it. The thorns are working up through, but he placed the thorns there himself.

"No man can use the measures he did to win an election and not find cause for regret. He made capital out of the discontent of the taxpayers by delivering himself of extravagant promises. He aligned himself with the Klan to get the organization's support and what pledges he made to win that support we can only surmise. He succeeded in polling the biggest majority ever given a gubernatorial candidate in Oregon, though a democrat in a republican state, but in doing so he stored up future troubles for himself, for he created obligations impossible for him to discharge, gave pledges impossible for him to fulfill.

"Even so he has done nothing to merit a recall election. The recall was never intended for use where grievances are no more serious than those against Governor Pierce. He has been in office only eight months, too short a time for much performance. The recall is for use only when an office holder has shown himself grossly incompetent or wilfully corrupt and vicious. Governor Pierce cannot honestly be charged with either offense, however much he may have disappointed some of his ardent followers of the campaign.

"The responsibilities of the high office have sobered Governor Pierce. He realizes perhaps better than anyone else the impossibility of accomplishing to the full satisfaction of those who so enthusiastically followed his banner. We believe, however, that he is sincerely trying to solve the knotty problems which he faces and that he is putting forth conscientious effort. He is no superman, and even a superman would have difficulty in measuring up to the demands made upon him—demands which are more or less the logical result of the kind of politics he played to win the office he now holds."

Southern Pacific Agent At Silverton Leaving

SILVERTON, Or., Sept. 18.—(Special to The Statesman.)—E. F. Ghormley, who has been Southern Pacific agent at Silverton for the past two years, has received a promotion and will leave for Corvallis within the next 10 days. Mr. Ghormley says he is in no way dissatisfied with Silverton, and if it were not that he is receiving a promotion he would regret to leave. As yet no one has been selected to fill Mr. Ghormley's place.

INJURIES ARE FATAL TO GIRL

Inez Isaacs Dies of Fractured Skull Following Automobile Accident

Injuries sustained in an automobile accident Sunday night proved fatal early Monday morning when Miss Inez Isaacs, 19, Grand Ronde Indian girl, died at a local hospital. The accident occurred near the Keizer school on the river road, near Salem, about 7 o'clock in the evening. J. E. Prosser, Portland, driver of the car, and Miss Maggie Isaacs, 16, sister of the dead girl, escaped without serious injury.

Prosser was driving toward Salem and as the machine approached a bridge near the school, it skidded in loose gravel, struck both sides of the bridge, and plunged into the creek.

Though the water in the creek was only four feet deep, it was with great difficulty that Prosser and Maggie Isaac were able to free themselves and the injured girl from the wreckage. A passing motorist was hailed and brought the party to Salem. The girl's skull was fractured.

The remains were taken to the Rigdon mortuary yesterday. The dead girl is the daughter of Mr.

Albany College Above Broad Line

ALBANY, Sept. 18.—Albany college endowed with an additional $500,000 well equipped new buildings, and a course of study that will meet the national standardization of the best colleges, was the theme of Dr. Frank Riale of the board of education of the Presbyterian churches of the United States in an address at the First Presbyterian church here yesterday. Of this amount Albany is asked to raise $50,000.

Lorenzo Dole Ambitions

EUGENE, Sept. 18.—Lorenzo Dole, Lane's great "land locator and realty agent," held in the state insane asylum after committing various offenses against the state, writes Sheriff Fred Stickles for recommendations that will enable him to secure a few days leave of absence from the state hospital during fair week. Dole says he has a chance to make hundreds of dollars while the big crowd is in Salem, and needs a little liberty. He has a chance to go with a group from the asylum, under guard, but does not care to "associate with crazy people at such a time."

To Regale Mexican Lands

GRANTS PASS, Sept. 18.—Representing the four heirs to the estate left by his father, Robert Neale left Saturday for Mexico City to present his claims to the Mexican government. The estate consists of 50,000 acres of land near the Mexican border, lying in the rich oil belt. It is deemed of especial value because of its oil possibilities. The presentation of claims to the land was made possible by the recognition of Mexico by the United States government a short time ago, the neighboring country calling for all claims.

Not for a Recall.

PENDLETON, Sept. 18.—The East Oregonian is speaking out emphatically against the recall of Governor Pierce. It says editorially:

"If the forces back of the proposed recall of Governor Pierce persist in their move they will stage a markable vindication for the governor. The complaints made against Mr. Pierce are childish. It is no case at all. The people will resent the move because it means throwing the state into turmoil when there is no occasion for it. Governor Pierce may have made mistakes. All governors do. But the public knows that the present governor has striven faithfully and energetically to do his duty as he sees it. Furthermore he has made progress. He has done more for tax reform than any other governor in history. He can go before the people upon his record and knock his enemies into a cocked hat. The recall candidate, whoever that mysterious gentleman may be, is already defeated.

There is evidently plenty of money for financing a recall and there will be clever men in charge of it. But money does not win elections in Oregon. Furthermore, clever men often get too clever. The Portlanders back of the recall are in this class. Instead of dealing frankly they have tried to fool the people right at the start. They did not want to take the responsibility for the recall so they framed a plot to make people believe it originated in Umatilla county. Mr. Bean became their tool, ignorantly or otherwise.

but the plot was hair brained and it did not work. The jig was up the moment the trap was sprung. As a result the thing has been a boomerang. It was a sleight of hand effort to place this county in a false position and it is resented. It will be resented everywhere by fair minded people.

The recallers have already blown their fort to pieces and they did it with their own ammunition."

Unfriendly But Against Recall.

ASTORIA, Sept. 18.—The Evening Budget does not like Governor Pierce but it is strong against his recall. The Budget says editorially:

"A movement has been started for the recall of Governor Pierce. It is a mistake and, what is more, it is a piece of folly.

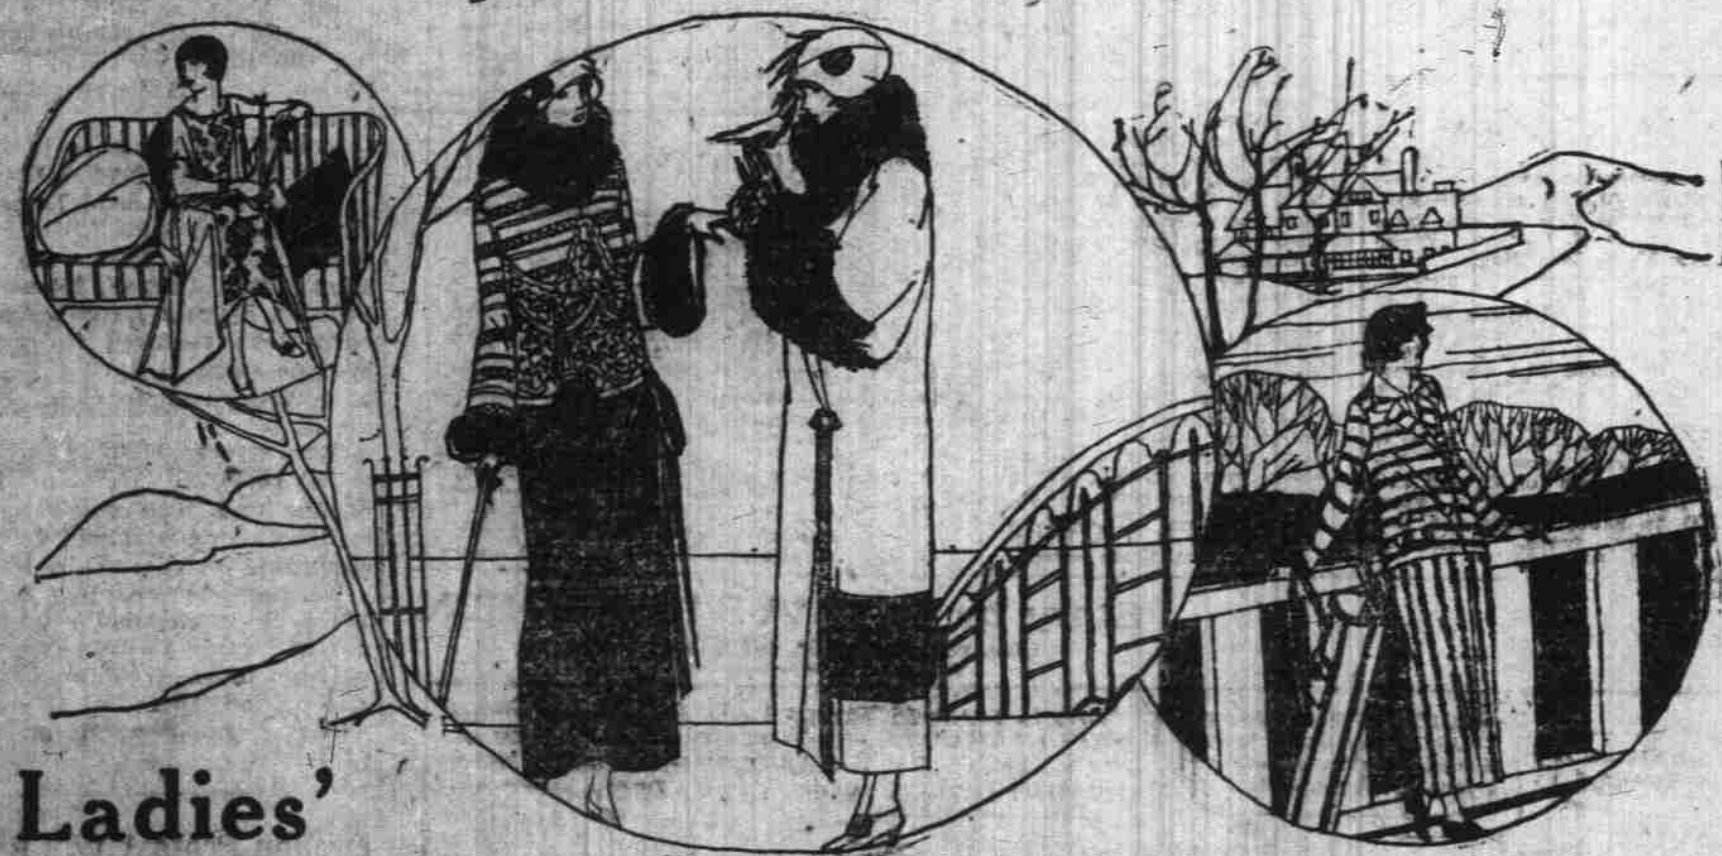

"It is not fair to the governor but, what is more important, it is not fair to the state of Oregon for such a movement to be undertaken with no more warrant than that which exists.

"The Budget was no supporter of Walter Pierce. As a candidate we found him unacceptable. As a governor he has given us no reason to change our pre-election judgment.

"We have little sympathy for him in the position in which he now finds himself, facing a possible recall election. He made his own bed and it is not comfortable when he comes to lie in it."
