Setting about to choose the 300 most beautiful girls in motion pictures sounds like a staggering task. But members of the committee who choose that number of beauties for "Poor Men's Wives," a Preferred Picture, which opens at the Liberty Theatre starting Thursday, were not in the least alarmed.

For weeks before the actual staging of the contest, the industry was combed thoroughly for all the available beauties not under contract. Then came the contest, and for days the entire staff of Schulberg cameramen ground ceaselessly on contestant after contestant, while the studio lot overflowed with anxious beauties. The committee, composed of B. P. Schulberg, the producer of "Poor Men's Wives," Gansler, the director of the feature, Barbara LaMarr, Betty Francisco, David Butler, members of the cast, and Eve Unsell, scenario chief of the Schulberg forces, watched tests for an entire day, and after careful conference, announced the lucky winners.

The winners were awarded an opportunity to appear in the great hall-room scenes of "Poor Men's Wives," which are said to be among the most elaborate and beautiful ever filmed.

"Youth to Youth," the first of Metro's special stories series in which Miss Billie Dove appears at the head of a distinguished cast of players, is booked to appear Tuesday at the Liberty theatre. Those who have seen early showings of the picture had it as one of the most satisfying screen plays of the season. A famous author, a capable director, an extraordinary cast in a story of rare excellence should certainly provide a photoplay of wide appeal.

Homer Fother wrote the story on which "Youth to Youth" is based. The action was directed by Emilie Chautard, who is widely known as a director of unusual ability. The players chosen to enact the roles of the picture include many who have been themselves starred and featured in photoplays. Among them are Billie Dove, who makes her debut as a Metro player; Guileen Landis, one of the most promising leading men of the screen; Eddy the Chapman, Zasu Pitts, Noah Beery, Sylvia Ashton, Mabel Van Buren, Paul Jeffrey, Hardee Kirkland, Louise Macintosh, Lincoln Steadman, Jack Gardner, Carl Gerard and others.

MAHONEY & TALBERT, two clever chaps who deliver a new line of comedy and songs in a manner that will please the most fastidious. These boys are excellent showmen and put their material over in a business like manner. When it comes to voices these boys are second to none and when you hear them you will admit that their equal are hard to find. The act is clean, classy and up to the minute and will furnish plenty of laughs and entertainment. At the Bligh today.

VICTORIA & FRANK, a lady and gent who present a gymnastic novelty different from what you have seen in this theatre lately. You cannot afford to miss this sensational novelty. It is an act while it only runs nine minutes contains a world of novelties that are bound to appeal to the enthusiasm and entertainment of the audience and will repay anyone to witness it. At the Bligh today.

FRONTIER & LEE will offer a singing and dancing act which ranks with the best of specialties on this order. Their routine contains different styles of dancing with grace that is bound to win approval. Miss Lee is a daughter of the famous Silbrow Family of dancers and has followed the profession of the stage since she was four years old. Miss Lee was born on the stage of the Wigwam theatre, San Francisco, California and is now the mother of a baby girl of four who can dance as well as she could at the same age. At the Bligh today.

FOX SMALLEY, a lovelier pair of vaudeville's finest who present a decided musical, singing and whistling offering that will unquestionably please. They are both young and full of pep which puts their numbers over with a bang. This is a refreshing number and always registers a hit. At the Bligh today.

LINE-UP OF RACERS
Up to last night 19 cars had been signed up, every one of which is known as a fast mount. The line-up includes the following:
Fronty Ford, entered by George Smith, Portland.
Stutz special, Dodge special and Ford special, all entered by Walter Blume of North Bend.
Stephens special, entered by Pat Reed of Portland.
Spark Plug, entered by Ira Cook, Silverton.
