WE BELIEVE

By Athalie Prime.

Could we believe, the hand that stilled
This little heart, is kind;
That something more than suffering
And something more than pain
Is to reward our sacrifice
And soothe the tortured mind.

Could we believe that in the realms
A vast and glorious land,
Holds less of glory, less of joy
Is something less than heaven
Without our precious sacrifice
Could we then understand?

Is any word or promise given,
To compensate our loss;
Where dwells eternal life and love
And light and all things good,
And gives unto our bleeding hearts,
A balm that's pure, not drop?

Could we believe a mother's heart
Knows ought of the tomorrow
When she shall know her own again.
Shall fold unto her breast again
And never may give up again,
The sacrifice and sorrow.

Could we believe then all is well
And good, when we conceive
The fairness of a righteous God
Who knowest all things so well
For God, He giveth and taketh away—
Who knows—and we believe.

proceeds of which will be used for the Children's Farm Home. The money coming from the sale of articles contributed by the women's clubs of the state will be applied on the payment of one or more acres of land, for which the federated clubs will be given due credit.

The booth will be under the management of Mrs. Lee Davenport of Portland, and Mrs. Jennie Prael, president of the North Salem union of the WCTU. Assisting as saleswomen and hostesses will be such prominent women as Mrs. Sadie Orr Dunbar, president of the State Federation of Women's Clubs, Mrs. Houston of Corvallis, Mrs. Leander Martin and Mrs. R. A. Bondurant of Portland, Mrs. Osborn of Eugene, and Mrs. David Wright of Salem.

According to Mrs. Ada Wallace Unruh, financial secretary of the Children's Farm Home, it will take $1,000,000 to develop the present project and that will not take care of all the orphaned children in the state. At the present time there are 50 children on the waiting list—more than enough to fill two more cottages. The third cottage, a gift from the city of Portland, now under construction, is expected to be ready for use by the first of the year. There is every hope that the funds for a fourth cottage will soon be forthcoming from the KKK, and the Baptist people hope to raise funds sufficient for the fifth cottage by another year.

It is reported to have been generally misunderstood that the farm home is financed, and indirectly managed by the WCTU. The Children's Farm Home is incorporated under its own name, and stands alone; the WCTU acts as the mother.

The board of directors appointed by the WCTU includes such people as Judge Walter H. Evans of Portland, H. C. Seymour, superintendent of the state boys' and girls' club work; Charles Hall of Marshfield, and Mrs. C. P. Bishop of Salem, all of varied interests and chosen for their progressive interests and business ability.

At high noon, yesterday in the beautiful chapel of St. Paul's church, Miss Allegra Ragsdale became the wife of Mr. Beldon Keller. The ceremony was performed by the rector, the Rev. H. D. Chambers. In the presence of the chosen witnesses. The couple left for a wedding trip, the destination of which was kept a secret. They plan to return to Salem to make their home.

Mrs. Keller was for two years a student in the department of music at the University of Oregon. Over 60 members of the Marion Lawrence Bible class of the First Methodist church met at the home of Dr. and Mrs. M. C. Findley last Tuesday evening for a basket supper and monthly business meeting. Because of the rain the supper was served cafeteria style in the dining room.

After the business meeting, at which six new members were voted into the class, Dr. Findley gave a very instructive and interesting account of his recent trip abroad. Dr. Findley spent three months attending clinics at the University of Vienna, and also in Paris.

Little Betty Dotson was hostess for a dainty birthday party at her home Saturday afternoon. Games furnished the entertainment for the guests during the afternoon. A color scheme of pink and white was cleverly carried out in the decorations and appointments of the table. Lovely pink asters formed a centerpiece for the table which was lighted by pink tapers at each end. Small pink favor baskets filled with candy marked the place of each child, and an attractive pink birthday cake lighted by six tiny pink candles indicated the age of the hostess.

Pink ices with the birthday cake formed a dainty repast. The small guests were Helen Collins, Maxine Murphy, Doris Schunke, Maude Plummer, Virginia Alderson, Esther Elliott, Lucile Mosher, Marjorie McDonough, Eileen Moore, Helen Ralph, Fern Shelton, Pauline Orey and Ruth Roberts.

For a number of their friends, the members of chapter AB of PEO will be hostesses tomorrow evening at the home of Dr. Mary Rowland. For their entertainment an informal program has been planned by Mrs. L. N. Meyers and Mrs. Harry Styles.

Mrs. Alice H. Dodd will be passing the winter at 1499 State street as chaperone to the Beta Chi sorority girls. Her phone is 904J.

Mrs. Frances Newberry entertained for a few friends in honor of Mrs. Saphronia Jessup of Boise, Idaho, at her home Wednesday evening for supper.

Miss Beryl Hoff will entertain at tea at her home tomorrow complimenting Miss Gennelle Vandeventer.

Last Thursday afternoon Mrs. John Humphreys opened the doors of her new home at 1285 South High street to the Royal Women's Sunday school class of the First Christian church. Of the 94 enrolled members of the class, 38 responded to the invitation. After inspecting the new home, the remainder of the afternoon was spent at games, needlework and visiting. Later, refreshments were served to the guests.

On the occasion of her husband's birthday anniversary Mrs. Claude Townsend was hostess to members of the B. E. club and other friends at their home last Tuesday evening. The evening was spent at five hundred. Mr. Orin Watkins winning high honors and Mr. John Spong making the low score.

Later in the evening Mrs. Ed Keene and Mrs. John Spong assisted in serving the light refreshments. The rooms were lovely with large bouquets of brightly colored autumn blossoms. This was the first gathering of the B. E. club this season. The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. John Spong, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Kightlinger, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Davies, Mr. and Mrs. Orin Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Stafford, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Keene, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shaw, and Mrs. Kennon, all members of the club; and Dr. and Mrs. O. L. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. John Hawk, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Stewart, Miss Grace Shields, Mr. Clifford Townsend, and the host and hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore J. Kress celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at their home, 306 North Twentieth street, last Monday, September 10. All four of the children and nine of the 10 grandchildren were present for the occasion.

At the same time Mr. and Mrs. David B. Smith of Warrenton, the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kress, celebrated their 21st anniversary.

During the hours from 2 to 5, a reception was held on the lawn to friends and relatives of the family. The beautiful grounds were transformed into a bower of color with Japanese lanterns hung among the shrubbery, and blue baskets of marigolds, zinnias, golden glow, ferns and white asters placed about the open spaces. The first of the four tables set under the trees was occupied by the four guests of honor. This table had as a centerpiece a bouquet of old fashioned flowers in an old fashioned two-handled Martha vase, which was an anniversary gift to Mrs. Kress from an old-time friend.

Many out of town guests and Portland friends called during the afternoon. The three granddaughters, Miss Esther Richardson, Miss Helen and Miss Margaret Smith assisted with the serving of refreshments.

Many flowers and gifts were received during the day, and in the evening a delegation of Woodmen of the World called to present Mr. and Mrs. Kress with a lovely gold sugar bowl and creamer. Mr. Kress is a charter member of camp 118 of the WOW.

Mr. and Mrs. Kress were married in Menominee, Dane county, Wisconsin, and lived there until 1878 when they moved to Harlan, Iowa.

In 1884 they came to Jacksonville, Or., and in 1899 they came to make their home in Salem. They have four children, Mrs. W. Y. Richardson, Mrs. David B. Smith, Mr. Fred T. Kress and Mrs. James W. Anderson.

EVALINA SHOPPING GOES

THIS week Evalina made a special effort to interest the college girl, but she found in the shops things of interest to all women. Any merchant desiring to be especially included in the shopping story next Sunday may arrange through The Statesman office for a personal interview with Evalina.

How precious in the after years will be those pictures of the little ones. Yet how much more they will mean to you if expressive of the more intimate moods and surroundings of the home. In the distracting newness of the studio, baby is shy and frightened; his pictures are not so sweet and natural as if in his own little world at home. Indeed, we are all more natural in the place of which we are a part. Let the next portrait be a harmony of personality and background. The GUNNELL AND ROBB studio is doing very artistic work in home portraiture. Appointments may be made 24 hours in advance by phoning 263.

"Waffled Jersey" is a new imported Jersey cloth.

The Russian blouse with the long skirt effect is vying with the overblouse for popularity.

You'd never guess what I found in the SONG SHOP. Instead of sheet music there was the most surprising array of imported perfumes, powders, lipsticks, pert, and lots of other things for Milady's dressing table. You'd just love the little slim gold vanity compacts with their intriguing hand-painted covers and generous fillers. They're not too expensive for gifts, either. I found here, also, a complete line of the best makes of stationery that will appeal to the most fastidious taste. If you are puzzled over what to buy for gifts, a peep inside this shop will offer heaps of suggestions.

Lace, crepe de chine, metal cloth, velvet and georgette, are used to make the autumn blouse and the new jacquette.

COMFORTABLE shoes are a most economical tonic, for the right kind of shoes means joy in walking, and lots of walking brings inimitably rosy cheeks and sparkling eyes. VALTON'S are showing a tony red calf oxford in a Cantilever "college girls" last. It's just the thing for campus and school wear or for the athletic girl who demands style plus comfort. Comfort! The minute they're on you'll be whisked away by the magic of seven league boots on the road to health. Remember that old proverb, "Find health and you will find happiness."

The season ushers in charmeen, a lustrous worsted fabric with the sheen of velvet.

Some are tinselled silks fragile as chiffons, but of sufficient weight to hang straight.

Chiffon velvet gowns are smart when they have slightly gathered flounces.

A T. F. SHAFER'S store you will find just the thing for "him" in the wide assortment of bill folds, key retainers and flat purses in genuine leather. Thirty-five years in harness and leather business. 170 South Commercial street.

Predominating colors for evening are turquoise blue (used with gold and silver lace) Chinese blue, apricot yellow with rose and pink and black and gold combinations.

The woman of discrimination chooses her wardrobe early. For the first models establish the mode of the new season. The FRENCH SHOP is having a fall opening of smart new coats in all the rich new fabrics, and clever double collar effects.

Embroideries in Chinese designs are finding great favor in three-piece costumes.

Long sleeves will be very good for street wear, while the evening gown will be sleeveless.

Your eyes are your best friends. Think of the hundreds of miles they travel each day, then add to that the tremendous mileage of the average school day. Help your eyes by getting them fitted now. The MORRIS OPTICAL company will give you expert attention, and they can fit you with a pair of those good looking new silhouette frames.

The novelty jacquette is gaining in popularity and will be longer than that of the past season.

The new blouses have one-quarter or one-half length sleeves.

Do you wear it bobbed or long? Either way, the glossy, smooth, marcelled hair is essential to a well-groomed appearance. Take your hair perplexities to MRS. IRENE SCOTT, and presto!—An undreamed of crown of glory! Four expert marcellers are kept busy at this beauty shop, and they are making a specialty of bobs. Have your long hair made into a switch. Phone 1630.

The unbelted line is still the most popular one for all occasions.

ATENTION busy housewife! Paring knives, kitchen knives, bread knives, spatulas—everything in knives, all shapes and sizes. I found at the SALEM HARDWARE store. And they're not just the ordinary kinds—they're made of Winchester stainless steel, which translated into housewife's vernacular means no more time spent polishing the stained kitchen knives. They cut everything from lemons to bananas just as clean as a silver knife, and they're sharp, too. I found a whole army of time and labor savers at this store of which I shall tell you more another time.

Putty color combined with black makes a very stunning gown.

HAVE you seen those clever new silk and wool woven skirts at BISHOP'S WOOLEN MILL STORE (Roy T. Bishop, manager)? They're made by the Oregon Worsted Co. in Portland, of pure virgin Oregon wool and imported silk, in striking reds, blacks, greens, and browns in plaids, stripes and block designs. You can match the colors of your skirt in Maypole yarns. Can you think of a more natty sports suit for autumn than a woven block skirt in brown with a hand-knitted sweater of rust?

Embroidered fronts on bodice and apron effects is a stunning new innovation.

Ribbons or self material bows are used for closings.

YOU can't very well pass up one of those new "Hold-Heat" electric curling irons that HALIK'S electric shop is showing. They are guaranteed for two years, and the price is unbeatable!

The fitted bodice with the bouffant skirt is rapidly gaining in favor.

The sleeveless coat dress is a new style for dinner wear.

TIS true that happiness for man, the hungry sinner. Since Eve ate apples, much depends on dinner.—THE GRAY BELLE.

Dark wool dresses for fall are often trimmed with appliques of gayly colored leathers.

The unbelted line is still the most popular one for all occasions.

FOR the one who is going away, at HAMILTON'S I found a mighty smart looking traveling bag of mahogany brown saddle leather, with heavy stitched corners. It's all leather lined and not too heavy. A decidedly neat piece of luggage is the enamel cloth suit case lined with tan moire poplin, and it has plenty of pockets. Limited wardrobe and drawer space in the college living quarters increases the value of the wardrobe trunk to the college girl. All of these and many other pieces in the line of luggage I found at this store, at very reasonable figures.

This season heralds the return of amethysts into favor.

OUR dearest thoughts lie too deep for words; but how eloquent are the little acts of devotion. What words of thought a carefully chosen blossom carries. At BREITHAUP'S FLORAL SHOP you will find a flower for every thought and a thought in every flower. "There's Rosemary for remembrance."

Paris makes coat and wool dress collars convertible.

H. L. STIFF Furniture Co.'s Draperies in their gorgeous colorings bright and cheerful in tone, lend an air of unmistakable refinement to every room. Beauty, distinctiveness, and permanence are the characteristics of all draperies from this house. Mr. F. G. Brock, manager drapery department.

Caracul fur is the vogue for fall.

PARIS decrees. — MILLER'S have the goods. And they're mighty nice about showing them. I tried on dozens of the smartest hats—all kinds—turbans, high crowns, and cloches. One particularly stunning one was a "jockey cloche" in ambrosia velvet with black-tipped ostrich boquet drooping over the narrow brim. I also found the best looking straight-line dress of the new outlined plaid in fawn with modish convertible collar and awazzer slash pockets of tucked flannel in a woody brown. Sivakia has added a bright touch to the smart tie with pendants of silver, amber and flame. Doesn't that sound just right for street and school wear?
