OREGON'S VARSITY IS SHORT OF VETS

Seventeen Men Appear at Initial Workout one of Whom are Lettermen

Although it is too early for anything definite, the present prospects for the University of Oregon football team this season looks gloomy, according to Ben Maxwell, who has returned from a trip to Eugene.

When Coach Shy Huntington summoned his football candidates on the gridiron last Monday for practice he found that he only had 17 men and that none of these were lettermen.

Ten lettermen are missing from the university line up this year and it befalls Coach Huntington to whip a team into shape with material composed of last year's second and freshman teams which can meet the Bearcat players at Salem on September 29. Last year's lettermen and regulars expected to arrive on the campus any time are, "Hunk" Latham, the agile forward passer, Von der Ahe, Ward Johnson, "Cogs" Campbell and "Hal" Chapman. Great things are expected of Chapman this year.

Moe Sax, though not a letterman, is at the university this year from Washington State college where he won a name for himself as a quarterback.

Among the men that did turn out for the first practice were: Jens Terjison, Mills, Mays, Sax, Carlberg, Toole, Bliss, Stephens, Kiteley, Mautz, Poulson, McMullen, Sinclair, French and Shields.

The Oregon football schedule for the year is as follows:

Sept. 23—Willamette, at Salem.
Oct. 13—Pacific, at Eugene.
Oct. 19—Whitman, at Pendleton.
Oct. 27—Idaho, at Eugene.
Nov. 3, Washington State, at Pullman.
Nov. 10—Stanford, at Portland.
Nov. 24—OAC, at Eugene.
(Homecoming).
Dec. 1—U. of W., at Seattle.
The freshman team will have the following schedule:
Oct. 26—Chewawa, at Eugene.
Oct. 26—Columbia university, at Portland.
Nov. 9—OAC, Rooks at Corvallis.
Nov. 17—U. of W. Frosh, at Eugene.

Each Side Gets Eleven Hits in San Francisco-Sacramento Game

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 18.—The Solons outplayed the Seals, but the Seals out-licked the Solons and San Francisco took the opening game of the series today by a count of 7 to 4. The champions clinched the game in the eighth when, wit htwo down and two strikes on the batter, Bill Prough sased up and Ellison got a single over short. Kilduff then hit the fence in deep left, the ball rebounding to Brown, who threw to head Pete off at third. The ball got past both Rohwer and Hemingway, glancing off the roof of the dugout by the stands. Prough got the ball and tossed Kilduff out but Umpire Ward ruled that the ball had gone in the dugout and run was allowed. Kamper then singled to right and Yelle poled one to left which hit a rock and went out of sight momentarily at the end of the bleachers for a fluke home run.
