FOOTBALL TEAM FEELS COCKSURE

Coach Huntington of High School Expects to Have Winning Team

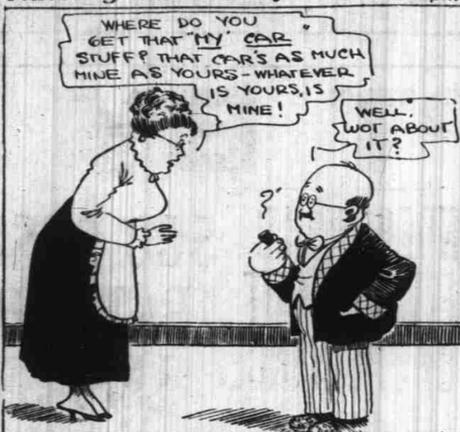

The Salem football team is approaching the season with unusual confidence. It has never felt so cocksure as this season. Seven better men will be back ready to go on the team. They are each strong in his part, and each skilled in mass playing. The seven old men are Coffey, Ausman, Harris, Hamilton, Ringle, Patterson and Caughhill.

Could and Townsend, near letter men, are coming back, full of enthusiasm and determined to make letters this year. They are going to have some stiff competition, however.

The back field is causing the coach most of his worries so far. Paterson is the only man who has shown capacity for playing in that particular position. He has a good firm reach and a steady nerve but he must have help. No one can hold that position through the season.

Coach Huntington is anxiously watching the incoming jr. h's. From among them he must de-

PIERCE ADDRESSES DAR ORGANIZATION

Audience Gathers at Chamber of Commerce for Constitution Day

Nearly 100 persons met at the Chamber of Commerce auditorium yesterday afternoon to enjoy the special program arranged by Chemeketa chapter of DAR, in commemoration of the 136th anniversary of the United States.

Miss Iva Claire Love offered two violin solos, "Souvenir," by Drla, and "Minuet" by Porpora-Kreisler, and Leo Jennison sang "There Is No Death," by O'Hara.

Governor Pierce spoke upon the constitution and what its effects have been upon the people who have lived under it. He pointed out that the United States constitution which governs a people, and the remarkable thing about it is that it has the ability to adapt itself to the changing needs of the times. It is the model today he said of every thinking government in the world.

"Although a government by the people had been advocated by Plato, Rousseau, all the great thinkers and philosophers of the ages, it was not until our document was signed that it ever became an actual thing," said the governor.

Mina M. Cook of Salem Is First to Pass Test

Mina M. Cook, R.N., assistant and pathologist in the offices of Drs. Fisher & Garnjobst, Salem, is the first woman in the state to successfully pass the state examination in x-ray work. Miss Cook to the main prison from outside fires must be reduced. To this end it occurs to me that the walls on work buildings facing the prison should be blind walls and that such fire-walls, separation of buildings and elimination of highly inflammable construction material, should be provided for as is necessary for the safety of the prison and prison properties.

"I request that your board proceed as soon as possible and render your report to me in writing. Any expense incident to your duties in this work will be paid on the presentation of proper vouchers to the executive office."

MOHER RECOMMENDS COUGH REMEDY

"My mother had a severe cough. I bought her a bottle of FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR and it helped her at once. Also gave my son several doses and his cough disappeared," writes Mrs. S. L. Givens, Greenfield, Virginia. For quick relief from Coughs, Colds, Croup, Throat, Chest and Bronchial trouble use FOLEY'S Honey and Tar. Stood the test of time serving three generations. CINDERS WOULD BE WIPED OUT BY BILL the ordinance committee be instructed to draw up an ordinance to be presented at the next meeting which would reduce the licenses to the former rate—$25. Since the next meeting of the council will not be until after fair week, the general intent of the ordinance will be carried out. Mr. Grosspeter of the Red Top company said last night that he expected to bring his cabs into Salem anyway regardless of the high license fee. He said that he would employ local men as drivers and would plan to give the highest type of service.

Tangeman License Revoked The license of Harry Tangeman, to operate a hotel was revoked by the council. Alderman Patton objected to the motion urging that the council "forgive others their

The offer of the Deaconess hospital for lots, 5, 6, 7 and 8 in block 13 of the University addition was accepted by the council. The price was $1242.13. The condition of North Summer street was the object of a heated discussion. Alderman Vandevort insisting that the street commissioner do something about repairing it. Alderman Ralph Thompson said he agreed with Mr. Vandevort and further said the only use he made of that particular street was to demonstrate the easy riding qualities of cars on it.

SUFFERED FIVE YEARS FROM KIDNEYS

"I suffered with kidney trouble for five years or more. I could not sleep at night and I was always tired after coming home from work, and my back ached," writes John R. Gordon, Danville, Ill.
