When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is mussy and troublesome. At lit-tle cost you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other through your, hair, staking one mall strand at a time. By mornsmall strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as, we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Eage and Sulhur Compound and look years ounger.—Adv.

TO AID STRICKEN JAPAN.

The plans for the relief campaign to aid the Japanese Empire in its disaster were completed in Washington with the Japanese Ambassador to the United States, Masanae Hanihara, and the officials of the American Red Cross. In the photo, left to right, planning the relief campaign are: Ambassador Hanihara, James L. Fleser, acting chairman of the American Red Cross; Secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover, a member of the Central Committee and Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Eliot Wadsworth.

CONDUCTS BUSINESS FROM BED.

William L. Leighton of Seattle, Wash., bedridden for three years with cerebral rheumatism, and in almost constant pain, has opened his office by his bedside. From there he does an immense stamp collecting business that extends to the four corners of the globe. He buys stamps, sells them, and also receives hundreds from friends who know him. A radio at his bedside gives him plenty of amuse-
