

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Flagman Ordered— The public service commission yesterday issued an order requiring the Southern Pacific Railroad company to station a flagman at the crossing at Crewell, Lane county, and to do so within 20 days.

Dance Tuesday at Salem Armory— The Strollers from OAC featuring novelty arrangements of the latest popular music.—Adv.

Water System Planned— The city of Hood River has filed with the state engineering department an application for authority to appropriate 20 second feet of water from Gold spring and Laurel creek for a municipal water supply. A dam and a pipe line 20 miles long are proposed, and the estimated cost is $250,000.

Extensive Line— Of coats for your inspection during Saturday and Monday, our opening days. The French Shop, 115 High St.—Adv.

Two Fatalities Reported— During the week ending September 13 a total of 704 accidents were reported to the state industrial accident commission. Two were fatal. They were C. W. Richardson, Oregon City, watchman; and Herman Schiefel, Hood River, ditch walker. Of the total number of accidents reported 650 were subject to the compensation act and 54 were from firms and corporations that have not come under the act.

Many Beautiful— Dresses just in, priced from $18.50 up. The French Shop, 115 High St.—Adv.

A New Peach— W. C. Connor, editor of the Northwest Poultry Journal, brought to this office a seedling peach which he raised on his lot at South Church and McGilchrist streets. The tree came up beside the house and no attention was paid to it until it began to bear last year. There was a good crop last year and while not so many this year the peaches are fully as large. The new peach is beautiful to look upon is unusually large. The specimen brought to the Oregon Statesman office weighed one ounce less than a pound, or to be exact it weighs 15 ounces. Some peach it is.

Hawkins & Roberts— City loans; lowest rates.—Adv.

Grade Crossing Asked— The commissioners of Multnomah county have applied to the public service commission for authority to construct a grade crossing over the Oregon Electric tracks at Ryan Place station.

Dance Tuesday at Salem Armory— The Strollers from OAC featuring novelty arrangements of the latest popular music.—Adv.

Hearing Dates Set— September 16 will be the date of a joint hearing at Boise, with the utilities commission of Oregon and Idaho sitting, relative to valuations of the Idaho Power company. The Oregon commis-

HYDRO-ELECTRIC THERAPEUTIC INSTITUTE (Formerly Dr. Scheu) 245 S. Cottage St. PHONE 1182

For Gifts That Last HARTMAN BROS. Diamonds, Watches, Jewelry and Silverware Phone 1225, Salem, Oregon

Salem Ambulance Service Day and Night PHONE 686 179 N. Liberty St. Oregon

CAPITAL JUNK CO. WANTS All kinds of junk and second-hand goods. We pay full value. 215 Center Street Phone 135

LADD & BUSH BANKERS Established 1863 General Banking Business Office Hours from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m.

tion will conduct a hearing in Portland September 24 on the question of freight rates on cement from Lime, Ore. Freight rates on farm products will be the subject of a hearing before the Oregon commission in Portland on October 2.

A Cordial Invitation— Is extended to all our patrons to attend our opening showing of coats Saturday and Monday. The French Shop, 115 High St.—Adv.

Smith Was District Deputy— The attention of the Statesman has been called to an erroneous statement in an article yesterday relative to the appointment of Frank T. Wrightman as district deputy grand exalted ruler for the south Oregon district. The article stated that this was the second time the honor has been conferred on the Salem lodge, and that the first time was the appointment of Judge P. H. D'Arcy in 1916. Instead it is the third time, Dr. W. Carlton Smith having been appointed in 1911.

Announcing Our Fall— Opening of coats, Saturday and Monday. Garments unsurpassed in richness and variety. The French Shop, 115 High St.—Adv.

Big Pee Paid— Rather than have the state foreclose on the property, the Columbia Valley Power company yesterday presented a check to State Commissioner Rhea for $11,688, representing license fees for eight years on power sites at Nettollus and Pelton on the Deschutes river near Madras. The company proposed to develop 157,383 horsepower at a cost of about $15,000,000.

Does This Interest You?— If you are looking for a job, or if you need to employ help, use the city free employment bureau at the YMCA.—Adv.

New Suits for Boys— The boys of the state training school will soon have some Sunday suits to relieve the everyday attire, according to Superintendent L. M. Gilbert. Also the school hand is to be furnished uniforms.

Crossing Allowed— The public service commission yesterday issued an order granting an application of the Southern Pacific company for authority to construct an additional grade crossing over county roads, one immediately north and one immediately south of the south boundary line of Albany.

An Exceptional Opportunity— For a limited number of young ladies, with a high school education or its equivalent, desirous of entering the nursing profession. Mercy hospital, Eugene (fully accredited by the state board for the registration of graduate nurses) offers such an opportunity. A thorough course in medical, surgery and obstetrical nursing, etc., is given. The teaching faculty being supplemented by instructors from the university. For further particulars address Sister Superior.—Adv.

Hop Pickers— 85c per box. Help me and help your pocket. I will meet you Sunday morning at corner Commercial and High street or north end of Commercial street and take you to yards. 10 days picking. Lunch on ground at Salem prices. Phone if you will come 59F23. C. C. Russell.—Adv.

We Buy Onions— See Moody, Pacific Fruit & Produce Co., Salem, Or.—Adv.

Judge Bushey to Speak— Judge Bushey will speak today at the meeting of the Salem grange. It will meet in the Labor hall on Court street.

Moore Apartments Occupied— Tenants are moving into the newly completed Moore apartments at 241 North High street. These are modern in every respect and will shelter eight families. All of the apartments were contracted for before the building was completed, Mr. Moore said, and he men of Salem are backward in taking hold of the Bible school work, not realizing the amount of good they might accomplish and the information they could gain. The men of Salem will always be welcomed in the Loyal Men's Bible school class in the First Christian church at 9:45 o'clock each Sunday morning.

OSTEOPATHY The Original and Genuine Spinal Adjustment Treatment. Skillful. Painless Adjustment that gets results. DR. L. C. MARSHALL, Osteopathic Physician and Surgeon, 228 Oregon Bldg., Salem.

DR. B. H. WHITE Osteopathic Physician and Surgeon. Specialties: Rheumatism, Gout, Sciatica, Neuritis, etc. (Dr. Albert) Method. Salem, Oregon

The French Shop— For beautiful coats. Special prices Saturday and Monday, 115 High St.—Adv.

Final Hearing Set— October 23 has been set for final hearing in the matter of the estate of William Henry Kuykendall. Lucia Kuykendall is administrator.

Beauty Asters— And Zinnias, doz. 25 cents. Phone 1034-W.—Adv.

Damage Suit Filed— H. Willison yesterday filed a damage suit against N. Foteff, alias N. Foteff, for $448 and attorney's fees to cover injuries to the person and property of the plaintiff, his family and guests when the defendant collided with the plaintiff on the highway near Woodburn September 1. The plaintiff charges that the defendant was at fault and was responsible for the accident.

Our Line of Madge Evans— Hats for children is now complete. We have added ladies' coats and dresses and have a full line now on display. Our millinery department is larger and more up-to-date than ever. We feature "Beth" hats, besides having a large line of hats at popular prices. Mrs. H. P. Stith, Salem, Or. 323 State.—Adv.

Divorce Decree Signed— A divorce was yesterday granted Rose Liphart from Paul Liphart. Custody of the minor child was granted the plaintiff.

City and Farm Loans— Lowest rates. J. C. Seigmond.—Adv.

Extension Ordered— An order was issued by the public service commission yesterday requiring the Portland Railway, Light & Power company to furnish an electrical extension to residents along Alder Crest road. The residents affected are F. L. Myers, Rachel Myers, C. H. Ackerson, L. H. Loomis and L. H. Marx, who are required to pay the company $18.85 each. The complainants are required at the request of the company to relinquish their equity in the private line now located along Alder Crest road and transfer it to the company. They are also required to execute an agreement to take service from the company for not less than a year.

Portlet Ball— David T. Luck forfeited $5 bail yesterday when he failed to answer to a charge of speeding.

Cited to Appear— C. E. Elliott was yesterday arrested for reckless driving and cited to appear for hearing at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Capital Exchange— 343 N. Com'l. Phone 1885-W.

Car Stolen— F. E. Gearhart reports that his Oakland touring car was taken from in front of the Gile Mercantile company yesterday.

Boys Run Away— Local police were notified yesterday that two Seattle boys had run away and were asked to be on the lookout for them. They are William Small, age 14, and Melvin Conway, age 11.

Speeders Are Arrested— Speeding cost Lyndon Harris $10 in the justice court Friday. F. L. Kirkpatrick was arrested on a similar charge, but did not appear in court yesterday.

Divorce Suit Filed— Mary L. Larkins yesterday filed suit for divorce against Guy O. Larkins. Cruel and inhuman treatment is charged. She asks the restoration of her maiden name, Mary L. Stewart.

Goes After Convict— J. W. Little, deputy warden at the state prison, left last night for Chicago to return Lionel Hobson, convict who escaped a few weeks ago by concealing himself in a carload of brick, back to Salem. Jeff Baldwin, another captured convict, is still being held in New York to answer to a grand jury next week. Hobson, it is said, originally came from Chicago.

Pursued Wife; Is Arrested— Pursuit of his wife who was on a northbound Oregon Electric train yesterday afternoon brought Leslie L. Roberts, Roseburg automobile dealer, into the police court to answer to a charge of speeding. Roberts passed the police station at a high rate of speed, attracting the attention of Officer Edwards, who caught up with the machine at Union. Roberts was brought back to the station and put up $10 bail. He was booked to appear in police court today.

Appraisers Named— Appraisers for the estate of M. J. Hunt are S. B. Elliott, H. V. Compton and C. A. Sulng and for the William I. Davis estate Conrad F. Hemyer, C. A. Gram and F. B. Southwick.

Report Filed— The appraisers report in the Frank W. Lathrop estate fixed the total valuation at $8,725. Amanda Lathrop is the administrator.

Preston Waives Hearing— Albert Preston, accused of swindling the United States National bank out of $2800, waived hearing in the justice court yesterday.

One Building Permit Issued— One building permit was issued from the city recorder's office Friday. This was to L. A. Willis for the erection of a one-story dwelling at 676 North Twenty-first street. The building will cost $1100.

Fined For Speeding— Eugene Southwick was fined $5 yesterday in police court for speeding.

Portlet Man Released— After four days in the state prison, Charles Fueston was ordered released under $2,000 bonds yesterday. Fueston was received at the prison on September 10 for a term not to exceed five years. He was convicted of a statutory offense against his 15-year-old niece.

Wanted at Sunday School— A friend loveth at all times; and a brother is born for adversity.—Prov. 17:17. Jesus saw two fishermen casting their nets into the sea, and he said unto them, "Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men." Mathew, the keeper of books, had ahead the task of tabulating truths as they fell from the Master's lips. Saul, the barrister, might engage his great talents pleading the cause of Christ before the consciousness of the race. And Luke, physician to the bodies of men, can minister also to the spirit by keeping faithful and sympathetic record of all "the things that Jesus began to do and to teach," and of the later acts of those intimately related to him. The Bible school lesson for Sunday, Sept. 16, is "Luke's Contribution to Christianity." How many men will be in the classes, in all the Bible schools of Salem to study this lesson? Men everywhere are giving more, and more, attention to the study of the Bible and in some cities large classes meet each Sunday, some of more than 2000. Long Beach, Cal., has a class of more than 2000, and there is one in Cincinnati, O., and many more of over 1500. The DEED BAYNE—John Raymond Bayne died at the residence of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Bayne, 414 Bellevue street, September 12, at the age of 27 years. Survived by his parents, three sisters and a brother, Mary Elizabeth of Marysville, Cal., Florence of San Francisco, Agnes and Kenneth of Salem. Funeral services will be held from Webb's funeral parlors today at 2:30 p. m. Rev. Mr. Kautner officiating. Interment in City View cemetery.

Car Stolen— F. E. Gearhart reports that his Oakland touring car was taken from in front of the Gile Mercantile company yesterday.

Boys Run Away— Local police were notified yesterday that two Seattle boys had run away and were asked to be on the lookout for them. They are William Small, age 14, and Melvin Conway, age 11.

Speeders Are Arrested— Speeding cost Lyndon Harris $10 in the justice court Friday. F. L. Kirkpatrick was arrested on a similar charge, but did not appear in court yesterday.

Divorce Suit Filed— Mary L. Larkins yesterday filed suit for divorce against Guy O. Larkins. Cruel and inhuman treatment is charged. She asks the restoration of her maiden name, Mary L. Stewart.

Goes After Convict— J. W. Little, deputy warden at the state prison, left last night for Chicago to return Lionel Hobson, convict who escaped a few weeks ago by concealing himself in a carload of brick, back to Salem. Jeff Baldwin, another captured convict, is still being held in New York to answer to a grand jury next week. Hobson, it is said, originally came from Chicago.

Pursued Wife; Is Arrested— Pursuit of his wife who was on a northbound Oregon Electric train yesterday afternoon brought Leslie L. Roberts, Roseburg automobile dealer, into the police court to answer to a charge of speeding. Roberts passed the police station at a high rate of speed, attracting the attention of Officer Edwards, who caught up with the machine at Union. Roberts was brought back to the station and put up $10 bail. He was booked to appear in police court today.

Appraisers Named— Appraisers for the estate of M. J. Hunt are S. B. Elliott, H. V. Compton and C. A. Sulng and for the William I. Davis estate Conrad F. Hemyer, C. A. Gram and F. B. Southwick.

Report Filed— The appraisers report in the Frank W. Lathrop estate fixed the total valuation at $8,725. Amanda Lathrop is the administrator.

Preston Waives Hearing— Albert Preston, accused of swindling the United States National bank out of $2800, waived hearing in the justice court yesterday.

One Building Permit Issued— One building permit was issued from the city recorder's office Friday. This was to L. A. Willis for the erection of a one-story dwelling at 676 North Twenty-first street. The building will cost $1100.

Fined For Speeding— Eugene Southwick was fined $5 yesterday in police court for speeding.

Portlet Man Released— After four days in the state prison, Charles Fueston was ordered released under $2,000 bonds yesterday. Fueston was received at the prison on September 10 for a term not to exceed five years. He was convicted of a statutory offense against his 15-year-old niece.

Wanted at Sunday School— A friend loveth at all times; and a brother is born for adversity.—Prov. 17:17. Jesus saw two fishermen casting their nets into the sea, and he said unto them, "Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men." Mathew, the keeper of books, had ahead the task of tabulating truths as they fell from the Master's lips. Saul, the barrister, might engage his great talents pleading the cause of Christ before the consciousness of the race. And Luke, physician to the bodies of men, can minister also to the spirit by keeping faithful and sympathetic record of all "the things that Jesus began to do and to teach," and of the later acts of those intimately related to him. The Bible school lesson for Sunday, Sept. 16, is "Luke's Contribution to Christianity." How many men will be in the classes, in all the Bible schools of Salem to study this lesson? Men everywhere are giving more, and more, attention to the study of the Bible and in some cities large classes meet each Sunday, some of more than 2000. Long Beach, Cal., has a class of more than 2000, and there is one in Cincinnati, O., and many more of over 1500. The DEED BAYNE—John Raymond Bayne died at the residence of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Bayne, 414 Bellevue street, September 12, at the age of 27 years. Survived by his parents, three sisters and a brother, Mary Elizabeth of Marysville, Cal., Florence of San Francisco, Agnes and Kenneth of Salem. Funeral services will be held from Webb's funeral parlors today at 2:30 p. m. Rev. Mr. Kautner officiating. Interment in City View cemetery.

Car Stolen— F. E. Gearhart reports that his Oakland touring car was taken from in front of the Gile Mercantile company yesterday.

Boys Run Away— Local police were notified yesterday that two Seattle boys had run away and were asked to be on the lookout for them. They are William Small, age 14, and Melvin Conway, age 11.

Speeders Are Arrested— Speeding cost Lyndon Harris $10 in the justice court Friday. F. L. Kirkpatrick was arrested on a similar charge, but did not appear in court yesterday.

Divorce Suit Filed— Mary L. Larkins yesterday filed suit for divorce against Guy O. Larkins. Cruel and inhuman treatment is charged. She asks the restoration of her maiden name, Mary L. Stewart.

Goes After Convict— J. W. Little, deputy warden at the state prison, left last night for Chicago to return Lionel Hobson, convict who escaped a few weeks ago by concealing himself in a carload of brick, back to Salem. Jeff Baldwin, another captured convict, is still being held in New York to answer to a grand jury next week. Hobson, it is said, originally came from Chicago.

Pursued Wife; Is Arrested— Pursuit of his wife who was on a northbound Oregon Electric train yesterday afternoon brought Leslie L. Roberts, Roseburg automobile dealer, into the police court to answer to a charge of speeding. Roberts passed the police station at a high rate of speed, attracting the attention of Officer Edwards, who caught up with the machine at Union. Roberts was brought back to the station and put up $10 bail. He was booked to appear in police court today.

Appraisers Named— Appraisers for the estate of M. J. Hunt are S. B. Elliott, H. V. Compton and C. A. Sulng and for the William I. Davis estate Conrad F. Hemyer, C. A. Gram and F. B. Southwick.

Report Filed— The appraisers report in the Frank W. Lathrop estate fixed the total valuation at $8,725. Amanda Lathrop is the administrator.

Preston Waives Hearing— Albert Preston, accused of swindling the United States National bank out of $2800, waived hearing in the justice court yesterday.

One Building Permit Issued— One building permit was issued from the city recorder's office Friday. This was to L. A. Willis for the erection of a one-story dwelling at 676 North Twenty-first street. The building will cost $1100.

Fined For Speeding— Eugene Southwick was fined $5 yesterday in police court for speeding.

Portlet Man Released— After four days in the state prison, Charles Fueston was ordered released under $2,000 bonds yesterday. Fueston was received at the prison on September 10 for a term not to exceed five years. He was convicted of a statutory offense against his 15-year-old niece.

Wanted at Sunday School— A friend loveth at all times; and a brother is born for adversity.—Prov. 17:17. Jesus saw two fishermen casting their nets into the sea, and he said unto them, "Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men." Mathew, the keeper of books, had ahead the task of tabulating truths as they fell from the Master's lips. Saul, the barrister, might engage his great talents pleading the cause of Christ before the consciousness of the race. And Luke, physician to the bodies of men, can minister also to the spirit by keeping faithful and sympathetic record of all "the things that Jesus began to do and to teach," and of the later acts of those intimately related to him. The Bible school lesson for Sunday, Sept. 16, is "Luke's Contribution to Christianity." How many men will be in the classes, in all the Bible schools of Salem to study this lesson? Men everywhere are giving more, and more, attention to the study of the Bible and in some cities large classes meet each Sunday, some of more than 2000. Long Beach, Cal., has a class of more than 2000, and there is one in Cincinnati, O., and many more of over 1500. The DEED BAYNE—John Raymond Bayne died at the residence of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Bayne, 414 Bellevue street, September 12, at the age of 27 years. Survived by his parents, three sisters and a brother, Mary Elizabeth of Marysville, Cal., Florence of San Francisco, Agnes and Kenneth of Salem. Funeral services will be held from Webb's funeral parlors today at 2:30 p. m. Rev. Mr. Kautner officiating. Interment in City View cemetery.

Car Stolen— F. E. Gearhart reports that his Oakland touring car was taken from in front of the Gile Mercantile company yesterday.

Boys Run Away— Local police were notified yesterday that two Seattle boys had run away and were asked to be on the lookout for them. They are William Small, age 14, and Melvin Conway, age 11.

Speeders Are Arrested— Speeding cost Lyndon Harris $10 in the justice court Friday. F. L. Kirkpatrick was arrested on a similar charge, but did not appear in court yesterday.

Divorce Suit Filed— Mary L. Larkins yesterday filed suit for divorce against Guy O. Larkins. Cruel and inhuman treatment is charged. She asks the restoration of her maiden name, Mary L. Stewart.

Goes After Convict— J. W. Little, deputy warden at the state prison, left last night for Chicago to return Lionel Hobson, convict who escaped a few weeks ago by concealing himself in a carload of brick, back to Salem. Jeff Baldwin, another captured convict, is still being held in New York to answer to a grand jury next week. Hobson, it is said, originally came from Chicago.

Pursued Wife; Is Arrested— Pursuit of his wife who was on a northbound Oregon Electric train yesterday afternoon brought Leslie L. Roberts, Roseburg automobile dealer, into the police court to answer to a charge of speeding. Roberts passed the police station at a high rate of speed, attracting the attention of Officer Edwards, who caught up with the machine at Union. Roberts was brought back to the station and put up $10 bail. He was booked to appear in police court today.

Appraisers Named— Appraisers for the estate of M. J. Hunt are S. B. Elliott, H. V. Compton and C. A. Sulng and for the William I. Davis estate Conrad F. Hemyer, C. A. Gram and F. B. Southwick.

Report Filed— The appraisers report in the Frank W. Lathrop estate fixed the total valuation at $8,725. Amanda Lathrop is the administrator.

Preston Waives Hearing— Albert Preston, accused of swindling the United States National bank out of $2800, waived hearing in the justice court yesterday.

One Building Permit Issued— One building permit was issued from the city recorder's office Friday. This was to L. A. Willis for the erection of a one-story dwelling at 676 North Twenty-first street. The building will cost $1100.

Fined For Speeding— Eugene Southwick was fined $5 yesterday in police court for speeding.

Portlet Man Released— After four days in the state prison, Charles Fueston was ordered released under $2,000 bonds yesterday. Fueston was received at the prison on September 10 for a term not to exceed five years. He was convicted of a statutory offense against his 15-year-old niece.

Wanted at Sunday School— A friend loveth at all times; and a brother is born for adversity.—Prov. 17:17. Jesus saw two fishermen casting their nets into the sea, and he said unto them, "Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men." Mathew, the keeper of books, had ahead the task of tabulating truths as they fell from the Master's lips. Saul, the barrister, might engage his great talents pleading the cause of Christ before the consciousness of the race. And Luke, physician to the bodies of men, can minister also to the spirit by keeping faithful and sympathetic record of all "the things that Jesus began to do and to teach," and of the later acts of those intimately related to him. The Bible school lesson for Sunday, Sept. 16, is "Luke's Contribution to Christianity." How many men will be in the classes, in all the Bible schools of Salem to study this lesson? Men everywhere are giving more, and more, attention to the study of the Bible and in some cities large classes meet each Sunday, some of more than 2000. Long Beach, Cal., has a class of more than 2000, and there is one in Cincinnati, O., and many more of over 1500. The DEED BAYNE—John Raymond Bayne died at the residence of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Bayne, 414 Bellevue street, September 12, at the age of 27 years. Survived by his parents, three sisters and a brother, Mary Elizabeth of Marysville, Cal., Florence of San Francisco, Agnes and Kenneth of Salem. Funeral services will be held from Webb's funeral parlors today at 2:30 p. m. Rev. Mr. Kautner officiating. Interment in City View cemetery.

Car Stolen— F. E. Gearhart reports that his Oakland touring car was taken from in front of the Gile Mercantile company yesterday.

Boys Run Away— Local police were notified yesterday that two Seattle boys had run away and were asked to be on the lookout for them. They are William Small, age 14, and Melvin Conway, age 11.

Speeders Are Arrested— Speeding cost Lyndon Harris $10 in the justice court Friday. F. L. Kirkpatrick was arrested on a similar charge, but did not appear in court yesterday.

Divorce Suit Filed— Mary L. Larkins yesterday filed suit for divorce against Guy O. Larkins. Cruel and inhuman treatment is charged. She asks the restoration of her maiden name, Mary L. Stewart.

Goes After Convict— J. W. Little, deputy warden at the state prison, left last night for Chicago to return Lionel Hobson, convict who escaped a few weeks ago by concealing himself in a carload of brick, back to Salem. Jeff Baldwin, another captured convict, is still being held in New York to answer to a grand jury next week. Hobson, it is said, originally came from Chicago.

Pursued Wife; Is Arrested— Pursuit of his wife who was on a northbound Oregon Electric train yesterday afternoon brought Leslie L. Roberts, Roseburg automobile dealer, into the police court to answer to a charge of speeding. Roberts passed the police station at a high rate of speed, attracting the attention of Officer Edwards, who caught up with the machine at Union. Roberts was brought back to the station and put up $10 bail. He was booked to appear in police court today.

Appraisers Named— Appraisers for the estate of M. J. Hunt are S. B. Elliott, H. V. Compton and C. A. Sulng and for the William I. Davis estate Conrad F. Hemyer, C. A. Gram and F. B. Southwick.

Report Filed— The appraisers report in the Frank W. Lathrop estate fixed the total valuation at $8,725. Amanda Lathrop is the administrator.

Preston Waives Hearing— Albert Preston, accused of swindling the United States National bank out of $2800, waived hearing in the justice court yesterday.

One Building Permit Issued— One building permit was issued from the city recorder's office Friday. This was to L. A. Willis for the erection of a one-story dwelling at 676 North Twenty-first street. The building will cost $1100.

Fined For Speeding— Eugene Southwick was fined $5 yesterday in police court for speeding.

Portlet Man Released— After four days in the state prison, Charles Fueston was ordered released under $2,000 bonds yesterday. Fueston was received at the prison on September 10 for a term not to exceed five years. He was convicted of a statutory offense against his 15-year-old niece.

Wanted at Sunday School— A friend loveth at all times; and a brother is born for adversity.—Prov. 17:17. Jesus saw two fishermen casting their nets into the sea, and he said unto them, "Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men." Mathew, the keeper of books, had ahead the task of tabulating truths as they fell from the Master's lips. Saul, the barrister, might engage his great talents pleading the cause of Christ before the consciousness of the race. And Luke, physician to the bodies of men, can minister also to the spirit by keeping faithful and sympathetic record of all "the things that Jesus began to do and to teach," and of the later acts of those intimately related to him. The Bible school lesson for Sunday, Sept. 16, is "Luke's Contribution to Christianity." How many men will be in the classes, in all the Bible schools of Salem to study this lesson? Men everywhere are giving more, and more, attention to the study of the Bible and in some cities large classes meet each Sunday, some of more than 2000. Long Beach, Cal., has a class of more than 2000, and there is one in Cincinnati, O., and many more of over 1500. The DEED BAYNE—John Raymond Bayne died at the residence of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Bayne, 414 Bellevue street, September 12, at the age of 27 years. Survived by his parents, three sisters and a brother, Mary Elizabeth of Marysville, Cal., Florence of San Francisco, Agnes and Kenneth of Salem. Funeral services will be held from Webb's funeral parlors today at 2:30 p. m. Rev. Mr. Kautner officiating. Interment in City View cemetery.

Car Stolen— F. E. Gearhart reports that his Oakland touring car was taken from in front of the Gile Mercantile company yesterday.

Boys Run Away— Local police were notified yesterday that two Seattle boys had run away and were asked to be on the lookout for them. They are William Small, age 14, and Melvin Conway, age 11.

Speeders Are Arrested— Speeding cost Lyndon Harris $10 in the justice court Friday. F. L. Kirkpatrick was arrested on a similar charge, but did not appear in court yesterday.

Divorce Suit Filed— Mary L. Larkins yesterday filed suit for divorce against Guy O. Larkins. Cruel and inhuman treatment is charged. She asks the restoration of her maiden name, Mary L. Stewart.

Goes After Convict— J. W. Little, deputy warden at the state prison, left last night for Chicago to return Lionel Hobson, convict who escaped a few weeks ago by concealing himself in a carload of brick, back to Salem. Jeff Baldwin, another captured convict, is still being held in New York to answer to a grand jury next week. Hobson, it is said, originally came from Chicago.

Pursued Wife; Is Arrested— Pursuit of his wife who was on a northbound Oregon Electric train yesterday afternoon brought Leslie L. Roberts, Roseburg automobile dealer, into the police court to answer to a charge of speeding. Roberts passed the police station at a high rate of speed, attracting the attention of Officer Edwards, who caught up with the machine at Union. Roberts was brought back to the station and put up $10 bail. He was booked to appear in police court today.

Appraisers Named— Appraisers for the estate of M. J. Hunt are S. B. Elliott, H. V. Compton and C. A. Sulng and for the William I. Davis estate Conrad F. Hemyer, C. A. Gram and F. B. Southwick.

Report Filed— The appraisers report in the Frank W. Lathrop estate fixed the total valuation at $8,725. Amanda Lathrop is the administrator.

Preston Waives Hearing— Albert Preston, accused of swindling the United States National bank out of $2800, waived hearing in the justice court yesterday.

One Building Permit Issued— One building permit was issued from the city recorder's office Friday. This was to L. A. Willis for the erection of a one-story dwelling at 676 North Twenty-first street. The building will cost $1100.

Fined For Speeding— Eugene Southwick was fined $5 yesterday in police court for speeding.

Portlet Man Released— After four days in the state prison, Charles Fueston was ordered released under $2,000 bonds yesterday. Fueston was received at the prison on September 10 for a term not to exceed five years. He was convicted of a statutory offense against his 15-year-old niece.

Wanted at Sunday School— A friend loveth at all times; and