so many men of taste and discrimination bring their guests here to dine? It is because they like the service which is swift and silent, the cuisine which is unapproached, the quality of the food which is high, and the sanitary equipment for which we are famous.

into colleges and universities this fall, according to the records of Principal J. P. Nelson. Although this figure is not complete, as others will probably enter before the school year starts, it is sufficient to indicate a decrease in the percentage that will enter schools of higher learning.

Of the 65 students, 34 will enter Willamette, 13 will go to OAC, and 13 to the University of Oregon.

The list of those who will enter universities follows:

Willamette university—George Adams, Raskin Blatchford, Helen Borchardt, Dorothy Brant, Dayrl Chapin, Edna Ellis, Francis Ellis, Mary Erickson, Joy Hills, Eddie Housley, Walter Huff, Violet Judy, Ruth Kuhn, Margaret Leavenworth, Ethel Lehman, Elizabeth Lenon, Malcolm Medler, Marion Miller, George Nooten, Eugenia Savage, Helen Solig, Lois Taylor, Ormal Tryck, Hermina Klaus, Eugene Cruthers, Hem Sun, John Eaton, Margaret Stolz, Lois Fel-
