NO-HIT GAME IS FEAT BY JONES

Philadelphia Beaten 2 to 0 By Yanks—Only 29 Men Face Pitcher

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 4.—(American)—Samuel Jones of the New York Americans pitched the first no-hit, no run game of the season in the major leagues today against Philadelphia 2 to 0. Jones was in great form. Only 29 men faced him, of whom three reached first base. Galloway received a base on balls in the first inning. In the eighth Welch reached first on Scott's fumble and Dykes got on when he forced Welch at second.

FIRPO HAS WORLD'S CHAMPION FOR SPARRING PARTNER.

The world's fancy diving champion, Miss Elizabeth Becker, dons the gloves against Luis Angel Firpo, with Firpo's new manager, Horatio Lavalle, as referee, at the Argentine bull's training quarters in Atlantic City.

DEMPSEY WILL TAKE OFF WEIGHT MORE POWER SHOWN BY FIRPO M'CANN MAKES ARGENTINE STEP

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y., Sept. 4.—(By the Associated Press.)—After enjoying a day of complete rest, Jack Dempsey will swing back into his training grind tomorrow to continue work, without further layoffs, until the finish of his campaign a week later. The champion suspended work today on the advice of Manager Jack Kearns, who desired to guard against the danger of having Dempsey become too finely drawn.

Kearns announced the champion was in superb condition, without a worry in his mind, and would start tomorrow to develop speed. Dempsey, according to Kearns, weighs 193 pounds at present, but plans to take off about four pounds in the next seven days. This will send him into the ring against Luis Angel Firpo weighing about 189 pounds, which his handlers agree is his best fighting weight.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Sept. 4.—(By the Associated Press.)—A little more speed, a little more power in the punches and a little less mercy on the sparring partners was noticeable today in the first of Luis Angel Firpo's heavy workouts for his battle with Jack Dempsey September 14.

The Argentine, still in a jovial mood, stepped seven rounds with his helpers and sent them all to the dressing room with chimes in their ears.

Stocky Joe McCann was unusually lively. He made Firpo dance a bit in their two rounds. Firpo slammed his right into McCann's ribs and had the big fellow puffing at the end of the first round.

Jeff Clark, the Joplin Ghost, bobbed around for one round and pushed his face into a countless number of straight lefts.

Frank Koebel, the light heavyweight, suffered most at the fists of Firpo. In the second half of their session the Argentine caught the Brooklyn youngster in the ribs with a right and Frank doubled up like a pocket knife. Koebel was soon able to resume with vigor. Natalio Pera took an unusually heavy mauling.

WILLIE MEEHAN BEAT DEMPSEY

San Francisco Heavyweight Once Took Decision From Champion

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—(By the Associated Press.)—Willie Meehan, the pudgy heavyweight of San Francisco, occupies a unique place in the ring record of Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion.

He is one of two men—Jack Downey is the other—who have won referee's decisions over Dempsey since the latter took up boxing.

He is the only man Dempsey has met more than once in the ring, who was not eventually knocked out by the Manassa Mauler.

Billy Miske faced Dempsey twice and was not knocked out. But the third time Dempsey stopped him in three rounds.

Carl Morr's lost a four-round decision to Dempsey the first time he met the champion-to-be. The next time they met Dempsey knocked him out in a round. Gunboat Smith's adventures with Dempsey were similar to those of Morr's. The first time he lost a four round decision; the next time he was stopped in a few punches.

Meehan boxed Dempsey four times, losing once, drawing twice, and taking a decision from him in 1918 after Dempsey had punched his way through a host of opponents in the east. Meehan is no longer active in the boxing game. Downey, who won a decision from Dempsey at the outset of the latter's career is now a trainer for one of the Pacific coast league baseball clubs.

Contrasted with Meehan's ability to evade Dempsey's knockout punch, is the fate of Bill Brennan, who faced Dempsey twice and was stopped each time, once in six rounds, and the next time in 12. Brennan, too, was stopped in 12 rounds by Luis Firpo. He and Willard are the only men whom Dempsey and his challenger from South America have met in the ring.

To most everybody 30 x 3 1/2 means USCO

NATURALLY USCO'S could hardly have delivered such money's worth — tire after tire — without making a clean sweep.

It's been a pretty performance every time — no two opinions about that.

And no two opinions about what tire to get again after a man has once used USCO.
