old at Victor Point. Mr. Moores will not move to his new farm but remain on the old Davis home where he has been living for several years.

Oregon Protest Will Be Heard in Washington The protest of the Oretgon public service commission relative to the tentative valuation placed by the interstate commerce commission on the properties of the Sumpter Valley railroad will be heard in Washington October 25. according to a telgeram yesterday by the Oregon commission. The Oregon commission placed a valuation on the road about a year ago which is much lower than that fixed by the engineers of the interstate commerce commiss and the difference in the two caused the protest. The difference relates mainly to grading ma-
