

NOT GUILTY JURY VERDICT

Attorneys Surprised at Outcome of Trial of South and Mrs. Cooper

Charges of transportation of intoxicating liquor failed in the justice court yesterday when a verdict of not guilty was returned in favor of J. W. South and Mrs. Edna Cooper.

Law enforcement officers, especially District Attorney John H. Carson, were greatly surprised at the verdict, as they believed they had an air-tight case against the defendants. Attorney Don Miles, who represented the defendants, said he also was surprised by the verdict.

Officers Testify

Testimony given by Officers Olson and Shelton, who made the arrest, was to the effect that they had seen the couple drive into the Marion garage, leave with a black grip for Jack's cafe, return to the garage and drive off a little before 4 o'clock Sunday morning. They followed in the police car and said they drove up beside the other car, driven by South, when the intersection of Center and Front was reached. Here they said they fired a shot at the other car, hoping to puncture a tire, when South "stepped on" the gas. Both South and Cooper denied that the police car had halted them, and said that the first shot they heard was fired while the machine was well over the bridge and in Polk county. The South car was finally stopped by a flat tire about two miles from West Salem, after Officer Olson had put a bullet through the rubber.

Bag Thrown From Car

Both officers testified that while the car they were pursuing was on a right hand curve and in full view, they saw Mrs. Cooper throw a bag from it. This was also denied, though the officers stopped on the way back and picked up the bag, which was offered as evidence. The bag, it was said, contained three pints of moonshine and a quantity of broken glass and whiskey soaked rags.

Explanation of the verdict given to Deputy District Attorney Lyle Page yesterday after the trial was that while they believed the pair to be guilty as charged, they also believed that the police were negligent in making the arrest, which should have been made, in their opinion, when the couple left the garage. Officers Olson and Shelton said they did not arrest the pair as they were hoping to catch them in the act of making a sale, and then attempted to arrest them as they were about to leave the county.

New Charge Filed

Members of the jury who sat on the case were Edward Rostein, Louis Bechtel, P. W. Reynolds, Lloyd E. Ramsden, Charles O'Brien and A. A. Keene. Following the acquittal on the transportation charge, District Attorney Carson filed a complaint charging them with possession of liquor.

Both South and Mrs. Cooper are confined to the county jail awaiting trial on the latter charge in the justice court Monday.

Newspaper Editors of County Met Yesterday

Advertising rates and other questions of interest to weekly newspapermen of Marion county were discussed yesterday at a meeting at the Chamber of Commerce. It is possible that an association may be formed later.

Those attending were: John T. Hoblitt, Appeal, Silverton; E. B. Kottke, Tribune, Silverton; L. C. McShane, Enterprise, Hubbard; J. M. Eiseu and Joseph Franz, News, Mt. Angel; George F. Rowley, Tribune, Turner; E. D. Alexander, Mail, Stayton; Will Carver, Salem.

Fred Curry, secretary of the state fair board, was present and thanked the editors for boosting the fair. "He said he hoped future legislatures would make possible a larger sum for an advertising budget."

"By advertising more liberally in our state papers we can double or treble our fair attendance," he said.

Auto Park Office to Be Moved, Says Mayor Giesy

Mayor John E. Giesy is one strong man, maybe, in the estimation at least of Superintendent T. G. Albert of the Salem auto park. Mayor Giesy called Mr. Albert last night and assured him that the office at the auto park will be moved to its proper location within the next week.

Mr. Albert has sought to have this accomplished for many months and always the street department is too busy to do anything about it.

August, with 1127 cars registered at the park, established a record for the year, according to Mr. Albert's books. July was the peak month in 1922 with 743 cars registered. During August last year only 724 cars were registered.

New arrivals at the park last night were Carl Brornton, Gaston; F. H. Rummung, Havard, Ill.; G. Colby, Hollywood; R. Rengerman, Denver; James B. Voleh, Sioux Falls; W. R. Llewellyn, Umatilla; A. Bell, Vancouver, B. C.; W. L. Johnson, Ashland; P. H. Acton, Kemmer, Wyo.; L. J. Lamb, O. E. Smith, L. E. Parrish, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Fuller, Dr. D. A. Wallace, Safford, Kansas; A. L. Harrison, Custer, S. D.; Frank Wright, Hollister, Cal.; D. S. Glenn, J. L. Lason, Moscow, Idaho; William Waller, Ashland; F. B. Brewer, Holy River; L. H. Meader, Patterson, Cal.; M. J. Armstrong, Pittsburg, Pa.; George Warner, Scotts Bluff, Neb.; Robert Harlid, Yakima; William Breedlove, Indianapolis; L. Johnson, Fresno.

Arieta and Salem Play For Championship Today

The Arieta club baseball team of Portland and the Salem Senators will meet at Oxford field today to play for the baseball championship of the state. Each team has a victory to its credit. Ashby will pitch for Salem and Hauser will catch. The infield will be Keene at first, Proctor at second, Hubbard at third and Baker at short, while in the outfield will be Reinhart, Shackman and Gill. The game will start at 3 o'clock. It probably will be the last game of the year, says Manager Harry Wenderoth.

Parker Has More Time In Which to File Appeal

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 8.—Thirty days is given the defense in which to file additional papers for the appeal of the case of George Parker, under death sentence for the murder of Sheriff Dunlap of Linn county.

W. G. Smith, attorney for Parker, stated he is investigating the case and will file the appeal before September 29.
