

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Arm Broken.—O. W. Humphreys of Victor Point broke his right forearm while cranking his car Tuesday. Both bones were broken and he is now at the Willamette sanitarium.

Auction sale of real good furniture Friday next, 642 N. High St. in rear. F. N. Woody is the auctioneer.—Adv.

Bootees Claimed.—The son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Wilson, 460 North Twenty-third street, who was born in the new maternity ward of the Deaconess hospital Tuesday, is now the owner of the pair of bootees knitted by one of the women of the old people's department of the hospital. Another pair for the first girl born in the new maternity ward, is still waiting to be claimed.

Is New Resident.—Albert Knutson, recently a successful business man in Bellingham, Wn., has moved to Salem with his family. He will be engaged in repairing radiators at 343 Ferry street.

Final Hearing Set.—Final hearing in the estate of Sarah A. Jory has been set for October 8, and for the estate of O. C. Jerman, the final hearing has been set for October 15.

Stayton Schools Open Soon.—An announcement from the Stayton city schools contains the information that school will open on September 17. Professor O. V. White, principal of the high school sends out a neat announcement of the work to be done the coming year.

Does This Interest You?—If you are looking for a job, or if you need to employ help, use the free city employment bureau at the YMCA.—Adv.

Home-Grown Canteloupes Here.—Canteloupes from the Parkdale orchards are now being received on the Salem market by the Pacific Fruit & Produce company. The fruit, grown by Souey Sun, is said to be of excellent quality. The fruit concern will handle tomatoes from this orchard exclusively, as they are said to be among the best raised in the district.

Harvesting Periods Overlap.—Prune orchardists may face a little difficulty in obtaining help in harvesting this year's crop owing to an overlapping of the hop picking and prune picking season. No serious labor shortage is anticipated, however, it is customary for the hop pickers to move to the orchards upon the termination of the work in the hop yards.

Lost—On South Commercial St.—A fur neckpiece Wednesday morning. Maxine Myers, The Spa.—Adv.

School May Be Gone.—That the Margaret E. Long school for girls of Tokio, was destroyed in the earthquake Saturday was the belief of Miss Bertha Clawson, superintendent of that school, according to a recent dispatch from Colorado Springs, where she is attending the convention of the Disciples of Christ. Miss Clawson said the school is located in the region reported devastated. Mrs. Margaret E. Long, wife of R. A. Long of the Long-Bell Lumber company is reported to be the founder of the school.

Legal Blanks.—Get them at The Statesman office. Catalog on application.—Adv.

Pear Crop Light.—Valley pears are yielding a light crop this year and the season of picking the Bartlett is nearly over. Later varieties are said to be produced in small quantities.

Albany Fair Is Praised.—That the Linn county fair is the best in the history of Albany is the opinion of Mrs. Ben W. Vick, former Albany girl, who attended the opening day. Albany has spent more money in its efforts to make a success of the affair than ever before. Nearly 5000 attended the opening day. Salem people in the party with Mrs. Vick were Mr. and Mrs. Kerby Ross, Miss Arleen Gerr, Portland, and Alfred Miller.

Church Meeting Tonight.—The fourth quarterly conference of the First Methodist church will be held at the church at 6:30 o'clock this evening and the congregation is invited. At that time Rev. Blaine E. Kirkpatrick, pastor of the church will give his annual report. Also a lay delegate to the annual Oregon conference to be held at First church in Portland will be elected. The members will bring their dinners for the gathering this evening.

Hop Pickers Wanted.—It's up to you absolutely, one of the best yards in the valley, nine miles north of Salem on the river road. Two weeks picking. Come and see for yourself. Phone 59F22.—Adv.

Hurts Shoulder.—Mrs. A. C. Banker, 564 South Sixteenth street, slipped and fell while feeding a cat Tuesday. Her right shoulder was dislocated.

Wyant Leaves Hospital.—Jerry Wyant, well known Pacific coast printer, was able to leave the Willamette sanitarium yesterday. He was operated upon about a month ago, when a surgeon's rubber glove was removed from his bladder. Wyant, stood the trip home in fine shape, and is now at the J. L. Vibbert residence, 1120 South Commercial street.

Nearly New.—Ludwig piano $275. Terms $10 a month. Geo. C. Will, 432 State street.—Adv.

Secretary Leaves.—Meade Elliott, for the last year secretary of the boys' work at the YMCA, will leave Friday for Seattle. He will be in charge of boys' work in the city building in Seattle.

Overland Prices Cut.—A substantial reduction in the price of Overland models will be announced in a few days by Vick Brothers. A telegram received by Alfred J. Vick this week gave notice of the reduction, but did not quote the new prices.

Fresh Tomatoes, 80c.—Per bushel. Ernest Infer, Rt. 1, box 11. Phone 116F4.—Adv.

Many Pickers at Horst Yard.—Across the river in Polk county nearly 1000 hop pickers are busy harvesting the crop of the Horst yards. With 1500 pickers employed by the T. A. Livesley yards, it is estimated that between 4000 and 5000 people are now at work.

Girls' Dormitory Crowded.—All rooms for girls in Lausanne hall have been spoken for already, according to word from the registrar's office at Willamette university, and there is a greater demand than can be supplied. First year girl students are required to stay at the dormitory, while the boys are permitted to room wherever they desire. An effort to find someone living in the vicinity of the campus who would take care of from 8 to 10 girls during the school year has been futile so far. Many inquiries concerning registration are being received and an enrollment fully as large as that of last year is predicted when the college doors open on September 17.

Get them at The Statesman office. Catalog on application.—Adv.

Pear Crop Light.—Valley pears are yielding a light crop this year and the season of picking the Bartlett is nearly over. Later varieties are said to be produced in small quantities.

Albany Fair Is Praised.—That the Linn county fair is the best in the history of Albany is the opinion of Mrs. Ben W. Vick, former Albany girl, who attended the opening day. Albany has spent more money in its efforts to make a success of the affair than ever before. Nearly 5000 attended the opening day. Salem people in the party with Mrs. Vick were Mr. and Mrs. Kerby Ross, Miss Arleen Gerr, Portland, and Alfred Miller.

Fishing Fine on Siletz.—A catch of 85 fish of various weights, is reported by H. M. Doud, Dick Riddle and Chet Ridgeway, who spent their Labor day vacation along the falls of the Siletz river.

Couple Plead Not Guilty.—Transportation of liquor charges were denied by J. W. South and Edna Cooper who entered pleas of not guilty in the justice court Wednesday afternoon. Their trial was set for Friday morning. This will be preceded by a trial in police court today upon a charge of possession of intoxicating liquor. A new charge was filed against the pair in the justice court today, covering all angles of the case, and doing away with the two previous charges. As the first charges were filed Sunday, it was believed a question of legality might be raised by the defendants. Bail was set at $500 each, which they were unable to provide.

Hawkins & Roberts.—City loans; lowest rates.—Adv.

Officer Victor on Vacation.—Patrolman Oscar Victor is spending his customary two weeks vacation in the hopyards. Though the oldest man on the Salem force in point of service, having been connected with the police department for the past seven years, Officer Victor is the last man to take his vacation.

Another Residence Burglarized.—That her home was thoroughly ransacked Tuesday night and a coat stolen was reported to the police yesterday by Mrs. Lillie Podstane, 1805 Trade street.

Salem Sees Herrians.—About 25 Herrians from Newburg passed through Salem yesterday on their way to Albany and the Linn county fair. A special train bearing the Portland Rosarians also passed through the city.

Man Injured in Accident.—M. H. Weaver, Portland, received cuts and bruises when his machine was driven into one owned by M. J. Mahoney of Ger-vals, according to Mahoney's report to the police. The accident occurred about noon yesterday five miles south of Salem. Weaver was driving south and Mahoney north. Both machines were badly damaged.

Union School Election Falls.—The proposal to form a union high school district in the Oak Grove district failed to carry since a majority of the districts involved did not give it a majority vote which is required by law. The district in question is in Clackamas county and comprises 12 districts, a part of one being in Marion county. The district boundary board canvassed the vote yesterday and found that the vote was 345 yes and 287 no. Six districts gave a majority for the union school with six also against such a union.

Cold Winter Predicted.—Prophets who base their prophecies upon omens are now engaged in predicting a long hard winter as a consequence of hearing a flock of wild geese headed south over the city early Wednesday morning.

Examinations Held.—The September eighth grade examinations will be held today in the office of Mrs. Mary Fulkerson, county superintendent of schools. Students who were conditioned after the spring examinations will take the tests.
