

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Extracts Brings $10 Fine—For being drunk, Charles Wachen, Grande Ronde Indian, was fined $10 in police court yesterday. He was arrested for being drunk on too much extract after an exciting runaway Friday afternoon.

Do You Need Service—On your car? You can get it at Lanham's garage. Expert mechanics at ordinary prices. 245 Center St. Phone 820.—Adv.

Accidents Are Reported—Accidents were reported to the police yesterday by Harold Meeks, route 4, who collided with N. Harson, 2417 Trade near the feeble minded school and Herman R. G. Krett, 1095 North Twentieth, who collided with another machine while turning a corner about six miles south of Independence. In both cases the automobiles received considerable damage. Mabel I. Erickson, Salem, reported running over a small tan dog on South Commercial early Saturday morning.

Studio to Open—Elma Weller announces the opening of her piano studio on October 1. For students of piano and DUNNING IMPROVED MUSIC STUDY FOR BEGINNERS. Phone 1351, 695 North Liberty street.—Adv.

Four Licenses Granted—Three Salem couples received licenses to marry yesterday. They were Bledon Keller and Allegra Ragsdale; Francis E. Sunday and Maty Patterson; Clifford D. Cronson and June D. France and Emmett Buchan of Jefferson and Alice Linhart of Salem.

Funeral Designs—Of all kinds, flowers in season at Maruny's, 211 Miller. Phone 916.—Adv.

Final Hearings Set—Final accounts have been filed in the estate of Mrs. Louise Rogers, and the final hearing set for October 23. William G. Ross, administrator of the estate of Garrett V. Standit has filed his final account and October 29 has been set as the date for final hearing.

Appraisers Report Filed—The appraisers for the estate of Mary E. Epley have filed their report. They were William Bennett, R. K. Ohlen and Charles A. Park. The estate is valued at $2672.70.

HYDRO-ELECTRIC THERAPEUTIC INSTITUTE (Formerly Dr. Schenks) 249 E. Cottage St. PHONE 1182

For Gifts That Last HARTMAN BROS. Diamonds, Watches, Jewelry and Silverware. Phone 1265, Salem, Oregon

Salem Ambulance Service Day and Night PHONE 666 175 E. Liberty St. Salem Oregon

CAPITAL JUNK CO. WANTS All kinds of junk and second-hand goods. We pay full value. 215 Center Street Phone 398

LADD & BUSH BANKERS Established 1868 General Banking Business Office Hours from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m.

Notice to the Public DOUGHTON & MARCUS have moved the balance of the fire, smoke and water stock across the street from 286 Commercial to the old Busick corner and are open for business there. We will continue to make sacrifice prices on all the old stock. As soon as our former location is remodeled we will open up again with a complete new stock of hardware and in the meantime we solicit your patronage and will strive to always merit your confidence. DOUGHTON & MARCUS Stayton Schools Open—Miss Lucy Thomas, who was queen of the Rose festival last June will teach in the Stayton schools which open tomorrow. Miss Catherine Hall, also of Portland, will teach in Stayton this year. O. V. White is the principal at Stayton and has seven assistant teachers.

Dance Tuesday at Salem Armory—The Strollers from OAC featuring novelty arrangements of the latest popular music.—Adv.

Grange Meets—The Salem grange at its meeting yesterday decided not to maintain a headquarters at the state fair grounds. The state organization had left it up to the local grange. The members felt it was too late to make any arrangements for such a meeting place.

Medford Man to Preach—Rev. J. R. Sasnett, pastor of the First Methodist church of Medford, will preach this morning at the First Methodist church in Salem. Rev. Blaine E. Kirkpatrick, pastor of the Salem church will preach at a Portland church. Both have been attending the Oregon conference in Portland during the last week. Rev. F. A. Wheelwright of Salem, who is retiring from the ministry, because of his health, will preach at the First Methodist church tonight in Salem.

Dr. White Returns—Dr. B. H. White has returned from San Francisco after spending a week attending the electronic convention and the clinic of Dr. Albert Abrams. On Wednesday the cornerstone of the Jean and Blanche Abrams memorial building was laid. The new structure, which will accommodate 500 patients, will be 10 stories high and cost one and a half million dollars.

Miss Beatrice Shelton—Experienced teacher of piano, will resume classes October 1. Pupils now registering. High school credits granted. Studio, 245 Marion st. Phone Main 1299.—Adv.

Governor Appoints Harry—Governor Pierce has appointed G. Y. Harry, a well known labor leader, to be a member of the industrial welfare commission to succeed W. L. Brewster, Portland attorney, whose term of office expired in January. Governor Pierce in a letter to Mr. Brewster, written on August 28 and mailed on September 12, said that con-

SHANGHAI CAFE 162 1/2 Com'l St. Phone 297. Merchants' Lunch 25c Woodies 25c American Dishes—Chinese Dishes Open 11 a. m. to 2 p. m. Music, dancing 9 p. m. to 12 m.

EOZEMA REMEDY We honestly believe EOZEMOLINE will cure any case of Eozema or other skin disease. Come in and let us tell you about it. Use one jar, and if you are dissatisfied, your money will be refunded. Price $1.50.

FERRY'S DRUG STORE, 115 E. Com'l

S. C. STONE, M.D. General Office Practice Cancers Treated Office, Tyler's Drug Store 157 S. Commercial Street

OSTEOPATHY The Original and Genuine Spinal Adjustment Treatment. Skillful. Painless Adjustment that gets results. DR. L. C. MARSHALL Osteopathic Physician and Surgeon 228 Oregon Bldg. Salem.

DR. B. H. WHITE Osteopathic Physician and Surgeon Electronic Diagnosis and Treatment (Dr. Abrams' Method.) Salem Oregon

Magicians Meeting Postponed—Salem magicians who are planning to affiliate with the American Society of Magicians have postponed the meeting scheduled for next Tuesday until Tuesday, Sept. 25, in order to coincide with the state fair. Among the out-of-town people who will be present are J. Gere, Medford, and Virgil Mulchay, assistant to Fergus Reddie, head of the dramatic department, University of Oregon.

Does This Interest You?—If you are looking for a job, or if you need to employ help, use the city free employment bureau at the YMCA.—Adv.

Webb & Clough Leading Funeral Directors Expert Embalmers

Rigdon & Son's MORTUARY Unexcelled Service

Old Friend Visiting Sears—Mrs. Emma S. Howard, an old acquaintance from Spokane, was in the city Saturday for a visit with D. T. Sears of the state prison and other friends in this vicinity. Mrs. Howard is the wife of the postal inspector at Bismark, N. D., and with her husband is making a tour of the northwest.

Kodak Films Developed—At the Capital Drug Store, will be the best work you have ever had done. Films in at 3 a. m. ready at 12 m. Those in by 1 p. m. ready at 5 p. m.—Adv.

Committee Heads Are Named—Committee chairman for the Santiam community state fair exhibit met with Beatrice Crawford-Newcomb, who will have charge of the display at the fair, at Mill City Friday evening. Chairmen for the various communities are Lyle V. McCroskey, Stayton; Mr. Olin of the Hammond Lumber company, Mill City; Harley Champs, Mehama; Mr. McDonald, West Stayton; Mrs. Mude Lafky, Marion; Postmaster Whitehead, Turner; Mr. Pierce, Aumsville, and Father Lanck, Salmity.

Plans Fishing Rod Display—Harry Hobson, Lyons resident who has won considerable fame as a manufacturer of high class fishing rods, is planning a large exhibit at the state fair in connection with the Santiam community display. In addition to his exhibit Mr. Hobson will superintend the fly-casting contest that will be held.

Traffic Cases Filed—Two traffic cases were filed in the justice court yesterday. Ed Dunn is charged with switching license plates and Louis G. Raymond with speeding.

Traffic Violator Fined—For permitting a minor to operate a motor vehicle, Fred Brown was fined $10 by Justice of the Peace P. J. Kuntz yesterday.

An Exceptional Opportunity—For a limited number of young ladies, with a high school education or its equivalent, desirous of entering the nursing profession, Mercy hospital, Eugene (fully accredited by the state board for the registration of graduate nurses) offers such an opportunity. A thorough course in medical, surgery and obstetrical nursing, etc. is given. The teaching faculty being supplemented by instructors from the university. For further particulars address Sister Superior.—Adv.

Infant Girl Dies—Margaret Elizabeth, 10 day old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Edward Tripp, 156 Division, died Saturday morning from bronchial pneumonia. The remains will be sent to Portland today, with funeral services at the crematorium Monday. Mr. Tripp is employed at the Capital Journal office.

Charity Box is Robbed—The charity box at the Catholic church was robbed some time Friday night and about $4 in nickels and dimes taken, according to a report made to the police yesterday. The money was intended for the poor and needy.

Will Erect New Building—Erection of a one-story building on Court street just east of the Derby building was announced yesterday by P. J. Lafky. The property was purchased from Mrs. Anna Hofer, and will be a building 90 by 40 feet. Mr. Lafky did not say how much the building would cost or when operations would start.

Dr. Mendelsohn—Does not belong to any combine. His prices are very reasonable for the materials and services given. He guarantees satisfaction in every respect. If glasses do not give satisfaction, they will be changed free for a period of one year. Phone 723. 210-11 United States Bank Building.—Adv.

Dr. Mendelsohn—Makes a specialty of fitting children's eyes. One third of a century of practical experience is a great asset to you. Have your children's eyes examined before school starts. If glasses are not necessary I will absolutely not recommend them. Phone 723. 210-11 United States Bank Building.—Adv.

Jeweler Leaves—Claude C. Moon, for several years associated with the Hartman Brothers as manager of their repair department, will leave Salem today for Eugene where he has purchased a one half interest in the jewelry store of W. L.

Emmerson piano one of those rare old pianos made in the days when quality was the first consideration. This piano has been through our shop and is mechanically correct. It has a good tone, will, for quick sale sacrifice for $110. $10 down, $150 per week. TALLMAN PIANO STORE 395 S. Twelfth St. One Block North of Southern Pacific Passenger Depot.

Commercial Law AN IMPORTANT SUBJECT

SUCCESS COMMERCIAL LAW AN IMPORTANT SUBJECT

Commercial law is one of the real fundamentals upon which the business structure is reared. You will have a thorough knowledge and a practical training if you study here.

Capital Business College START HERE!! BEGIN NOW! SALEM, OREGON

Coppernoll. Mr. Moon will take his family with him, as he has sold his home at 350 East Lincoln street.

Satin Finished Damask—Bed spreads in rose, blue and gold, at Hamilton's.—Adv.

Judge Kelly to Speak—Judge Percy R. Kelly will address the local bar association at the state supreme court building Monday at 10 o'clock. The talk will be on the United States constitution and the public is invited to attend.

Dance Tuesday at Salem Armory—The Strollers from OAC featuring novelty arrangements of the latest popular music.—Adv.

Three Men Enlist—Three navy enlistments have been received at the local recruiting office, according to W. H. Brown, chief quartermaster. They are Judson Owen, of 2295 North Church street; Joe Hummel, of route 1, box 34, and Howard W. Hendrickson, of 390 South 18th street. All were sent to the Portland office for examination from where they were sent to the San Francisco station. It had been planned to close the local office August 15 but it has been decided to keep it open for some time longer. It is expected that enlistments will pick up after the close of the prune and hop picking season.

Breaks Wrist—T. J. Brown broke his wrist Friday while cranking his truck. He lives at 724 North High street.

We Buy Onions—See Moody, Pacific Fruit & Produce Co., Salem, Or.—Adv.

Mumford Will Register—Although he must return to his ship for another week, Royal Mumford, a sophomore at Willamette university, will be in Salem to register for the 1923-24 term in a few days. During the summer Mumford has been in the radio service on the "West Nigger," a Columbia Navigation company vessel. During his cruise he was in Yokohama and other oriental points.

Station Being Painted—The Southern Pacific has a gang of six expert decorators, under the direction of Carl Scherquist, general paint foreman, cleaning and decorating the walls of the Southern Pacific passenger station, which will take about two weeks to complete. The Southern Pacific passenger building is one of the finest on the Southern Pacific line, and the local officials take pride in keeping it in first class condition.

Beauty Asters—And Zinnias, doz. 25 cents. Phone 1024-W.—Adv.

Threw Rock at Street Car—Traffic on the eastbound State street carline was briefly interrupted about 10 o'clock Saturday morning while Motorman P. R. Robertson stopped to investigate the guilt of the lad who hurled a rock at the street car, breaking one of the windows. The few passengers in the car were seated at the opposite end from where the damage was done. A youngster gave the information that another boy had thrown the rock, but had "runned away."

Is Handy Handbook—The Willamette Handbook 1923-24 has just been issued. It is comprehensive and neat. Such handbooks are used in every university and they meet a real need. The one here is especially valuable because of the care taken in its preparation. It was printed in The Statesman job department.

Reckless Driver Fined—For reckless driving, C. E. Elliott was fined $5 by Police Judge Poulson Saturday.

Board Has Authority—The state board of control, being in complete charge of the state blind school, has authority to establish as many grades in the school as it deems necessary, according to an opinion of Attorney General Vag Winkle. The question came up at a recent meeting of the state board of control when J. W. Howard, superintendent of the school, said it was necessary to put in 11th grade work. There will be no 10th grade this year.

Prison Hospital Repainted—White paint is being applied to the interior of the prison devoted to the hospital. While the equipment is necessarily limited, the hospital quarters are as bright and comfortable as any large hospital ward. Three patients are confined in one of the smaller wards.

Cherrians Invited—A group of Marshfield citizens have organized a booster organization which they plan to call the Pirates. They have written King Bing Hamilton for suggestions from the Cherrians and extended an invitation to the Salem group to visit the Coos Bay district. The Cherrians have also received an invitation to attend the Lane county fair in Eugene, September 18, as guests of the Chamber of Commerce.

Beauty Asters—And Zinnias, doz. 25 cents. Phone 1024-W.—Adv.

Threw Rock at Street Car—Traffic on the eastbound State street carline was briefly interrupted about 10 o'clock Saturday morning while Motorman P. R. Robertson stopped to investigate the guilt of the lad who hurled a rock at the street car, breaking one of the windows. The few passengers in the car were seated at the opposite end from where the damage was done. A youngster gave the information that another boy had thrown the rock, but had "runned away."

Low Priced Markesetts—Scrims and voils, at Hamilton's.—Adv.

May End Cinders—The Oregon Pulp & Paper company will install a $50,000 boiler within a few days and it is thought this will end the cinder trouble which has bothered Saleu citizens and especially merchants for some time. When the new boiler is installed it will not be necessary to run it under forced draft which it is thought causes all of the present trouble.

City and Farm Loans—Lowest rates. J. C. Seigmund.—Adv.

A Jersey Sale—The job department of the Oregon Statesman has just delivered to Owen A. Thompson of Blachley, a catalogue of his sale of Gold Medal Jerseys which will be held at Eugene on Friday, Oct. 5. This will be a good opportunity to purchase gold and silver medal cows as well as a few selected bulls. E. A. Rhoten is sales manager.

Hop Pickers Cash Checks—A great many hop pickers were in the city yesterday exchanging their box receipts for good cash. In several instances one man came in and collected several hundreds of dollars for himself and other pickers.

(Continued on page 4)

COMING TO SALEM

Dr. Mellenthin Specialist In Internal Medicine for the Past Twelve Years Does Not Operate

Will be at Marion Hotel Saturday, Sept. 22. Office hours: 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. ONE DAY ONLY No Charge for Consultation

Dr. Mellenthin is a regular graduate in medicine and surgery and is licensed by the state of Oregon. He visits professionally the more important towns and cities and offers to all who call on this trip free consultation, except the expense of treatment when desired.

According to his method of treatment he does not operate for chronic appendicitis, gall stones, ulcers of stomach, tonsils or adenoids.

He has to his credit wonderful results in diseases of the stomach, liver, bowels, blood, skin, nerves, heart, kidney, bladder, bed-wetting, catarrh, weak lungs, rheumatism, sciatica, leg ulcers and rectal ailments.

If you have been ailing for any length of time and do not get any better, do not fail to call, as improper measures rather than disease are very often the cause of your long standing trouble.

Remember above date, that consultation on this trip will be free and that his treatment is different.

Married women must be accompanied by their husbands. Address: 211 Bradbury Bldg., Los Angeles, Calif.

Protect Your Family By assuring that your eyesight is in good condition. If you were to lose your eyesight what would happen to your loved ones?

MORRIS OPTICAL CO. 801-3 Oregon Bldg. Oregon's Largest Optical Institution Phone 239 for Salem, Appointments, Oregon

EAT MORE BREAD

The Bread that satisfies the inner man

"BETTER-YET" BREAD YOUR STAFF O' LIFE

CHARMING HATS LUXURIOUS COATS MODISH GOWNS IN SMART ARRAY READY FOR SELECTION

Authentic and correct in color and fashion and destined to be the success of the new season. We extend a cordial invitation to visit our shop where individuality and charm make choosing a joyous occupation.

THE FRENCH SHOP 115 High Street

Fall Opening Days at the French Shop CHARMING HATS LUXURIOUS COATS MODISH GOWNS IN SMART ARRAY READY FOR SELECTION Authentic and correct in color and fashion and destined to be the success of the new season. We extend a cordial invitation to visit our shop where individuality and charm make choosing a joyous occupation. THE FRENCH SHOP 115 High Street