

SPORTS --- Here, There and Everywhere

DOG SHOW HERE MAY BE BIGGEST

Fanciers Have Opportunity to Add to Salem's Fame, Says Whitmore

"Dog fanciers have an opportunity to establish one of the greatest shows in the west here at Salem," said C. E. Whitmore, secretary of the Willamette Kennel club, which will bench the show at the state fair.

"The state fair officials recognize the value of a dog show as an attraction for the fair, and are giving the club support that will enable them to surpass all other fall shows in the northwest in number of entries, as well as quality. The show here will complete a fall circuit with Spokane and Yakima and the cooperation of the fair board and the kennel club will make this one of the best shows of the circuit.

"Entries are coming in fast and all the well known breeds of dogs will be represented."

Mr. Whitmore attended the Spokane show last week and secured a number of entries there. Among these are a string of Russian wolf hounds from Idaho that will make the entire circuit. Other entries have come from Seattle and Spokane along with many from Portland and Salem.

Entries will close next Monday and Salem fanciers are urged to Raising the Family - Bullet was scared for a moment himself!

List their dogs on or before that day. Entries may be forwarded to the secretary's office, 40 North Ninth street, Portland, or may be left at E. B. Flake's store.

"Local fanciers are urged to enter their dogs and give the show their support, for a good entry this year will insure a big annual show here that will make Salem the center of interest for dog fanciers of the west," said Mr. Whitmore.

Entry blanks may be secured from E. B. Flake, Hauser Bros. or at Anderson & Browns.

Reinhart Will Coach Freshmen at University

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Sept. 14. (Special to The Statesman).—William ("Bill") Reinhart, former Oregon football, baseball and basketball star and recently Multnomah Athletic club athlete, has been appointed coach of freshman athletics at the university. It was announced today by Virgil Earl, director of athletics. Earl's recommendation of Reinhart was unanimously approved by the executive council of the associated students and by the school of physical education, jointly interested in the development of the Oregon athletic system. His home is in Salem.

FOREST FIRE RAGES

MARSHFIELD, Ore., Sept. 14.—A forest fire which started three miles west of Marshfield this week in the McDonald and Vaughan logged area was today eating into green timber owned by the Southern Oregon company, where there are fine stands of heavy fir and white cedar.

DEMPESEY WINNER IN SECOND ROUND

(Continued from page 1.)

Then that vast throng, whipped to a fever pitch of excitement by the sensational struggle of these two slugging gladiators, gave vent to an ovation that echoed and re-echoed from Coogan's bluff as Dempsey's hand was raised in victory. Ringside spectators rushed for the ring, some hurdled three rows of press benches to get at the champion and lift him to their shoulders.

For a moment it seemed that the frenzy might assume the proportions of a riot, but the police, after a struggle, gained control.

Ovation Given

And while the American had fulfilled popular expectations and the most venturesome predictions of critics by his sport and spectacular triumph, the challenger received an ovation in defeat for the fight that marked him among the most courageous fighters who ever sought the world's title.

Dempsey won because he was the "Dempey of Toledo," the smashing, fearless, relentless assailant who battered Jess Willard into submission four years ago and ascended the heavyweight throne. Firpo proved himself a dangerous challenger, despite the briefness of his stand against the champion, but his inexperience, the lack of all all-around fighting equipment to reinforce his powerful right caused his downfall in the face of Dempsey's superior speed and generalship.

The outcome proved that sheer strength and hitting power alone, plus a courageous heart, could not survive against experienced skill, swiftness of foot and equally as formidable punching prowess.

Calls On Reserve

Dempsey had to call on his all to survive that withering comeback of Firpo's in the first round after the Argentine had been floored five times. But the fact that he had the reserve, the stamina and courage to weather that sudden and terrific storm and emerge triumphant demonstrated conclusively that he is the present day "champion of champions" and in the belief of those who saw him tonight one of the greatest of all time.

Dempsey's victory answered the riddle of his battle with Tommy Gibbons at Shelby, Mont., last July. It proved that the champion had not lost his punch, that Gibbons lasted the limit simply because he waged a defensive fight, intent upon staying the limit and that against a foe ready to struggle toe to toe, Dempsey can give and take the mightiest of punches, and, in the end, win.

Fortune Made

Dempsey gained a fortune with his victory tonight, for he will receive close to a half million dollars as his share of the gate receipts, estimated at $1,255,000 by promoter Tex Rickard, a figure second only to the record "gate" of $1,600,000 established two years ago by the Dempsey-Carpenter battle at Jersey City.

The champion's share, 37 1/2 per cent of the gross receipts, approximately $450,000, while Firpo, whose share was 12 1/2 per cent, will receive about $166,000, twice as much as he got for any previous bout.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION

Toledo 2; Indianapolis 0.
Minneapolis 1; Milwaukee 4.
Kansas City 0; St. Paul 4.
Louisville 3; Columbus 3.

STATE FAIR NOTES

THEY OFF, Sept. 14.—The cottage owned by the camp grounds and will be found at No. 2 Wisconsin way during fair week.

The soldier boys will lead Nos. 2 and 4 Mallock, corner Geer way. Geer way will be the center of promenade activities.

George De Noyer of Portland is pitching tent in his old-time location, No. 48 Chambersville, and his wife will take an outing on the camp grounds this afternoon.

Mrs. E. G. Carpenter, residing 32 Moore as the proper place for putting up tent.

John M. Christopher of Marshfield has written in to have his old-time lot 41 Chamberlain, reserved. Mr. Christopher was a pioneer on that avenue, and had camped there when the now and trees were bothersome oak grove, and Downing avenue the principal thoroughfare.

Mrs. Emma Henshaw of Lafayette, will cottage at No. 25 Minnie.

Read the Classified Ads.

"KNOCKOUTS"! Champions of All Classes That's What These New Fall Suits are Men

Copyright 1923 Hart Shaffner & Marx

NEW IDEAS IN FALL CLOTHES from Hart Shaffner & Marx For Men and Young Men

They're all "champs" of their class—the new Double Breasted; the clever 2, 3 and 4 button (English type) models.

Every one a safe bet—they'll stay the limit for wear—plenty of punch in the style—and for real values they'll floor all contenders.

They're anxious for a real strenuous workout to prove their ability to stand the "gaff" and come back for more. See them in action—on yourself—you're the referee.

$35 $45 Others Up to $60

TODAY LAST DAY OF THE STA-TI GUESSING CONTEST

FREE
Come in and Guess Today

1st Prize $5.00 Merchandise Order
2nd Prize $3.50 Merchandise Order
3rd Prize $2.00 Merchandise Order

FREE
Come in and Guess Today

See Our Window Display
We have on display twenty numbered ties. Some are Sta-Ti, some are ordinary four-in-hand.

Which Are Which?
Get a guessing blank (just inside the door) and mark an X opposite which you think they are.
The correct or nearest correct answers will receive the prizes. Only ONE GUESS to each person.
See Window Monday for Winners.

AUTO RACES and Dare Devil Motorcycle Riders

SUNDAY, SEPT. 16, 1923

INDEPENDENCE OREGON

Races Begin at 2:30 p. m. sharp

Admission 75c