WHAT ABOUT A SHIPPING POLICY?

President Coolidge is, at the very threshold of his administration, faced with the need of solving the shipping problem. And it is a tough problem. The immediate matter before him is an expediency plan of direct government operation that will bridge things over until Congress effectively legislates.

JEALOUSY HELD CRUEL

A court has decided that jealousy is cruel. A most wise decision. Nothing in this world has done quite so much damage as jealousy. It has disrupted more homes than can be counted, it has disrupted communities and nations.

WHEAT GROWERS AGREEMENT

Unless the proposed agreement among wheat growers is ironclad it is worthless. The trouble with every pool that has been formed among the farmers is that they have not been compulsory. It has been an easy matter for a dealer to slip around and offer a few cents above the market price for wheat.

DEMOCRATS AND THE LEAGUE

Senator Underwood says he is not so much in favor of the league of nations as he was. He declares that his change of views came because of his visit to Europe but the better reason is that he wants to be president and finds the issue unpopular.

REFRESHING CERTAINTY

Like a whiff of fresh air from a newly mown meadow an interview with Hendrick Shipstead to the wild monthings of Senator Magnus Johnson from the same state. Here is a prediction. Senator Shipstead will last in the senate and become a leader while Senator Johnson will slink around without being able to make any permanent impression upon legislation.

SPLITTING THE MORMON CHURCH

We notice there has been another drive launched to split the Mormon church. This has come to be an old story. For the life of us we cannot see the reason for this repeated effort. The Mormon religion may have its peculiarities but it compares with the

THE WORLD'S NEED

Judge Taft declares that doubts about orthodoxy ought not to influence the world in its religious trend. By this he means that religion is such an asset that it ought to be held to even if all of it is not related by mortal man.

JEALOUSY HELD CRUEL

A court has decided that jealousy is cruel. A most wise decision. Nothing in this world has done quite so much damage as jealousy. It has disrupted more homes than can be counted, it has disrupted communities and nations.

GUARANTERING INTEREST

There does not seem to be any economic reason why the state should guarantee the interest on any project. It is an enlargement of the government in business, it is the first step, the next being government or state control.

PURGED FROM RADICALS

The united mine workers have sent out a series of six articles showing how the radical element has striven to get possession of the organization and make it subject to Russia. Labor is facing a crisis different from what it has ever faced. It has been able to hold its own against outside foes but when it comes to boring from within—then the real danger appears.

THE SHORT STORY, JR.

Betty didn't keep her things clean. Betty seldom was fit to be seen. Her dresses had spots, Her shoestrings had knots, Her shoes were stained black and gray green.

THE DOLLHOUSE BEAUTIFUL

Miss Goldenhaired China Doll can't decide whether she looks best in a blue bedroom or against a background of pink wallpaper roses, but, at any rate, she is quite sure that heavy white cardboard furniture is the proper thing for a boudoir, so she orders a complete set, consisting of bed, bureau, desk and chair, and expects you to fill the order for her by making every piece yourself!

SIX VOYAGEURS RECEIVED IN LEGION PLAY ORDER

Proving their physical and moral fitness to the satisfaction of all present, six voyageurs were received into Les Societe Des 40 Hommes et 8 Chevaux last night. Those passing the severe tests were Dr. W. Carlton Smith, Lloyd T. Rigdon, Dr. G. E. Prime, Jake Fuher, Chalmers LeLe George and O. M. Berrie, the latter of Woodburn. A trip on the "galloping goose," a freak machine owned by the Marlon garage, was featured.

Mexican Revolt Damage Claims Pass $250,000,000

MEXICAN REVOLT 14. MEXICO CITY, Sept. 26.—Claims for damages to foreign property resulting from the Mexican revolution, already filed with the national claims commission total more than $250,000,000, according to the commission's last report.

Should a revolutionary claims convention be adopted after resumption of diplomatic relations between the United States and Mexico, as proposed in the understanding reached at the pre-recognition conference, this amount will be enormously increased, as numerous American and other foreign claims have not yet been filed with the national commission, but are held up for settlement through diplomatic channels.

her hands instead of her feet. Luckily, her mother was in too much of a hurry to look at her closely. She would sit in the back of the room and hide her feet under a chair. Maybe no one would notice. She remembered her heels were terribly run over, too. Her mother had been telling her to get them fixed, but she always forgot.

They were late, as Mrs. Fisher had feared. All the seats were taken except those in front of the room. Betty was pushed down the aisle in front of her mother. She could hear her mother's astonished gasp when she first saw those awful shoes.

Betty sank weakly into the first empty seat. "Elizabeth!" gasped her mother in her ear, just as Mrs. Graham rose to introduce the speaker. "It gives me great pleasure," she began, "to introduce to you the great author, Professor Selby. He will speak to you this afternoon on his latest book, 'Your Character as Revealed Through Your Feet.'"
